The Unintended Destruction of the Human Race Alex Roberto Hybel, 2024-09-11 Through a sweeping historical narrative spanning centuries Hybel traces the evolution of human civilization from the dawn of the Renaissance to the digital age Drawing upon diverse disciplines including history politics religion economics and environmental science Hybel reveals how each successive wave of technological innovation economic growth and individual political and economic freedom has fueled a destructive cycle of consumerism exploitation and ecological degradation At the heart of this book lies a stark warning our addiction to growth and consumption is driving us inexorably towards our own demise Hybel argues that our unwavering faith in the virtues of capitalism democracy and technological advancement has blinded us to the existential threats facing our planet and our species But Hybel offers more than a critique of the status quo he presents a compelling case for radical transformation By interrogating the intertwined forces of technology capitalism and individualism Hybel challenges readers to confront the uncomfortable truths at the root of our collective predicament The Masks of Proteus Philip Resnick,1997-06-05 In this collection of twelve essays Philip Resnick provides a comparative perspective on the modern state arguing that the power of the state like the mythological god Proteus takes many different forms and cannot be revealed by any single discipline He delves into political theory political economy and political sociology as well as examining a number of isms important to any treatment of the modern state 2012 ,2013-03-01 Particularly in the humanities and social sciences festschrifts are a popular forum for discussion The IJBF provides quick and easy general access to these important resources for scholars and students The festschrifts are located in state and regional libraries and their bibliographic details are recorded Since 1983 more than 659 000 articles from more than 30 500 festschrifts published between 1977 and 2011 have been catalogued

The Idea of Liberty in Canada during the Age of Atlantic Revolutions, 1776-1838 Michel Ducharme,2014-09-01 In Idea of Liberty in Canada during the Age of Atlantic Revolutions 1776 1838 Michel Ducharme shows that Canadian intellectual and political history between the American Revolution and the Upper and Lower Canada rebellions of 1837 38 can be better understood by considering it in relation to the broad framework of revolution in the Atlantic world between 1776 and 1838 Inspired by intellectual histories of the Atlantic world Ducharme goes beyond the scholarly focus on Atlantic republicanism to present the rebellions of 1837 38 as a confrontation between two very different concepts of liberty He uses these concepts as lenses through which to read colonial ideological conflict Ducharme traces political discourse in both colonies showing how the differing fates and influence of republican and constitutional notions of liberty affected state development He also pursues a number of important revisionist historical claims including the idea that nationalist politics were not at issue in the period and that responsible government was never a Patriote party platform or interest Taking a wider view allows Ducharme to provide a solid understanding of the ideological substance of political conflict and shows that starting in 1791 Canadian colonial political culture revolved around an ideal of liberty that differed from the liberty at work within the revolutionary movements of the late eighteenth century but was nonetheless born of the Enlightenment The Art of the Persian Letters Randolph Runyon,2005 Readers of Montesquieu will through this study discover a new Persian Letters as the exquisite subtlety of its construction is laid bare for the first time It should find a new appreciation as a work of art and not merely as a precursor to the author s Of the Spirit of the Laws The Letters will henceforth be read in the light of similarly composite texts from Montaigne s Essays to Baudelaire s Fleurs du mal Jacket Canada's Origins Janet

Ajzenstat,1995-11-15 Ajzenstat and Smith challenge the idea of Canada as a country whose liberal individualism unlike that of the United States is redeemed by a tradition of government intervention in economic and social life the so called tory touch This ground breaking book begins with the now classic article in which the red tory view was formulated It then presents a new and illuminating picture of Canadian political life in which liberal individualism confronts not toryism but the participatory tradition of civic republicanism In the final section the two editors one a liberal the other a civic republican debate the crucial questions dominating Canadian politics today including Quebec s search for recognition from the perspective of their shared understanding of Canada s founding The Riddle of the Modern World A.

Krause, 2002-04-15 Why do men and women sometimes risk everything to defend their liberties What motivates principled opposition to the abuse of power In Liberalism with Honor Sharon Krause explores honor as a motive for risky and difficult forms of political action She shows the sense of honor to be an important source of such action and a spring of individual agency more generally Krause traces the genealogy of honor including its ties to conscientious objection and civil disobedience beginning in old regime France and culminating in the American civil rights movement She examines the dangers intrinsic to honor and the tensions between honor and modern democracy but demonstrates that the sense of honor has supported political agency in the United States from the founders to democratic reformers such as Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Martin Luther King Jr Honor continues to hold interest and importance today because it combines self concern and personal ambition with principled higher purposes and so challenges the disabling dichotomy between self interest and self sacrifice that currently pervades both political theory and American public life      The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization      Montesquieu's Liberalism and the Problem of Universal Politics Keegan Callanan, 2018-08-23 Dubbed the oracle by no less an authority than James Madison Montesquieu stands as a theoretical founder of the liberal political tradition But equally central to his project was his account of the relationship of law to each nation's particular customs and place a teaching that militates against universal political solutions This teaching has sometimes been thought to stand in tension with his liberal constitutionalism In this book Keegan Callanan argues that Montesquieu's political particularism and liberalism are complementary and mutually reinforcing parts of a coherent whole In developing this argument Callanan considers Montesquieu's regime pluralism psychological conception of liberty approach to political reform and account of the customs of a free people including the complex interaction of religion and commerce Callanan concludes that by re-orienting our understanding of liberalism and redirecting our attention toward liberty's distinctive preconditions a return to Montesquieu's political philosophy leaves us better prepared to confront liberal democracy's contested claim to universality
