Chronicling six years of Thomas Merton's life in a Trappist monastery The Sign of Jonas takes us through his day to day experiences at the Abbey of Our Lady of Gethsemani where he lived in silence and prayer for much of his life Concluding with the account of Merton's ordination as a priest this diary documents his growing acceptance of his vocation and the greater meaning he found within his private world of contemplation This book is made unmistakably real and almost at times unbearably poignant by the fact that the exuberance of youth so often wells up through it with rapture impatience and even bluster The New York Times A stirring book the most readable and on the whole most illuminating of the author's writings Catholic World The Life and Miracles of St. Benedict Pope Gregory I, 1925 The Blessed Virgin Mary in England Vol. 1 Brother Anthony Josemaria Fti, 2008-11 O Blessed Confidence O Safe Refuge Mother of God and Our Mother St Anselm of Canterbury 1033-1109 Doctor of the Church What is not generally known and only infrequently studied is the role of Our Lady over the centuries as a catechist teacher of the faith in a very real sense primary teacher because she is Mother of God and Mother of the Church and faithful If any one factor might be singled out for the very high level of faith and religious practice in medieval merry England merry because Mary's dowry because consecrated to Mary as her possession and property it is this Marian catechesis Only when England deliberately rejected Mary did it cease to be the happy place it once was Unfortunately English colonization of other peoples took place only after the repudiation of Mary by England That is why this catechetical work is especially valuable for the faithful and those who are seeking faith in America and other English speaking cultures It will bring to their attention precisely what is central to catechetics and so often missing the presence of Mary Mother and Teacher It will make perfectly clear why we need not fewer Marian sanctuaries but many many more in all parts of the country where this quiet but so real and profound influence of the Marian principle of the Church will be felt at every level It is my prayer and hope that those who read and study this work will find the same inspiration and stimulus that I found in having the privilege to read the manuscript before publication We are much indebted to Brother Anthony Josemaria Pasquale a Franciscan Tertiary of the Immaculate and gifted scholar for the effort he has expended to find qualified contributors and to offer so well edited a book to the general public From the Foreword by Father Peter M Fehlner FI theologian sponsor of the International Symposium on Marian Coredeemption In the School of Contemplation André Louf, 2015-07-21 Dom Andr Louf 2010 was abbot of the Trappist Cistercian monastery of Mont des Cats in northern France from 1963 to 1997 This book brings together talks given to a variety of audiences in which he shared his spiritual experience from both his life of prayer and his life in community Each chapter offers inspiring insights on the spiritual experience the priority of love and other areas of our Christian life community life obedience prayer psalms the liturgy and more In this book we enter a school of contemplation wherein the monastic experience enlightens our lives and service to the world and the Church True Prayer Kenneth Leech, 1995-08-01 We do not create prayer writes Kenneth Leech but merely prepare the ground and clear away obstacles Prayer is always a gift a grace the flame which ignites wood
