Toil Under the Sun R. Phillip Ritter, 2006-11-15 Toil Under the Sun is a powerful novel of an adopted boy's growth into manhood as a U S Marine during the Forgotten War in Korea. It is an intricately crafted account of friendship and betrayal, fear and courage, shame and atonement, which in exquisitely written prose explores the hidden rage and abnegation of an adopted child. Many of the great themes of literature and of life are woven into this masterful story: love, honor, respect, courage, guilt, fear, faith, and redemption. And most importantly, the story is guided throughout by the fundamental belief that our lives have meaning far beyond our daily toil under the sun. The author, R Phillip Ritter, is the son of a Korean War veteran and the father of two beloved sons, one of whom served as a U S Marine in Operation Iraqi Freedom. This novel draws considerably from the author's personal experiences of growing up with a deeply humble father who seldom spoke of his experiences in Korea and of learning to face the many challenges of parenting two adopted sons. The historical allusions to the Marine defense of Fox Hill in North Korea, a struggle against overwhelming odds, imbues the story with a desperate realism that creates an important backdrop to this insightful exploration of the inner turmoil of an adopted child.

Take Up Your Mat and Walk Mark Mah, 2016-10-07. This book uses the metaphor of walking to gain insight into the spiritual life. Walking is the most basic movement of the human body. For many people, walking carries no value on its own except to transit between two points. From the spiritual perspective, we can derive many benefits through the act of walking. As a spiritual discipline, walking not only has health benefits but generates different states of well-being that are good for the human soul and spirit. Walking gives us pleasure, joy, happiness, and serenity. Metaphorically speaking, walking gives us a sense that we are on a journey with God. It also helps us to know the importance of engaging our physical bodies in our spirituality. It keeps us attuned to the present moment, cultivates in us a sense of wonder in the natural world, creates an inner space in our cluttered lives, highlights the need for solitude and silence, and gives us the freedom of simplicity that the soul enjoys.
