Werhane,Alan E. Singer,1999-07-31 This book originated in a symposium on business ethics that took place in the Faculty of Commerce at the University of Canterbury in September of 1997 Professor Werhane who was a visiting Erskine Fellow provided the keynote address and many of the papers in this collection were originally presented at this symposium We are grateful to Kluwer Publishers for the opportunity to publish these essays in their series on International Business Ethics We want to thank the Olsson Center for Applied Ethics at the Darden School University of Virginia and the Erskine Trust and the Department of Management at the University of Canterbury for their support of Professor Werhane s fellowship research for this text and funding for its production We especially want to thank Lisa Spiro who copy edited and prepared the manuscript for publication

INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW This book originated in a symposium on business ethics that took place in the faculty of commerce at the University of Canterbury in September 1997 Professor Werhane who was a visiting Erskine Fellow provided the keynote address Contributions to the proceedings were inter disciplinary spanning theory and practice Subsequent contributions were obtained from within New Zealand and from Asia The book starts off on rather a pessimistic note the new managerialism the kind of thing Scott Adams jokes about in the world famous Dilbert cartoons is economically suspect and psychologically damaging Marketing Michael Baker,1998 Marketing Managerial Foundations provides students with a sound understanding of marketing theory and practice and does so in an Australian and New Zealand context It is an introductory text that goes beyond the prescriptive approach It seeks to meet the needs of a discipline that is now accepted as a fundamental aspect of business and one which needs and deserves an academic base of context concept and application No theoretical stone is left unturned as good practice is supported by essential theoretical frameworks Students will find more discussion of the various arguments that provide views on the foundations and application of marketing Concepts such as relationship marketing are traced and explored The book provides a strong foundation for the study of marketing and is essential reading for the newcomer to marketing as well as being a valuable reference for the marketing professional New Zealand Farmer, Stock and Station Journal ,1920
