Nihilism, Modernism, and Value John Fraser, 2013-01-24 Nihilism Modernism and Value consists of three jargon free lectures addressed to the general reader It explores a variety of ways in which writers responded to the phenomenon of nihilism in the 19th and early 20th centuries By nihilism here is meant a sense at times paralyzing of the instability and perhaps groundlessness of all values The book goes into some of the factors psychological sociological philosophical involved in that destabilizing But its principal focus is on reintegration and it draws freely on real world experiences to illuminate concepts and strategies Among the writers whose names figure in it are Conrad Nietzsche Beckett Woolf Heidegger Rhys Pushkin Baudelaire Hemingway Lessing Stevens Valéry and James William with particular attention at one point to Kafka and Borges But no prior knowledge of them is required for following the argument with its numerous lively quotations The author himself is advancing heuristically not just performing an academic exercise The problems confronted are as relevant still as they were generations ago A reviewer of John Fraser's first book spoke of an extremely agile and incessantly active mind which illuminates almost every subject it touches A reviewer of the second one both of them published by Cambridge University Press called it a brilliant and utterly absorbing work and said that There are not many learned books which have the unputdownable quality of a thriller this is one of them

Modes of Faith Theodore Ziolkowski, 2011-08-22 In the decades surrounding World War I religious belief receded in the face of radical new ideas such as Marxism modern science Nietzschean philosophy and critical theology Modes of Faith addresses both this decline of religious belief and the new modes of secular faith that took religion's place in the minds of many writers and poets Theodore Ziolkowski here examines the motives for this embrace of the secular locating new modes of faith in art escapist travel socialism politicized myth and utopian visions James Joyce he reveals turned to art as an escape while Hermann Hesse made a pilgrimage to India in search of enlightenment Other writers such as Roger Martin du Gard and Thomas Mann sought temporary solace in communism or myth And H G Wells Ziolkowski argues took refuge in utopian dreams projected in another dimension altogether Rooted in innovative and careful comparative reading of the work of writers from France England Germany Italy and Russia Modes of Faith is a critical masterpiece by a distinguished literary scholar that offers an abundance of insight to anyone interested in the human compulsion to believe in forces that transcend the individual
