Monitoring Educational Outcomes Public Attitudes:

Monitoring Educational Outcomes and Public Attitudes Kevin J. Gilmartin, Robert J. Rossi, 1982 Public Attitudes Toward Education in Ontario, 1984 D. W. Livingstone, D. J. Hart, Lynn Davie, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, 1985 Since 1978 the OISE Survey Has Been the Only extensive analysis of public concern about educational issues in Canada to be published on a regular basis The survey profiles current patterns and trends in public opinion about policy options for all levels of education The eleventh survey is based on interviews conducted in September 1996 with random samples of over a thousand Ontario adults and over a hundred corporate executives Trends in attitude changes since 1978 are presented for the general public and executives This survey pays special attention to current issues of educational funding school reorganization education and work post secondary reform educational access the role of business in schools adult learning and computer literacy The goal of the OISE survey is to enhance public awareness of educational issues and to encourage informed participation in policy making Timely revealing and easy to read the survey is recommended for educators at all levels policy makers and the general public Public Opinion William A. Blade, 2002 Twenty four news networks a plethora of newspapers and magazines vibrant news talk radio and the ubiquitous Internet highlight our society as information driven With such a steady stream of hard facts mixed with publicised opinions the mainstream population has an opinion on everything Most anyone seems itching to argue their side of an issue making once private beliefs fodder for general consumption A staple of any medium s content is a regular public opinion poll on whatever hot topic strikes the editor s fancy From the significant to the mundane public opinion permeates society Accordingly politicians have taken note of these opinions and adopted stands and values that put them in tune with public sentiment An understanding of the nature of public opinion therefore is paramount in today s world This book assembles and presents a carefully chosen bibliography on public opinion in its many forms The collection of references makes for a valuable resource in studying and researching the critical issue of public opinion Easy access to these pieces of literature are then provided with author title and subject indexes The NORC General Social Survey James A. Davis, Tom William Smith, 1992 The answers to questions on a wide variety of social and political issues from more than 25 000 respondents are contained in the General Social Survey GSS data base The authors who have directed the GSS since its inception have set out to enable social scientists to exploit this large data set more effectively The book outlines such topics as the recurrent replicated core items suitable for trend analyses the annual topical modules on subjects of current interest and the international modules produced in collaboration with the International Social Survey Programme Resources in Education , 2001-10 Research Design Catherine Hakim, 2012-11-12 Providing a practical overview for graduates and professional researchers this book highlights the central issues involved in the design of medium to large scale social and economic research Covering both theoretical and policy research Hakim sets out the key features strengths and limitations of eight main types of study with illustrations from real life research of the kinds of questions each can best be used to answer This book also offers a more general pragmatic discussion of strategies for choosing between one design and another and on how different types of study can be successfully combined in wider ranging research programmes In this expanded second edition the author has added new material on areas of contemporary significance across the social and economic sciences New features to this edition are a chapter on cross national comparative studies more examples throughout the text of comparative research both within Europe and across modern societies discussions of student theses advocacy research selection effects and collaboration
