Looking After Heritage Places The Basics Of Heritage Planning For Managers Landowners And Administrators:

Looking After Heritage Places Michael Pearson, Sharon Sullivan, 1995 A handbook for all those interested in the declaration and maintenance of heritage properties including managers owners rangers wardens voluntary workers caretakers and administrators It may also be useful to students and practitioners in the conservation field Looking After Heritage Places Michael Pearson, Sharon Sullivan, 2013-04-01 Most people want to know about their past and to see and hear about the evidence of it They want to learn about past history and some places are particularly suited to achieving this Conservation of such places is important to national or local self identity Looking After Heritage Places is a comprehensive reference and sourcebook for anyone managing a heritage place an Aboriginal site historic building or any other place of cultural importance to the community The authors provide a step by step guide to identifying a heritage place assessing and documenting the site implementing conservation practices visitor management international and Australian legislation Looking After Heritage Places offers a wealth of information on preserving and conserving heritage places for administrators owners caretakers volunteers students and professionals Pearson and Sullivan survey key issues currently being debated in the field and in the wider community and discuss their implications for heritage management Safeguarding Intangible Heritage Natsuko Akagawa, Laurajane Smith, 2018-06-27 The UNESCO Convention for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage came into force in 2006 framing the international and national practices and policies associated with intangible cultural heritage This volume critically and reflexively examines these practices and policies providing an accessible account of the different ways in which intangible cultural heritage has been defined and managed in both national and international contexts As Safeguarding Intangible Heritage reveals the concept and practices of safeguarding are complicated and often contested and there is a need for international debate about the meaning nature and value of heritage and what it means to safeguard it Safeguarding Intangible Heritage presents a significant cross section of ideas and practices from some of the key academics and practitioners working in the area whose areas of expertise span anthropology law heritage studies linguistics archaeology museum studies folklore architecture Indigenous studies and history The chapters in this volume give an overarching analysis of international policy and practice and critically frame case studies that analyze practices from a range of countries including Australia Canada China Indonesia Japan Korea Kyrgyzstan New Zealand Taiwan the UK and Zimbabwe With a focus on conceptual and theoretical issues this follow up to Intangible Heritage by the same editors will be of great interest to students scholars and professionals working in the fields of heritage and museum studies heritage conservation heritage tourism global history international relations art and architectural history and linguists Stakeholder Perspectives on World Heritage and Development in Africa Pascall Taruvinga, 2022-08-25 Stakeholder Perspectives on World Heritage and Development in Africa argues that World Heritage Sites WHS across the African continent should adopt practical innovative creative and alternative management approaches that bring greater socio economic benefits to society whilst protecting their Outstanding Universal Value Drawing on empirical evidence gathered in conversation with stakeholders at WHS across Africa the book explores the challenges involved in implementing conservation and socio economic development as a stakeholder driven process Demonstrating that heritage can no longer be viewed as totally separate from its socio economic context Pascall argues that decisions about the management of heritage need to make sense at the local level if they are to be supported by stakeholders As the book shows heritage is still viewed and managed through systems approaches and strategies inherited from the colonial period despite the increasing availability of inclusive governance systems Stakeholders offer alternative creative and innovative approaches that capitalize on the potential of World Heritage to contribute to socio economic development whilst ensuring that its credibility and integrity are maintained Stakeholder Perspectives on World Heritage and Development in Africa offers unique insights into local perspectives on World Heritage and development in Africa The book will be essential reading for academics students development partners and practitioners around the world who are interested in museums and heritage conservation development and the African continent Also the book will be useful in the preparation of nomination dossiers management plans development plans and in disaster risk management at WHS

Management Planning for Cultural Heritage Ken Taylor, Giulio Verdini, 2021-12-30 Management Planning for Cultural Heritage challenges traditional perceptions of and about the heritage planning process while also presenting a comprehensive analysis of the ever widening field of Cultural Heritage Conservation Drawing on the authors experience in teaching and involvement in international practice the book examines the changes that are taking place in modes of thinking about heritage as part of increasingly complex urban transformations and considers how these must engage with and inform professional practice The book also acknowledges that international best practice has developed a great deal over the last 40 years and needs to be adapted applied and refined through the recognition and application of regional values tangible and intangible based on cultural attitudes and practices Emphasising the critical role of heritage planning and management in guiding change Taylor and Verdini argue that this is especially critical if we are to safeguard values identity and significance In this sense heritage is understood not only as a technical process but also as a social construct The book therefore promotes a people centred approach to cultural heritage management Management Planning for Cultural Heritage will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners working in heritage studies and conservation While the text has professional application it also sets out to present a sound theoretical foundation relevant to the body of knowledge associated with management of cultural heritage places

Archaeological Heritage Conservation and Management Brian J. Egloff, 2019-01-31 Archaeological heritage conservation is all too often highly conflicted Economic interests are often at the forefront of management decision making with heritage values given lesser if any consideration but when heritage places are managed with international principles in mind the sites stand out as evidencing superior outcomes

UNESCO, Cultural Heritage, and Outstanding Universal Value Sophia Labadi, 2013 This book explores the international legal framework developed by UNESCO to identify and protect world heritage and its implementation at the national level Drawing on close policy analysis of UNESCO s major documents extensive professional experience at UNESCO as well as in depth analyses of case studies from Asia Europe and Latin America Sophia Labadi offers a nuanced discussion of the constitutive role of national understandings of a universalist framework The discussion departs from considerations of the World Heritage Convention as Eurocentric and offers a more complex analysis of how official narratives relating to non European and non traditional heritage mark a subversion of a dominant and canonical European representation of heritage It engages simultaneously with a diversity of discourses across the humanities and social sciences and with related theories pertaining not only to tangible and intangible heritage conservation and archaeology but also political science social theory tourism and development studies economics cultural and gender studies In doing so it provides a critical review of many key concepts including tourism development sustainability intangible heritage and authenticity

Management Planning for Archaeological Sites Jeanne Marie Teutonico, Gaetano Palumbo, Getty Conservation Institute, Loyola Marymount University, 2002 This volume reports on the proceedings of a workshop held in Greece near the ancient site of Corinth to discuss challenges faced by archaeological sites in the Mediterranean and to examine management planning methods that might generate effective conservation strategies

Cultural Heritage and Tourism Dallen J. Timothy, 2011 One of the most salient forms of modern day tourism is based on the heritage of humankind The majority of all global travel entails some element of the cultural past as hundreds of millions of people visit cultural attractions heritage festivals and historic places each year The book delves into this vast form of tourism by providing a comprehensive examination of its issues current debates concepts and practices It looks at the social physical and economic impacts which cause destinations site managers and interpreters to consider not only how to plan and manage resources but also how to portray the past in ways that are acceptable accurate accessible and politically relevant In the process however the depth of heritage politics the authenticity and inauthenticity of place and experience and the urgent need to protect living and built cultures are exposed The book explores these and many other current issues surrounding the management of cultural resources for tourism In order to help students relate concepts to real world situations it combines theory and practice is student learning oriented is written accessibly for all readers and is empirically rich Pub website CRM, 2010

Sustainable Marketing of Cultural and Heritage Tourism Deepak Chhabra, 2010-04-19 The book first explains the dynamics of cultural heritage with its authenticity underpinnings marketing and tourism and proposes a strategic praxis drawn from core sustainable principles

Art and Cultural Heritage Barbara T. Hoffman, 2006 Art and Cultural Heritage is appropriately but not solely about national and international law respecting cultural heritage It is a bubbling cauldron of law mixed with ethics philosophy politics and working principles looking at how cultural heritage law policy and practice should be sculpted from the past as the present becomes the future Art and cultural heritage are two pillars on which a society builds its identity its values its sense of community and the individual The authors explore these demanding concerns untangle basic values and look critically at the conflicts and contradictions in existing art and cultural heritage law and policy in its diverse sectors The rich and provocative contributions collectively provide a reasoned discussion of the issues from a multiplicity of views to permit the reader to understand the theoretical and philosophical underpinnings of the cultural heritage debate

The Politics of World Heritage David Harrison, Michael Hitchcock, 2005-01-01 This collection of papers discuss World Trade Law and focus on the contested nature of World Heritage at sites as diverse as The Netherlands Ellis Island USA post colonial Mesoamerica Cambodia Fiji Kyrgyzstan and Vietnam In addition eight research notes explore heritage interpretation in the USA Lebanon Peru Indonesia Singapore Tasmania and India

Digging It Up Down Under Claire Smith, Heather Burke, 2007-03-14 This field manual provides essential background information for those interested in undertaking archaeology in Australia Professional archaeologists provide their personal tips for working in each state and territory dealing with a living heritage working with Aboriginal peoples and coping with Australian conditions Grounded in the social political and ethical issues that inform Australian archaeology today this book is also packed with practical advice

Exploring Culture and Heritage Through Experience Tourism Rawal, Yashwant Singh, Sinha, Rupa, Mukherjee, Sankar Kumar, Batabyal, Debasish, 2023-10-24 The impact of disasters and crises on culture heritage and religious tourism have been realized in recent years creating a need for solutions to heal and prevent future damage to these aspects of tourist regions There is a need for strategies in mitigating these challenges and preserving cultural sites for the future An emphasis on the importance of sustainability in cultural and heritage tourism discussions on digitalization stakeholder participation and socio economic livelihoods must be made to properly address this intricate issue This book explores the development marketing and societal implications of cultural and heritage tourism enterprises showcasing best practices and innovative business models Exploring Culture and Heritage Through Experience Tourism is an academic research book that delves into the intricate relationship between tourism culture and heritage It offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary exploration of this evolving field Drawing on the latest research and international frameworks this volume identifies new areas of culture and heritage tourism understand its scope and challenges and highlight its interlinkages with various sectors of the industry and the broader economy Designed for undergraduate and postgraduate students of travel and tourism management this book serves as a valuable resource It also meets the needs of universities with cultural and heritage tourism in their curricula and offers insights for industry leaders policymakers and researchers interested in multidisciplinary studies Heritage, Communities and Archaeology Laurajane Smith, Emma Waterton, 2013-11-20 This book traces the development of community archaeology identifying both its advantages and disadvantages by describing how and why tensions have arisen between archaeological and community understandings of the past The focus of this book is the conceptual disjunction between heritage and data and the problems this poses for both archaeologists and communities in communicating and engaging with each other In order to explain the extent of the miscommunication that can occur the authors examine the ways in which a range of community groups including communities of expertise define and negotiate memory and identity Importantly they explore the ways in which these expressions are used or are taken up in struggles over cultural recognition and ultimately the practical ethical political and theoretical implications this has for archaeologists engaging in community work Finally they argue that there are very real advantages for archaeological research theory and practice to be gained from engaging with communities A Future for Archaeology Robert Layton, Stephen Shennan, Peter Stone, 2016-09-16 Over the last thirty years issues of culture identity and meaning have moved out of the academic sphere to become central to politics and society at all levels from the local to the global Archaeology has been at the forefront of these moves towards a greater engagement with the non academic world often in an extremely practical and direct way for example in the disputes about the repatriation of human burials Such disputes have been central to the recognition that previously marginalized groups have rights in their own past that are important for their future The essays in this book look back at some of the most important events where a role for an archaeology concerned with the past in the present first emerged and look forward to the practical and theoretical issues now central to a socially engaged discipline and shaping its future This book is published in honor of Professor Peter Ucko who has played an unparalleled role in promoting awareness of the core issues in this volume among archaeologists

Archaeology and Heritage Management Usman Ali, 2021 This volume reconsiders the World Heritage Guidelines to manage cultural and natural heritage sites effectively The study approaches this in two ways The first is by evaluating and analyzing the fundamental theories and practice of heritage with comparison to World Heritage prescribed parameters for effective management particularly authenticity and the second is about to rereview the international legislation in the context of authenticity of heritage practice as a part of understanding and developing new parameters for conservation preservation and management Cultural Tourism Hilary du Cros, Bob McKercher, 2014-12-05 Cultural Tourism remains the only book to bridge the gap between cultural tourism and cultural and heritage management The first edition illustrated how heritage and tourism goals can be integrated in a management and marketing framework to produce sustainable cultural tourism The current edition takes this further to base the discussion of cultural tourism in the theory and practice of cultural and heritage management CM and CHM under the understanding that for tourism to thrive a balanced approach to the resource base it uses must be maintained An umbrella approach to cultural tourism represents a unique feature of the book proposing solutions to achieve an optimal outcome for all sectors Reflecting the many important developments in the field this new edition has been completely revised and updated in the following ways New sections on tangible and intangible cultural heritage and world heritage sites Expanded material on cultural tourism product development the cultural tourism market and consumer behaviour planning and delivery of exceptional experiences New case studies throughout drawn from cultural attractions in developing countries such as Southeast Asia China South Africa and the Pacific as well as from the developed world particularly the United States Britain Japan Singapore Australia and Canada Written by experts in both tourism and cultural heritage management this book will enable professionals and students to gain a better understanding of their own and each other's roles in achieving sustainable cultural tourism It provides a blueprint for producing top quality long term cultural tourism products
