wanderings take us to the clay ovens of the prehistoric eastern Mediterranean and the bronze cauldrons of ancient China to fabulous banquets in the temples and courts of Mesopotamia Egypt and Persia to medieval English cookshops and southeast Asian street markets to palace kitchens diners and modern fast food eateries Symons samples conceptions and perceptions of cooks and cooking from Plato and Descartes to Marx and Virginia Woolf asking why cooks despite their vital and central role in sustaining life have remained in the shadows unheralded unregarded and underappreciated People think of meals as occasions where you share food he notes they rarely think of cooks as sharers of food Considering such notions as the physical and political consequences of sauce connections between food and love and cooking as a regulator of clock and calendar Symons provides a spirited and diverting defense of a cook centered view of the world Shakespeare Dwelling Julia Reinhard Lupton, 2018-04-06 Great halls and hovels dove houses and sheepcotes mountain cells and seaside shelters these are some of the spaces in which Shakespearean characters gather to dwell and to test their connections with one another and their worlds Julia Reinhard Lupton enters Shakespeare's dwelling places in search of insights into the most fundamental human problems Focusing on five works Romeo and Juliet Macbeth Pericles Cymbeline and The Winter's Tale Lupton remakes the concept of dwelling by drawing on a variety of sources including modern design theory Renaissance treatises on husbandry and housekeeping and the philosophies of Hannah Arendt and Martin Heidegger The resulting synthesis not only offers a new entry point into the contemporary study of environments it also shows how Shakespeare s works help us continue to make sense of our primal creaturely need for shelter The Cookbook Library Anne Willan, Mark Cherniavsky, 2012-03-03 This gorgeously illustrated volume began as notes on the collection of cookbooks and culinary images gathered by renowned cookbook author Anne Willan and her husband Mark Cherniavsky From the spiced sauces of medieval times to the massive roasts and rago ts of Louis XIV s court to elegant eighteenth century chilled desserts The Cookbook Library draws from renowned cookbook author Anne Willan's and her husband Mark Cherniavsky's antiquarian cookbook library to guide readers through four centuries of European and early American cuisine As the authors taste their way through the centuries describing how each cookbook reflects its time Willan illuminates culinary crosscurrents among the cuisines of England France Italy Germany and Spain A deeply personal labor of love The Cookbook Library traces the history of the recipe and includes some of their favorites Vanity Fair .2018 The Guide to Cooking Schools, 1991 Robertson's Book of Firsts Patrick Robertson, 2011-11-11 Completely unlike any encyclopedia before it The Book of Firsts is the product of decades of archiving and research from the incredible Patrick Robertson For many years the proprietor of a stock photo archive and collector of all forms of ephemera Robertson boasts a library that includes ads clippings and archival materials going back well over 100 years In this amazing work Robertson indexes and describes the things he considers socially relevant such as the first black head of a white government it s not who you think the first baby carriage and the first department store He writes about all this with an unparalleled knowledge and impossible to fake fluency with a staggering number of subjects What s more Robertson renders this massive reference with subtle but distinctive humor and an eye for fascinating detail Every entry in this book includes a first time in America and many also have firsts from elsewhere in the world With a handsome design and an oversized trim this will be both a groundbreaking work of reference and a beautiful gift for trivia heads Go,1951-04 The Atlantic Monthly James Russell Lowell, James Thomas Fields, William Dean Howells, Thomas Bailey Aldrich, Horace Elisha Scudder, Walter Hines Page, Bliss Perry, Ellery Sedgwick, 1978 House & Garden, 1952 Report and Journal Women's Farm and Garden Association, 1920

Staging Domesticity Wendy Wall,2002-01-10 What role does food and cooking play in how people imagine themselves and their communities In this book Wendy Wall argues that representations of housework in the early modern period helped to forge crucial conceptions of national identity Rich with a detailed account of household practices in the period Staging Domesticity reads plays on the London stage in the light of the first printed cookbooks in England Working from original historical sources on wetnursing laundering sewing medical care and butchery Wall shows that domesticity was represented as deeply familiar but also enticingly alien Wall analyses a wide range of the repertoire including some now little known plays as well as key works in the period by Shakespeare and others Wall concludes that rather than dramatizations of only court based and aristocratic domestic life literature of the period drew on work from the more common household Journal of the Early Book Society for the Study of Manuscripts and Printing History Early Book Society,1998
