Shadows Muriel E. Newton-White, 1981 Long Century's Long Shadow Kenneth S. Calhoon, 2021-06-25 The Long Century's Long Shadow approaches German Romanticism and Weimar cinema as continuous developments enlisting both in a narrative of reciprocal illumination The author investigates different moments and media as connected phenomena situated at alternate ends of the long nineteenth century but joined by their mutual rejection of the neo-classical aesthetic standard of placid and weightless poise in numerous media including film painting sculpture prose poetry and dance Connecting Weimar filmmaking to Romantic thought and practice Kenneth S. Calhoon offers a non-technological aesthetic genealogy of cinema He focuses on well-known literary and artistic works including films such as Nosferatu Metropolis Frankenstein and Fantasia the writings of Conrad Kafka Goethe and Novalis and the paintings of Caspar David Friedrich one of the leading artists of German Romanticism With an eye to the modernism of which Weimar filmmaking was a part The Long Century's Long Shadow employs the Romantic landscape in poetry and painting as a mirror in which to regard cinema Long Shadows

Long Shadows Marie Luise Kaschnitz, 1995 This collection of short stories some semi-autobiographical by Marie Luise Kaschnitz 1901-74 the eminent German novelist and poet reflects many of the themes to be found throughout her fiction such as the dread of moral anarchy which leaves nothing in its wake and the shaping of individual destinies by loneliness insecurity and fear Usually told from a woman's viewpoint her works feature strong female characters whose inner strength enable them to overcome their fears and accept their fates with stoic determination Kaschnitz's chief concern is the human condition giving her work a continuing relevance she confronts such universal issues as growing old growing up and the loss of religious faith as well as those which have a more contemporary resonance including the social problems of working parents and adoption The Greeting, 1867 New York Supreme Court, Guild Court George MacDonald, 1881 Guild Court is the 1869 novel by the famous Scottish author poet and Christian minister George MacDonald The story follows two families through a series of interconnected tales and several twists of fortune A quaint story with unforgettable characters that made George MacDonald

Genocide Perspectives VI Nikki Marczak, Kirril Shields, 2020-12-21 Genocide Perspectives VI grapples with two core themes the personal toll of genocide and processes that facilitate the crime From political choices governments and leaders make through to denialism and impunity the crime of genocide recurs again and again across the globe At what cost to individuals and communities What might the legacy of this criminality be This collection of essays examines the personal sacrifice genocide takes from those who live through the trauma and the generations that follow Contributors speak to the way visual art and literature attempt to represent genocide hoping to make sense of problematic histories while also offering a means of reflection after years of slow violence or silenced memories Some authors generously allow us into their own histories or contemplate how they may have experienced genocide had they been born in another time or place What facets contribute to the processes that lead to or enable the crime of genocide This collection explores those processes through a variety of case studies and lenses How do nurses whose role is inherently linked to care and compassion become mass killers How do restrictions on religious freedom play a role in advancing genocidal policies and why do perpetrators of genocide often target religious leaders Why is it so important for Australia and other nations with histories of colonial genocide to acknowledge their past Among the essays published in this volume we have the privilege and the sorrow of publishing the very last essay Professor Colin Tatz wrote before his passing in 2019 His contribution reveals yet again the enormous influence of both his research and his original ideas on genocide He reflects on continuing legacies for Indigenous Australian communities with whom he worked for many decades and adds nuance to contemporary understanding of the Armenian Genocide and the Holocaust two other cases to which he was deeply committed
