What is the Point of Being a Christian? Timothy Radcliffe, 2013-01-17 WINNER OF THE MICHAEL RAMSEY PRIZE FOR THE BEST IN THEOLOGICAL WRITING Winner of the Michael Ramsey prize for the best in theological writing Cardinal Timothy Radcliffe is in demand the world over with Bishops priests lay people and above all young people This new book is his response What is the Point of being a Christian One is pointed to God who is the point of everything If one thinks of religion as just useful then one has reduced it to another consumer product But if we are pointed to God then this should make a difference to how we live This is not a moral superiority Christians are usually no better than anyone else But the lives of Christians should be marked by some form of hope freedom happiness and courage If they are not then why should anyone believe a word they say In this new book Cardinal Radcliffe is at his best writing with a prophetic edge His argument for Christian belief is profoundly Catholic and profoundly human But what is just as remarkable Radcliffe's argument for and interpretation of Christian Gospel is couched in a deep understanding of human nature and the problems and anxieties of modern men and women Radcliffe is far distant from the theologian's ivory tower and yet his understanding of the Gospel is profoundly theological The frame of reference for this book is wide and it is based amongst other things on Fr Radcliffe's pastoral experience of dealing with people with problematic marriages those struggling with celibacy those trying to understand the nature of religious authority and those trying to remain loyal to the Church which finds their sexual orientation irregular
