Monastic Studies Number Fourteen Advent 1983 Celtic Monasticism:

The Globalization of God Dara Molloy, 2015-11-10 Roman Catholicism was the first multinational corporation Preaching was the forerunner of advertising Roman Catholicism created the template for the spread of commercial globalisation through multinational corporations For global Christianity to succeed all local expressions of Christianity had to be suppressed These included Celtic Christianity For 800 years the Roman church tried to break the independent spirit of Celtic Christianity Despite being defeated in 1014 at the Battle of Clontarf the Irish Vikings through their urban bishops were key actors in the imposition of Roman episcopal structures of church throughout Ireland in the 12th century There was an invasion of Norman monks to Ireland which began in 1142 twenty five years before the military invasion in 1167 The ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland meant that a Roman episcopal and diocesan structure replaced the Celtic monastic structure Norman colonisers destroyed Celtic monasteries and replaced them with imported European religious orders Cistercian monasteries in Ireland were required to have French abbots and sometimes these were imposed by force no Irishman was allowed to become a bishop or attain any ecclesiastical high office St Malachy of Armagh betrayed his own Celtic heritage and was a key figure in bringing about the ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland Monotheism is the mythical container for globalization Humans will fail to return to a sustainable way of living on this planet until the mythological container of monotheism is replaced by new bioregional spiritualities that go beyond both monotheism and polytheism

Early Irish Monasticism Catherine Thom, 2006-08-22 An exploration of the ascetical theology and praxis of sixth to eighth century Irish monasticism as a radical response to the gospel Cambridge Medieval Celtic Studies, 1985 Cistercian Studies Cistercians, 1966 Every Earthly Blessing Esther de Waal, 1999-06 This concise and clear introduction to Celtic spirituality provides an overview of all aspects of Celtic understandings By providing readers not only with a narrative but with the poetry and songs of the ancient Celts she explores Celtic views of pilgrimage solitude creation and healing De Waal also looks at their understanding of core Christian concepts such as sin sorrow salvation and the cross Written accessibly this book is excellent for parish study as well as individual reading The American Benedictine Review, 1984 Walled about with God Jean Prou, 2005 Christians are called to proclaim the glorious liberty of the children of God to all men and women in the world With this in mind the enclosure of cloistered nuns the apparent renunciation of personal freedom in order to live within the walls of a monastery for the rest of one's life is often regarded as a sign of contradiction How can such a life be justified in view of the Gospel which invites Christians to become a light to the world and to proclaim the good news to all peoples This unique book written by cloistered nuns themselves provides answers to this and many other questions Far from being an invention of the Middle Ages which was imposed on women by a male dominated Church and society enclosure was in fact freely chosen by nuns themselves from the very beginning and only later became an object of canonical legislation Drawing on the riches of Christian traditions this book examines enclosure from a biblical historical spiritual and theological perspective showing how it aids the prayer life and mission of cloistered nuns Dom Jean Prou 1911 1999 was fifth Abbot of the Abbey of Saint Pierre de Solesmes and Abbot President of the Solesmes Congregation from 1959 until his retirement in 1992 His high esteem for the vocation of enclosed nuns led to an invitation to oversee the international team of cloistered Benedictine nuns from France Canada and England who cooperated to write this book Christianity: the One, the Many John F. Nash, 2008-02-29 What is Christianity Who was Jesus Christ What relevance does Christianity have in a post Christian age Why are there so many Christian sects and what are the prospects for bringing them together Does Christianity have a future Am I a Christian Are you Christianity the One the Many offers encouraging answers and options for modern spiritual seekers This second volume focuses on western Christianity from 1000 CE onward Decline of the medieval church led to the Reformation and emergence of the Lutheran Calvinist and Anglican Churches Baptists and Methodists soon followed and in due course the charismatic movement The scientific revolution and the Enlightenment challenged Christianity's very foundations and produced innovative religious forms like Deism and Transcendentalism Meanwhile esoteric Christianity has established itself as a further option A bold new vision is offered that honors the diversity within Christianity as well as a transcendent unifying reality the Body of Christ Seven spiritual paths are identified which offer all sincere Christians opportunities to express personal and collective aspirations Archetypal in nature and cutting across denominational boundaries they are Devotion Ceremony Knowledge Service Healing Activism and Renunciation The unifying reality is a larger archetype the Ekklesia visualized as a great Cathedral into which all are invited to open themselves to the Divine love their neighbor humbly seek truth and work to make the world a better place A masterpiece of research insight and faith A must read for believers and nonbelievers alike Now I know there's a place in Christianity for me Front cover shows the Church of Our Savior on the Spilled Blood in St Petersburg Russia Photograph courtesy of Helen C Nash Árbók hins Íslenszka fornleifafélags Íslenska fornleifafélag, 1988 The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church Frank Leslie Cross, Elizabeth A.
