The Search for Medieval Music in Africa and Germany, 1891-1961 Anna Maria Busse Berger, 2020-10-30 This innovative book reassesses the history of musicology unearthing the field's twentieth century German and global roots In the process Anna Maria Busse Berger exposes previously unseen historical relationships such as those between the modern rediscovery of medieval music the rise of communal singing and the ways in which African music intersected with missionary work in the German colonial period Ultimately Busse Berger offers a monumental new account of the early twentieth century music culture in Germany and East Africa The book unfolds in three parts Busse Berger starts with the origins of comparative musicology circa 1900 when early proponents used ideas from comparative linguistics to test whether parallels could be drawn between nonwestern and medieval European music She then turns to youth movements of the era the Wandervogel Jugendmusikbewegung and Singbewegung whose focus on joint music making influenced many musicologists Finally she considers case studies of Protestant and Catholic mission societies in what is now Tanzania where missionaries many of them musicologists and former youth group members extended the discipline via ethnographic research and a focus on local music and communities In highlighting these long overlooked transnational connections and the role of global music in early musicology Busse Berger shapes a fresh conception of music scholarship during a pivotal part of the twentieth century

Schooling and Difference in Africa George Jerry Sefa Dei, Riyadh Ahmed Shahjahan, Sharon Eblaghie Bahador, Alireza Asgharzadeh, 2006-01-01 Since the 1950s when most African countries gained political independence schooling has presented very difficult challenges In the discussion of these challenges however the issue of diversity has received relatively little attention Schooling and Difference in Africa aims to understand how differences such as ethnicity class gender language religion and disability play out in African schools systems and more specifically in Ghana Together George J Sefa Dei Alireza Asgharzadeh Sharon Eblaghie Bahador and Riyadh Ahmed Shahjahan promote educational inclusion in the context of African schooling The aspects of diversity explored in this study include minority majority relations race ethnicity gender language class religion and physical disability The authors build their analyses of these issues around a series of interviews which project a perspective that policy makers and administrators rarely seek out By studying the challenges of inclusive education in Ghana and further by making comparisons with the Canadian context this volume seeks to shed light on the ongoing struggle for an empowering school system in Africa and elsewhere

New From Africa Watch , In Search of the Okapi. A Story of Adventure in Central Africa Ernest Glanville, 2023-08-22 In In Search of the Okapi A Story of Adventure in Central Africa Ernest Glanville invites readers into the lush enigmatic jungles of the Congo blending vivid descriptions with an adventurous narrative that reflects both the thrill of exploration and the complexities of colonial encounters The story unfolds through the eyes of a spirited protagonist as he embarks on a quest to discover the elusive okapi intertwining natural history with the rich tapestry of African culture Glanville's style is marked by an engaging prose that captures the exotic landscape and fauna while simultaneously addressing the ethical dilemmas of European exploration during the late 19th century Ernest Glanville a South African writer and journalist whose life was deeply influenced by his passion for nature and adventure draws upon his own travels in Africa to inform this narrative His experiences as a pioneer of early adventure writing reflect a keen awareness of both the beauty and the harsh realities of the continent illustrating the tensions inherent in Western perceptions of Africa at the time Glanville s affinity for storytelling is evident in his meticulous attention to setting and character development rendering the African wilderness almost a character in its own right This captivating tale is highly recommended to readers who possess a love for adventure and an interest in Africa s complex legacy Glanville s work is not only an entertaining narrative but also a critical study of the intersection between nature and humanity making it a must read for enthusiasts of travel literature historical narratives and colonial exploration In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read From Africa to Illinois, The Search for Freedom and a Place to Call Home Raleigh L.

Stargazing from Game Reserves in Southern Africa Anthony Fairall, 2013-10-03 A game reserve is not only ideal for viewing animals but it is also an excellent location from which to study the stars. Stargazing from Game Reserves in Southern Africa is a lively introduction to the night skies offering visitors to game reserves and nature parks in fact any out of town location the opportunity to turn their binoculars skyward after dark and to make sense of the myriad stars and recognise some of the patterns they form. The author takes readers on a celestial game drive directing them towards the Big Five constellations of the night sky. He provides clear steps for novice star watchers to navigate the skies track the planets and even spot the moons of Jupiter and possibly the crescent of Venus. No prior knowledge of astronomy is needed to enjoy these introductory excursions into the night skies. Expertly illustrated with colour photographs wildlife artwork line drawings and 12 star maps this book is a welcome addition to the collection of any outdoor enthusiast.

A Turbulent Voyage Floyd W. Hayes, 2000-05 This anthology is designed to introduce the reader to the contours and content of African American Studies. The text and readings included here not only impart information but seek as their foremost goal to precipitate in the reader an awareness of the complex and changing character of the African American experience its origins developments and future challenges. The book aims to engage readers in the critical analysis of a broad spectrum of subjects themes and issues ancient and medieval Africa Western European domination and African enslavement resistance to oppression African American expressive culture family and educational policies economic and political matters and the importance of ideas. The materials included in this anthology comprise a discussion of some of the fundamental problems and prospects related to the African American experience that deserve attention in a course in African American Studies. African American Studies is a broad field concerned with the examination of the black experience both historically and presently. Hence the subjects themes and issues included in this text transcend the narrow confines of traditional academic disciplinary boundaries. In selecting materials for this book Floyd W. Hayes was guided by a developmental or historical approach in the general compilation of each section's readings. By doing so the author hopes that the reader will be enabled to arrive at a critical understanding of the conditions and forces that have influenced the African American experience.
