Long Term Care And Ethnicity:

Long-Term Care and Ethnicity Ada Mui, Namkee G. Choi, Abraham Monk, 1998-08-27 The first comprehensive analysis of ethnic racial differences in long term care needs and service use Ethnic Elderly and Long-term Care Charles M. Barresi, 1993 Racial/ethnic Differences in Utilization of Long Term Care Services Among the Elderly Nadereh Pourat, 1995 Long Term Care Services in the United States: 2013 Overview National Center for Health Statistics, 2014-03 Long term care services include a broad range of services that meet the needs of frail older people and other adults with functional limitations Long Term care services provided by paid regulated providers are a significant component of personal health care spending in the United States This report presents descriptive results from the first wave of the National Study of Long Term Care Providers NSLTCP which was conducted by the Centers for Disease Control and Preventions National Center for Health Statistics NCHS This report provides information on the supply organizational characteristics staffing and services offered by providers of long term care services and the demographic health and functional composition of users of these services Service users include residents of nursing homes and residential care communities patients of home health agencies and hospices and participants of adult day services centers The Culture of Long Term Care J Neil Henderson, Maria D. Vesperi, 1995-08-30 This is the only collection of its kind to offer an inside view of life and work in contemporary nursing homes with the purpose of developing a theory of the culture of long term care The anthropological research in nursing homes presented here produces a seldom seen native view of patients staff and the day to day workings of American nursing homes The use of ethnographic methods penetrates the reality barriers found in industry descriptions muck raking discourse and general societal aversion toward nursing homes The tensions found between and within staff culture and patient culture are explored in terms of adaptations to institutional life in the context of current policy and the larger American ageist culture Vulnerable Populations in the Long Term Care Continuum Paul R. Katz, MD, 2003-11-17 Since publication of the last series volume focusing on emerging systems long term care has continued to evolve This present volume brings to the forefront issues related to populations of varying age groups that have been neglected or under reported The chapters focus on populations or groups of professionals that are integral to long term care as recipients of services or as care providers The authors present evidence to foster the creation of new paradigms of care and inform policy makers of the need for innovation Topics examined include Pediatric Skilled Nursing Facilities Mental Health Services Management of AIDS Patients Chronic Illness and Disability in the Prison Setting Sexuality in long Term Care Decision Making for Vulnerable Populations in the Nursing Home Race, Socioeconomic Status, and Family Structure Kathleen A. Cagney, 1998 Managing the Long-Term Care Facility Rebecca M. Perley, 2025-01-28 Practical and compassionate approaches to providing quality care and safeguarding quality of life The second edition of Managing the Long Term Care Facility Practical Approaches to Providing Quality Care updates the first edition s discussion of the operational requirements necessary to manage a skilled nursing facility This book presents sensitive and empathic regulatory compliant methods for the delivery of care that fosters an empowering environment for all stakeholders Additional new information includes aging in place trauma informed care ethical dilemmas and collaborative decision making workforce culture and surveys enforcement actions and appeals The pedagogical tools include chapter summaries with quiz questions and case studies Instructors also have access to PowerPoint slides and test banks This book is an excellent resource for students and individuals interested in working in long term care and other health care industries The updated best practices for clinical and non clinical roles within the facility and material on resident advocacy and other important topics provide valuable information for the reader Working professionals can benefit from the emphasis placed on practical approaches to facilitate person centered and whole person care and a facility s sustainability
