The Record of Linji Thomas Yuho Kirchner, 2008-10-31 The Linji lu Record of Linji has been an essential text of Chinese and Japanese Zen Buddhism for nearly a thousand years. A compilation of sermons, statements and acts attributed to the great Chinese Zen master Linji Yixuan d. 866, it serves as both an authoritative statement of Zen's basic standpoint and a central source of material for Zen koan practice. Scholars study the text for its importance in understanding both Zen thought and East Asian Mahayana doctrine, while Zen practitioners cherish it for its unusual simplicity, directness and ability to inspire. One of the earliest attempts to translate this important work into English was by Sasaki Shigetsu, 1882-1945, a pioneer Zen master in the U.S. and the founder of the First Zen Institute of America. At the time of his death, he entrusted the project to his wife Ruth Fuller Sasaki, who in 1949 moved to Japan and there founded a branch of the First Zen Institute at Daitoku-ji. Mrs. Sasaki determined to produce a definitive translation, assembled a team of talented young scholars, both Japanese and Western, who in the following years retranslated the text in accordance with modern research on Tang dynasty colloquial Chinese. As they worked on the translation, they compiled hundreds of detailed notes explaining every technical term, vernacular expression and literary reference. One of the team, Yanagida Seizan, later Japan's preeminent Zen historian, produced a lengthy introduction that outlined the emergence of Chinese Zen, presented a biography of Linji and traced the textual development of the Linji lu. The sudden death of Mrs. Sasaki in 1967 brought the nearly completed project to a halt. An abbreviated version of the book was published in 1975, but neither this nor any other English translations that subsequently appeared contain the type of detailed historical, linguistic and doctrinal annotation that was central to Mrs. Sasaki's plan. The materials assembled by Mrs. Sasaki and her team are finally available in the present edition of the Record of Linji. Chinese readings have been changed to Pinyin, and the translation itself has been revised in line with subsequent research by Iriya Yoshitaka and Yanagida Seizan, the scholars who advised Mrs. Sasaki. The notes, nearly six hundred in all, are almost entirely based on primary sources and thus retain their value despite the nearly forty years since their preparation. They provide a rich context for Linji's teachings, supplying a wealth of information on Tang colloquial expressions, Buddhist thought and Zen history, much of which is unavailable anywhere else in English. This revised edition of the Record of Linji is certain to be of great value to Buddhist scholars, Zen practitioners and readers interested in Asian Buddhism.

The Bayeux Embroidery Howard of Warwick,2019-02-24 The Bayeux Tapestry is no laughing matter Well apart from the rude bits obviously The nuns of Kent have been commissioned by Earl Odo to create a great tapestry telling the glorious history of the Norman conquest of Britain But when they start dying one man must be sent for Brother Hermitage the King's Investigator Who would commit such a heinous crime Odo himself Another nun perhaps Some Saxons The Archbishop of Canterbury The people of the marshes Well it could be anyone really and that's generally a problem for Brother Hermitage With Wat and Cwen erstwhile weavers of adult tapestry themselves he must solve the crime or face the consequences as usual The best plan is probably to wander around Kent rather hopelessly and trust that something occurs to him right at the end also as usual At least in this tale the truth of the Bayeux Tapestry will be revealed well a truth perhaps How did it come to be Who made it And who thinks that they should have been given the job instead It's the lucky 13th Chronicle of Brother Hermitage The man who barely survives his own investigations The sleuth who seldom asks anyone the right questions The monk who is firmly medieval and slightly detective People have said things Hilarious Laugh out loud Like Pratchett does 1066

Home Across Borders Jagath Bandara

Pathirage, 2024-10-08 This book studies how transnational migrants create a sense of home in their host countries It draws on case studies of Sri Lankan migrants living in Australia to argue that home is an existential experience rather than a fixed entity The author looks at how the sense of home arises as a fresh category which is critical in defining one s existentiality in the host society Going beyond the conventional methodological approach of an ethnographer objectivizing other s sense of home into fixed categories the book attempts to foreground the immigrant s articulation of home which evolves parallel to their being It reveals how three important aspects of our lives time space and memory intersect with the trajectories of migration The author also delves into the ways in which migrants engage in building a home as a way of creating materiality in their dwelling practice Unique and compelling the book will be highly useful in studies of diaspora globalisation and transnational migration It will be of interest to students researchers and scholars of anthropology migration and transnational studies as well as sociology and other related disciplines
