unsentimental and often humorous Daddy's Money presents McDougall's life and the lives of her relatives in the way that all our lives are eventually framed as stories. When all else is lost, the author maintains, the stories remain. Juniors Own Composition Book Sterling Andrus Leonard, Effie Belle McFadden, 1928 Love and Money, Sex and Death McKenzie Wark, 2023-09-26 After a successful career, a twenty-year marriage, and two kids, McKenzie Wark has an acute midlife crisis coming out as a trans woman. Changing both social role and bodily form recasts her relation to the world. Transition changes what and how she remembers. She makes fresh sense of her past and of history by writing to key figures in her life about the big themes that haunt us all: love and money, sex and death. In letters to her childhood self, her mother, sister, and past lovers, she writes a backstory that enables her to live in the present. The letters expand to address trans sisters lost and found, as well as Cybele, ancient goddess of trans women. She engages with the political, the aesthetic, and the numinous dimensions of trans life and how they refract her sense of who she is, who she has been, who she can still become. She confronts difficult memories that connect her mother's early death to her compulsion to write, her communist convictions, her coming to New York, the bittersweet reality of her late transition, and the joy to be found in Brooklyn's trans and raver communities.
