Psychological Survival The Experience Of Long Term Imprisonment:

Psychological Survival Stanley Cohen, Laurie Taylor, 1972 What good do you think you do Do you think that I ll be different when I m through singing Johnny Cash in the Ballad of San Quentin What is it like to live under the eye of a TV camera to sleep with the light on all night to be unable to close a lavatory door or to spend ten years sewing mailbags Stanley Cohen and Laurie Taylor are two young sociologists who taught and talked to the inmates of Durham Prison s maximum security block where they gained an insight into the problems peculiar to long term imprisonment In this book which grew out of their experience there they show how such prisoners fear psychological deterioration how they react to disrupted emotional relationships and how they manage to adapt to prison conditions without losing their sense of personal identity

English Society and the Prison Alyson Brown, 2003 This social history analyses a period in which the modern prison faced serious challenges both on practical philosophical grounds These included the use of prison to victimise the poor the disaffected political activists the failure to establish the prison as a satisfactory means of punishment

Psychological Survival Stanley Cohen, Laurie Taylor, 1974

Young Men's Experiences of Long-Term Imprisonment Rachel Tynan, 2019-01-15 Long sentenced young people are a small but significant part of the juvenile prison population The current approach to young people convicted of serious crime speaks to wider issues in criminal and social justice including the idealisation of some childhoods processes of racialisation and identity and the sociology of the body Analysing the relationships between biography trauma and habitus reveals the ways in which class racial and legal status are experienced and resisted Young Men s Experiences of Long Term Imprisonment Living Life considers the need for the reinvigoration of prison ethnography and calls for a phenomenological approach to understanding youth crime and punishment An insightful ethnographic study on imprisoned 15 to 17 year olds in England this volume examines how young people experience long term imprisonment manage their time and imagine and shape their futures Drawing on observations interviews and correspondence Tynan situates long term imprisonment of young men within the wider social context of criminal and social justice and analyses constructs and practices that locate responsibility for crime with individuals and communities Young Men s Experiences of Long Term Imprisonment Living Life will be of interest to students and researchers interested in the sociology of prisons punishment and youth justice and qualitative research methodology

The Effects of Imprisonment Alison Liebling, Shadd Maruna, 2013-06-17 As the number of prisoners in the UK USA and elsewhere continues to rise so have concerns risen about the damaging short term and long term effects this has on prisoners This book brings together a group of leading authorities in this field both academics and practitioners to address the complex issues this has raised to assess the implications and results of research in this field and to suggest ways of mitigating the often devastating personal and psychological consequences of imprisonment

Life Beyond Murder Dan Gabriel Rusu, 2024-11-18 Detailing the resettlement narratives of five men who have committed different types of murder confrontational revenge financial gain random intimate partner femicide and family feud this book counters narratives of neoliberal responsabilizing messages of individualism to investigate what informs their experiences of resettlement Life Beyond Murder Exploring the Identity Reconstruction of Mandatory Lifers After Release explores the impact of mandatory lifers institutionalisation families consumer culture emotions and supervision considering how these factors hamper or assist with their transition from the stigmatising identity of being dangerous murderers The book's discussion is guided by the men's narratives employing a tug of war metaphor to elucidate the push pull forces that influence the men's efforts to reconstruct their lives in the years following their release To be successful the book argues these men have to reconcile a paradoxical situation and the most skilled mandatory lifers manage to relativise their involvement in murder whilst concomitantly showing remorse This situation is achieved through a Splitting Narrative that ultimately defends against anxiety contains internal stigma and often showcases self flagellant remorse as they move towards positive social identities such as philanthropists family men wounded healers and pious members of the church

Long-Term Imprisonment and Human Rights Kirstin Drenkhahn, Manuela Dudeck, Frieder Düinkel, 2014-07-11 Prisons and imprisonment have become a commonplace topic in popular culture as the setting and rationale for fiction and documentaries and most people seem to have a clear notion of what it is like in prison ranging from the idea of the prison cell as a cosy nook with fast internet access to that of a dungeon with a hard bed and a diet of bread and water But what is prison really like Do prisoners have the same rights as everyone else What are the similarities and differences between prisons in different European countries This book answers all of these questions whilst also presenting cutting edge research on the living conditions of long term prisoners in Europe and considering whether these conditions meet international human rights standards Bringing together leading experts in the field with comprehensive coverage of the issues in Belgium Croatia Denmark England Finland France Germany Lithuania Poland Spain and Sweden this book offers the first comparative study on the subject Whereas past research in this area has concentrated on the Anglo American experience this book offers a truly comparative European approach and pays due attention to the differences in prison systems between the post Soviet countries and continental Europe This book will be key reading for academics and students of criminology criminal justice and penology and will also be of interest to students and practitioners of law

The Lived Experiences of Claiming Wrongful Conviction in Prison Emma Burt, 2023-12-29 The Lived Experiences of Claiming Wrongful Conviction in Prison focuses on the lived experience of maintaining innocence in the prison environment and highlights the struggles and pain that such a claim can cause Using the little utilised means of conducting an interview via a series of letters the book details the experiences of 64 prisoners maintaining innocence in England and Wales and examines in depth what is unique to this population The chapters cover coping mechanisms relationships maintained with relatives relationships formed with prisoners and staff and the perceived effect of their claims on matters of progression and parole It draws on material from criminology sociology law and psychology to provide a holistic account of this population's experiences The Lived Experiences of Claiming Wrongful Conviction in Prison will be of great interest to students and scholars across the disciplines of criminology criminal justice law sociology and psychology

The Oxford Handbook of Prisons and Imprisonment John D. Wooldredge, Paula Smith, 2018-03-09 Research on prisons prior to the prison boom of the 1980s and 1990s focused mainly on inmate subcultures inmate rights and sociological interpretations of inmate and guard adaptations to their environment with qualitative studies and ethnographic methods the norm In recent years research has expanded considerably to issues related to inmates mental health suicide managing special types of offenders risk assessment and evidence based treatment programs The Oxford Handbook of Prisons and Imprisonment provides the only single source that bridges social scientific and behavioral perspectives providing graduate students with a more comprehensive understanding of the topic academics with a body of knowledge that will more effectively inform their own research and practitioners with an overview of evidence based best practices Across thirty chapters leading contributors offer new ideas critical treatments of substantive topics with theoretical and policy implications and comprehensive literature reviews that reflect cumulative knowledge on what works and what doesn't The Handbook covers critical topics in the field some of which include recent trends in imprisonment prison gangs inmate victimization the use and impact of restrictive housing unique problems faced by women in prison special offender populations risk assessment and treatment effectiveness prisoner re entry and privatization The Oxford Handbook of Prisons and Imprisonment offers a rich source of information on the current state of institutional corrections around the world on issues facing both inmates and prison staff and on how those issues may impede or facilitate the various goals of incarceration

Education in Prison Emma Hughes,2016-04-29 The role of education in prisons prisoners decisions regarding education the impact of prison culture on either encouraging or discouraging such activities and the potential consequences of education for prisoners reentry into society all have important implications This extended analysis of prisoner education represents a unique contribution to an under researched field whilst also making important and original connections between research on education in prison and the literature on adult learning in the community Through offering crucial insights into the varied motivations and disincentives that inform prisoners decisions to study in prison whether it be through distance learning or prison based classes the reader is also able to consider factors that inform decisions to engage in a broader range of positive and constructive activities whilst in prison These research findings provide insight into how prison culture and prison policies may impact upon rehabilitative endeavour and suggest ways in which prisons may seek to encourage constructive and or rehabilitative activities amongst their inhabitants if desired Based on interviews and questionnaires completed by British adult prisoners studying through distance learning this qualitative study offers a valuable complement and counterpart to prison education studies that focus on measuring recidivism rates The learner centred approach used yields a nuanced and complex understanding of the varied ways in which education in prison actually operates and is experienced and considers the consequences of this for the students lives As such the findings offer further insight into important evidence resulting from recidivism studies reviewed within the book whilst contributing to the reemerging interest in studies of prison life and prison culture that are based on prisoner interviews Federal Prisons Journal ,1991 The Prison Cell Jennifer

Turner,Victoria Knight,2020-07-08 This book advances conceptualisations and empirical understanding of the prison cell It discusses the complexities of this specific carceral space and addresses its significance in relation to the everyday experiences of incarceration The collected chapters highlight the array of processes and practices that shape carceral life adding the cell to a rich area of discussion in penal scholarship criminology anthropology sociology and carceral geography The chapters highlight key aspects such as penal philosophies power relationships sensory and emotional engagements with place to highlight the breadth and depth of interdisciplinary perspectives on the prison cell a contested place of home labour and leisure The Prison Cell s empirical attention is global in its consideration bringing together both contemporary and historical work that focuses upon the cell in the Global North and South including examples from a variety of geographical locations and settings including police custody prisons and immigrant detention centres This book is an important and timely intervention in the growing and topical field of carceral studies It presents the only standalone collection of essays with a sole focus on the space of the cell Understanding the Educational Experiences of Imprisoned Men Helen

Nichols,2021-02-28 Understanding the Educational Experiences of Imprisoned Men explores how adult male prisoners interpret and give value to their experiences of education presenting an opportunity to consider how education can be beneficial to prisoners including and beyond the enhancement of employability skills While the primary aim for education in prison has been to increase employability skills to prevent reoffending further attention needs to be given to the broader outcomes of educational experiences and the importance of the development of other personal attributes including self confidence empowerment and the ability to engage in positive relationships This book considers how education is also used by men in prison to cope with prison life to reconsider their identity and to develop and maintain relationships It also discusses the relationships that prisoners have with their teachers and other prison staff as well as the relationships that different types of prison staff have between each other In addition the role that education can play in the process of desistance from crime is discussed to provide an understanding of what changes occur in men who participate in educational courses This book will be of interest to not only students and scholars with an interest in imprisonment rehabilitation and criminal justice practice but also educationalists those who work in the prison setting and in social work It may also appeal to those involved in community development programmes and broader sociological research
