Rupturing Rhetoric Byron B Craig, Patricia G. Davis, Stephen E. Rahko, 2024-06-20 Contributions by Maksim Bugrov Byron B Craig Patricia G Davis Peter Ehrenhaus Whitney Gent Christopher Gilbert Oscar Giner J Scott Jordan Euni Kim Melanie Loehwing Jaclyn S Olson A Susan Owen Stephen E Rahko Nick J Sciullo Arthur D Soto V squez and Erika M Thomas The events surrounding the 2014 killing of Michael Brown in Ferguson Missouri marked a watershed moment in US history Though this instance of police brutality represented only the latest amid decades of similar unjust patterns it came to symbolize state complicity in the deployment of violence to maintain racial order Rupturing Rhetoric The Politics of Race and Popular Culture since Ferguson responds to the racial rhetoric of American popular culture in the years since Brown s death

Through close readings of popular media produced during the late Obama and Trump eras this volume details the influence of historical and contemporary representations of race on public discourse in America Using Brown s death and the ensuing protests as a focal point contributors argue that Ferguson marks the rupture of America s postracial fantasy An ideology premised on colorblindness the notion of the postracial suggests that the United States has largely achieved racial equality and that race is no longer a central organizing category in American society Postracialism is partly responsible for ahistorical romanticized narratives of slavery Jim Crow segregation and American exceptionalism The legitimacy of this fantasy the editors contend was the first casualty of the tanks tear gas and rubber bullets wielded against protesters during the summer of 2014 From these protests emerged a new political narrative organized around BlackLivesMatter which directly challenged the fantasy of a postracial American society Essays in Rupturing Rhetoric cover such texts as Fresh Off the Boat Hamilton Green Book NPR s American Anthem Lovecraft Country Disney remakes of Dumbo The Lion King and Lady and the Tramp BlackKlansman Crazy Rich Asians The Hateful Eight and Fences As a unified body of work the collection interrogates the ways contemporary media in American popular culture respond to and subvert the postracial fantasy underlying the politics of our time

Violence as Seen Through a Prism of Color Letha A See,2018-12-20 So many parts of society target citizens of color for violence what can be done Violence as Seen Through a Prism of Color examines violence from a structural perspective including violence in prisons schools and colleges churches homes and within political corporate structures This unique hard hitting book argues that individual violence stems from the structure of our society and its institutions Most of the contributors are African American educators and practitioners who have a thorough understanding of structural violence Some have experienced political violence others have expert knowledge of structural violence within the criminal justice system educational institutions and elsewhere even in churches and homes Their writings are undeniably unflinchingly authentic it is impossible not to be moved and enraged by what they have to say The good news is that in addition to calling attention to the structural violence in our society they provide excellent insights on how the situation might be resolved Violence as Seen Through a Prism of Color shows that much of the violence within the criminal justice system stems from decisions made at the highest levels of government that minority offenders are much more frequently convicted and more harshly sentenced than their white counterparts how cultural racism contributes to the construction of motives for lynching hate crime and police violence against Americans of color such as Abner Louima Amadou Diallo and Rodney King how the judicial system encourages black on black violence by neglecting to halt criminal activities in non white neighborhoods how in the words of Mahatma Gandhi Poverty is the worst form of violence You ll also learn how corporations are amassing great wealth through privatizing prisons and conscripting the labor of non violent African American prisoners how racial profiling affects people of color how the media has exploited black men imprisoned for minor drug offenses how and why violence occurs in and against the black church Helpful charts and tables like one that names the corporations that use prison labor supplement the material you ll be surprised at what you learn Extensive references are included at the end of each chapter
