Looking Into The Abyss:

The Bridge at the Edge of the World James Gustave Speth, 2008-01-01 Presents an analysis of modern capitalism and its impact on the global environmental crises and discusses how the transformation of current economic and political systems can lead to environmental sustainability

Types of Interpretation in the Aesthetic Disciplines Staffan Carlshamre, Anders Pettersson, 2003 Types of Interpretation in the Aesthetic Disciplines begins from the observation that interpretation even the special kind represented by interpretation of the arts is not a homogeneous activity The many different types of such interpretation vary with respect to objectives and criteria of adequacy and attempts to explain art interpretation in terms of a single unified logic are therefore bound to fail Five Swedish scholars and theorists from different disciplines literary studies philosophy and art history discuss the multiplicity of principles of interpretation and provide a descriptive analysis of the concept of interpretation itself that clarifies the main features of the rationale underlying the interpretation of literature and the arts Their discussion provides a much needed bridge between analytical aesthetics and theoretical discussion within the individual aesthetic disciplines The introduction and concluding remarks by the editors provide both a frame for discussion of the issues and a historical perspective on the debates about interpretation

Sex In The Head Linda R. Williams, 2016-07-01 In Sex in the Head Linda Ruth Williams uses psychoanalysis and recent feminist film theory to analyze a network of ideas which link looking with sexuality and difference in the work of a writer who disavowed yet covertly enjoyed the pleasures and power of vision The book is a departure from the long history of feminist readings of Lawrence in that it discusses his engagement with theories of the gaze and its cultural forms cinema photography painting and the visual dynamics and metaphors of literary texts as a way of thinking through gender It shows him arguing on the one hand against the evils of cinema and visual sex while relishing through the eyes of women the moving spectacle of those male bodies which populate the pages of his books It also questions what it is about the work of such an adamant cinephobe which has made it so thoroughly adaptable for film and television

Looking In the Distance Richard Holloway, 2009-08-06 Spirituality like morality has historically been tied to religion and yet it is possible for one to exist without the other In this meditative and highly personal account Richard Holloway considers the nature of the spiritual and what it means to live with the inevitability of death Both celebration of the possibilities that life affords and an examination of how doubts and fears too often paralyse especially as we age Looking in the Distance is an inspiration told with the compassion and good humour characteristic of its author

The Wolf in the Parlor Jon Franklin, 2009-09-01 A man and puppy exhumed from a 12 000 year old grave sends a two time Pulitzer Prize winning science writer on a journey to the dogs Of all the things hidden in plain sight dogs are one of the most enigmatic They are everywhere but how much do we really know about where they came from and what the implications are of their place in our world Jon Franklin set out to find out and ended up spending a decade studying the origins and significance of the dog and its peculiar attachment to humans As the intellectual pursuit of his subject began to take over Franklin's life he married a dog lover and was quickly introduced to the ancient and powerful law of nature to wit Love me love my dog Soon Franklin was sharing hearth and home with a soulful and clever poodle named Charlie And so began one man's journey to the dogs an odyssey that would take him from a 12 000 year old grave to a conclusion so remarkable as to change our perception of ourselves Building on evolutionary science archaeology behavioral science and the firsthand experience of watching his own dog evolve from puppy to family member Franklin posits that man and dog are more than just inseparable they are part and parcel of the same creature Along the way The Wolf in the Parlor imparts a substantial yet painless education on subjects as far ranging as psychological evolution and neurochemistry In this groundbreaking book master storyteller Franklin shatters the lens through which we see the world and shows us an unexpected enthralling picture of the human canine relationship I Lost My Love in Baghdad Michael Hastings,2008-01-01 The much anticipated book by first time author Michael Hastings which was sold by the Wylie agency in a very high profile deal to Scribner in the USA MUP is proud to have acquired the ANZ rights to I Lost My Love in Baghdad In January 2007 Andi Parhamovich was killed in Baghdad She was a 28 year old American aid worker whose car had been ambushed in one of Baghdad's worst neighbourhoods Andi was also engaged to the author Newsweek's Iraqi correspondent Michael Hastings Hastings charts the ups and downs of their relationship a modern love story played out against the ultra violent backdrop of Iraq From the day they met in New York to her tragic killing it is a story that tries to answer questions about our involvement in the war in Iraq This is Michael Hastings scathing savage picture of a hopeless war gone horribly wrong Engagement with the Past William Palmer,2021-10-21 Arthur M Schlesinger Jr John Hope Franklin Daniel Boorstin C Vann Woodward Edmund S Morgan Barbara Tuckman Eric Hobsbawm Hugh Trevor Roper Lawrence Stone aside from carrying the distinction as some of the most successful and well respected historians of the twentieth century these scholars found their lives and careers evolving amid some of the world's pivotal historical moments Dubbed the World War II Generation the twenty two English and American historians chronicled by William Palmer grew up in the aftermath of World War I went to college in the 1930s as the threats of the Great Depression Hitler and Communism loomed over them saw their careers interrupted by World War II and faced the prospect of nuclear annihilation They gained from their experiences the perspective and insight necessary to write definitive histories on topics ranging from slavery to revolution Engagement with the Past offers biographies of these individuals in the context of their generation's intellectual achievement Based upon extensive personal interviews and careful reading of their work Engagement with the Past is a fascinating behind the scenes look at a generation of historians and how they helped record and shape modern history The Concept of Anxiety in Søren Kierkegaard Arne Grøn,2008 Summarizes and anticipates themes that are developed in Kierkegaard's other works Flesh and Bone Jonathan Maberry,2012-10-25 Reeling from the devastation of Dust Decay Benny Imura and his friends plunge deep into the zombie infested wastelands of the great Rot Ruin Benny Nix Lilah and Chong journey through a fierce wilderness that was once America searching for the jet they saw in the skies months ago If that jet exists then humanity itself must have survived somewhere Finding it is their best hope for having a future and a life worth living But the Ruin is far more dangerous than any of them can imagine Fierce animals hunt them They come face to face with a death cult And then there s the zombies swarms of them coming from the east devouring everything in their paths And these zoms are different Faster smarter and infinitely more dangerous Has the zombie plague mutated or is there something far more sinister behind this new invasion of the living dead One thing Benny and his companions can t afford to forget In the great Rot Ruin everythingwants to kill you

The Murmuring Deep Avivah Gottlieb Zornberg,2011-10-04 A book that enhances our appreciation of the Bible explaining exploring and deepening our sense of what it means to be a human being of faith in a world as fractured and fragmentary as ours Forward Avivah Gottlieb Zornberg informs her literary analysis of the biblical text with concepts drawn from Freud Winnicott Laplanche and other psychoanalytic thinkers to make a powerful argument for the idea that the creators of the midrashic commentary the medieval rabbinic commentators and the Hassidic commentators were themselves on some level aware of the complex interplay between conscious and unconscious levels of experience and used this knowledge in their interpretations In her analysis of the stories of Adam and Eve Noah Jonah Abraham Rebecca Isaac Joseph and his brothers Ruth and Esther Zornberg reveals the interaction between consciousness and unconsciousness

Governing the Tongue in Northern Ireland Shane Alcobia-Murphy,2008-12-11 How free is the Northern Irish writer to produce even a short poem when every word will be scrutinised for its political subtext Is the visual artist compelled to react to the latest atrocity Must the creative artist be aware of his or her own inculcated prejudices and political affiliations and must these be revealed overtly in the artwork Because of these and other related questions the recent work by Northern Irish writers and visual artists has been characterised by an inward looking self consciousness It is an art that relays its personal responses in guarded often coded ways Characterised by obliquity and self reflexivity the art does not simply re present events and the artist s emotive response towards them rather it calls attention to the manner of its presentation It is an art about art and its role and place in society Governing the Tongue examines how the creation of art in a time of violence brings about an anxiety in the Northern Irish artist regarding his or her artistic role and how it calls into question the ability to represent events The series of essays is inter disciplinary in its approach exploring the place of art its role and location in the work of key Northern Irish writers Ciaran Carson Seamus Deane Brian Friel Seamus Heaney Michael Longley Medbh McGuckian Eoin McNamee Glenn Patterson and visual artists Willie Doherty Rita Donagh Paul Seawright Victor Sloan

The Golden Future Osho,2023-09-15 Silence usually is understood to be something negative something empty an absence of sound of noises This misunderstanding is prevalent because very few people have ever experienced silence All that they have experienced in the name of silence is noiselessness But silence is a totally different phenomenon It is utterly positive It is existential it is not empty It is overflowing with a music that you have never heard before with a fragrance that is unfamiliar to you with a light that can only be seen by the inner eyes It is not something fictitious it is a reality and a reality which is already present in everyone just we never look in All our senses are extrovert Our eyes open outside our ears open outside our hands move outside our legs all our senses are meant to explore the outside world Looking into the Distance. Book of Thoughts and Hopes (in Trust) Ivan A. Ilyin,

Archaeologies of Vision Gary Shapiro, 2003-05-15 While many acknowledge that Friedrich Nietzsche and Michel Foucault have redefined our notions of time and history few recognize the crucial role that the infinite relation between seeing and saying plays in their work Shapiro reveals the full extent of Nietzsche and Foucault's concern with the visual

Dostoevsky, The Bible, and History: A close look into the layers of the novel Demons Sean Cameron, 2013-03-27
Fyodor Dostoevsky's Demons 1871-1872 is a novel that depicts a real event in Russian history the Nечаev affair of 1869 in which an individual Sergei Nечаev a Nihilist revolutionary who was sponsored by another famous revolutionary philosopher and anarchist Mikhail Bakunin who has been called the father of anarchist theory was involved if not totally responsible for the murder of a student who was intent on revealing some of the activities of Nечаev Nечаev represents a new form of revolutionary spirit which Dostoevsky imparts to his character Pyotr Stepanovich Verkhovensky in which what was only a product of intellectual ideation becomes a wild and uncontrollable force unto itself Dostoevsky translates this anarchist drama into a powerful myth that serves as a testament and warning of the dangers of revolutionary methods and ideas An important message for today's heavily polarized world Confession Leo Tolstoy, 2024-05-09 Leo Tolstoy's concise spiritual memoir Confession printed anonymously in Geneva in 1884 lays bare the existential abyss that opened beneath the author in mid life Those pages raw and unadorned reveal the turning point that fed every moral argument he later waged against empire church and himself Written between 1879 and 1882 but smuggled out of Russia to evade censorship the small volume appeared in a pamphlet edition from the Swiss press Posselt in 1884 at the very moment Tsarist authorities were forbidding public mention of the novelist's religious opinions its unobtrusive type and grey wrapper belie a tract that Russian readers would only legally see after the 1905 reforms yet its argument travelled by clandestine copy across intellectual circles from Moscow to London Within sixty pages Tolstoy narrates the collapse of inherited Orthodox faith the futility he discerned in literary fame and the suicidal despair that followed before recounting how the simple faith practised by muzhiks cutting hay persuaded him that life draws worth from service to others the prose moves with desperate lucidity merging autobiographical detail and Socratic dialectics in a texture closer to philosophical confession than to narrative The tract's influence upon Russian religious dissent on thinkers like Berdyaev and on later existential writing in Europe rivals that of

Augustine's Confessions yet its style remains distinctly nineteenth century Russian plain vigorous occasionally sarcastic so that readers today can still hear a man arguing for his soul while the machinery of empire rattles in the background This critical reader's edition presents a modern translation of the original manuscript crafted for the modern reader with clean contemporary language and simplified sentence structures that clarify his complex Russian phrasing and specific antiquated references Supplementary material enriches the text with autobiographical historical and linguistic context including an afterword by the translator on Tolstoy's personal history impact and intellectual legacy an index of the philosophical concepts he employs emphasizing Existentialism and influence by Schopenhauer a comprehensive chronological list of his published writings and a detailed timeline of his life highlighting the personal relationships that shaped his philosophy
