languages Adopting a comparative view the authors examine the semantic extensions of perception words in English and Chinese in order to reveal the metaphorical scope of each sense and the metaphorical system behind it They argue that the metaphorical systems of the senses not only help us understand and use conventionalised metaphorical expressions but also allow us to create novel expressions The findings also unveil how abstract concepts are constructed via cognitive mechanisms such as image schema and metaphor This title is a useful reference for scholars and students who are interested in cognitive linguistics comparative linguistics and the philosophy of language Multimodal Approaches to Chinese-English Translation and Interpreting Meifang Zhang,Dezheng (William) Feng,2020-12-29 Nowadays discourse analysis deals with not only texts but also paratexts and images so do translation and interpreting studies Therefore the concept of multimodality has become an increasingly important topic in the subject areas of linguistics discourse analysis and translation studies However up to now not much research has been done systematically on multimodal factors in translation and interpreting and even less in exploring research models or methodologies for multimodal analysis in translation and interpreting This book aims to introduce and apply different theories of the multimodal discourse analysis to the study of translations with case studies on Chinese classics such as the Monkey King Mulan and The Art of War as well as on interpretations of up to date issues including the Chinese Belt and Road Initiatives and Macao tourism The chapters reflect the first attempts to apply multimodal approaches to translation and interpreting with a special focus on Chinese English translations and interpreting They provide new understandings of transformations in the multimodal translation process and useful reference models for researchers who are interested in doing research of a similar kind especially for those who are interested in looking into translations related to Chinese language literature and culture Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 Subject Guide to Children's Books In Print, 1990-1991 R R Bowker Publishing,1990-09
