Prison Diary One Hundred And Thirteen Days 1976:

The Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures Archie L. Dick, 2012-01-01 The Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures shows how the common practice of reading can illuminate the social and political history of a culture This ground breaking study reveals resistance strategies in the reading and writing practices of South Africans strategies that have been hidden until now for political reasons relating to the country's liberation struggles By looking to records from a slave lodge women's associations army education units universities courts libraries prison departments and political groups Archie Dick exposes the key works of fiction and non fiction magazines and newspapers that were read and discussed by political activists and prisoners Uncovering the book and library schemes that elites used to regulate reading Dick exposes incidences of intellectual fraud book theft censorship and book burning Through this innovative methodology Dick aptly shows how South African readers used reading and books to resist unjust regimes and build community across South Africa's class and racial barriers Prison Diary Fatima Meer, 2001 Well known anti apartheid activist's diary of her incarceration in the Fort in Johannesburg in the seventies Reproductions of paintings done in prison at the time are included South Africa and the Dream of Love to Come Brenna M. Munro, 2012 Uncovers the story of how the politics of queer sexuality have played out in the struggle for multiracial democracy in South Africa

Trauma, Resistance, Reconstruction in Post-1994 South African Writing Jaspal Kaur Singh, Rajendra Chetty, 2010 The reconceptualization of South Africa as a democracy in 1994 has influenced the production and reception of texts in this nation and around the globe The literature emerging after 1994 provides a vision for reconciling the fragmented past produced by the brutality of apartheid policies and consequently shifting social relations from a traumatized past to a reconstructed future The purpose of the essays in this anthology is to explore within the literary imagination and cultural production of a post apartheid nation and its people how the trauma and violence of the past are reconciled through textual strategies What role does memory play for the remembering subject working through the trauma of a violent past Colour, Class and Community - The Natal Indian Congress, 1971-1994 Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2021-11-01 Positions the history and inner workings of the Natal Indian Congress NIC against the canvas of the major political developments in South Africa during the 1970s and 1980s up to the first democratic elections in 1994 Following a hiatus in the 1960s the Natal Indian Congress NIC in South Africa was revived in 1971 In fascinating detail Ashwin Desai and Goolam Vahed bring the inner workings of the NIC to life against the canvas of major political developments in South Africa during the 1970s and 1980s and up to the first democratic elections in 1994 The NIC was relaunched during the rise of the Black Consciousness Movement which attracted a following among Indian university students and whose invocation of Indians as Black led to a major debate about ethnic organisations such as the NIC This debate persisted in the 1980s with the rise of the United Democratic Front and its commitment to non racialism The NIC was central to other major debates of the period most significantly the lines drawn between boycotting and participating in government created structures such as the Tri Cameral Parliament Despite threats of banning and incarceration the NIC kept attracting recruits who encouraged the development of community organisations such as students radicalised by the 1980s education boycotts and civic protests Colour Class and Community The Natal Indian Congress 1971 1994 details how some members of the NIC played dual roles as members of a legal organisation and as allies of the African National Congress underground armed struggle Drawing on varied sources including oral interviews newspaper reports and minutes of organisational meetings this in depth study tells a largely untold history challenging existing narratives around Indian cabalism and bringing the African and Indian political story into present debates about race class and nation

Colonial Systems of Control Viviane Saleh-Hanna, 2008-04-18 A pioneering book on prisons in West Africa Colonial Systems of Control Criminal Justice in Nigeria is the first comprehensive presentation of life inside a West African prison Chapters by prisoners inside Kirikiri maximum security prison in Lagos Nigeria are published alongside chapters by scholars and activists

While prisoners document the daily realities and struggles of life inside a Nigerian prison scholar and human rights activist Viviane Saleh Hanna provides historical political and academic contexts and analyses of the penal system in Nigeria The European penal models and institutions imported to Nigeria during colonialism are exposed as intrinsically incoherent with the community based conflict resolution principles of most African social structures and justice models This book presents the realities of imprisonment in Nigeria while contextualizing the colonial legacies that have resulted in the inhumane brutalities that are endured on a daily basis Published in English The History of Reading S. Towheed,W.

Owens,2011-08-25 Bringing together research from a variety of countries and periods this volume introduces readers to the diverse approaches used to recover the evidence of reading through history in different societies and asks whether reading practices are always conditioned by specific local circumstances or whether broader patterns might emerge

Encyclopedia of Women and Islamic Cultures Suad Joseph,Afsāna Naǧmābādī,2003 Family Law and Politics Volume II of the Encyclopedia of Women Islamic Cultures brings together over 360 entries on women family law politics and Islamic cultures around the world Print Cultures Caroline Davis,2019-07-23 This reader is the most comprehensive selection of key texts on twentieth and twenty first century print culture yet compiled Illuminating the networks and processes that have shaped reading writing and publishing the selected extracts also examine the effect of printed and digital texts on society Featuring a general introduction to contemporary print culture and publishing studies the volume includes 42 influential and innovative pieces of writing arranged around themes such as authorship women and print culture colonial and postcolonial publishing and globalisation Offering a concise survey of critical work this volume is an essential companion for students of literature or publishing with an interest in the history of the book Mourning and Resilience in Indian Ocean Life Writing Esther Pujolràs-Noguer,Felicity Hand,2023-12-28 This volume examines a selection of life writing in English by authors from the South West Indian Ocean namely South Africa East Africa Mauritius and Sri Lanka The two motifs that run through the chapters mourning and resilience are theoretical frameworks that have so far not been brought into conversation in this way The combination of trauma studies and autobiographical analysis sharpens the focus of the discussions on Indian Ocean life writing privileging an Indian Ocean imaginary that is transnational and cross oceanic in its orientation and pointing to networks of connections that transcend the nation state which is often the origin of trauma in the first place Filling a gap in Indian Ocean studies in its close readings of trauma and resilience the book also broadens perspectives on postcolonial life writing since little attention has been paid so far to Indian Ocean autobiographical literary products By the same token the volume also enriches the field of Indian Ocean literary studies by incorporating life writing as an aesthetic strategy which helps to configure Indian Ocean subjectivities Ludic Ubuntu Ethics Mechthild Nagel,2022-11-30 Ludic Ubuntu Ethics develops a positive peace vision taking a bold look at African and Indigenous justice practices and proposes new relational justice models Ubuntu signifies shared humanity presenting us a sociocentric perspective of life that is immensely helpful in rethinking the relation of offender and victim In this book Nagel introduces a new theoretical liberation model ludic Ubuntu ethics to showcase five different justice conceptions through a psychosocial lens allowing for a contrasting analysis of negative Ubuntu eg through shaming and separation towards positive Ubuntu eg mediation healing circles and practices that no longer rely on punishment Providing a novel perspective on penal abolitionism the volume draws on precolonial pre carceral Indigenous justice perspectives and Black feminism using discourse analysis and a constructivist approach to justice theory Nagel also introduces readers to a post secular turn by taking seriously the spiritual dimensions of healing from harm and highlighting the community s response Spanning disciplinary boundaries and aimed at readers seeking to understand how to move beyond reintegrative shaming and restorative justice theories the volume will engage scholars of criminology philosophy and law and more specifically penal abolitionism social ethics peace studies African studies critical legal studies and human rights It will also be of great interest to practitioners and activists in restorative justice mediation social work and performance studies

Islands of Extreme Exclusion ,2023-11-27 The island has historically played a special role in the cultural imagination sometimes as a place of promise of tranquillity at other times the remoteness has seemed attractive for more sinister reasons Using islands for extreme exclusion has a long history and remains important for understanding the complexities of inclusive education This volume presents new case studies of island exclusion of prisoners people with disability and refugees in the Global North and South It also offers reflections on practices of re inclusion and the larger issues of inclusive education

Relations and Networks in South African Indian Writing ,2018-05-15 Writers of Indian origin seldom appear in the South African literary landscape although the participation of Indian South Africans in the anti apartheid struggle was anything but insignificant The collective experiences of violence and the plea for reconciliation that punctuate the rhythms of post apartheid South Africa delineate a national script in which ethnic class and gender affiliations coalesce and patterns of connectedness between diverse communities are forged Relations and Networks in South African Indian Writing brings the experience of South African Indians to the fore demonstrating how their search for identity is an integral part of the national scene s project of connectedness By exploring how Indianness is articulated in the South African national script through the works of contemporary South African Indian writers such as Aziz Hassim Ahmed Essop Farida Karodia Achmat Dangor Shamim Sarif Ronnie Govender Rubendra Govender Neelan Govender Tholsi Mudly Ashwin Singh and Imraan Coovadia along with the prison memoirists Dr Goonam and Fatima Meer the book offers a theoretical model of South South subjectivities that is deeply rooted in the Indian Ocean world and its cosmopolitanisms Relations and Networks demonstrates convincingly the permeability of identity that is the marker of the Indian Ocean space a space defined by relations and networks established within and beyond ethnic class and gender categories CONTRIBUTORS Isabel Alonso Breto M J Daymond Felicity Hand Salvador Faura Farhad Khoiratty Esther Pujolr s Noguera J Coplen Rose Modhumita Roy Lindy Stiebel Juan Miguel Zarandona
