

Radical Monotheism and Western Culture by H. Richard Niebuhr

H. Richard Niebuhr, for many years Sterling Professor of Christian Ethics at Yale University Divinity School, was one of mid-century's most respected teachers and writers. This book presents in revised and expanded form the Montgomery Lectures on Contemporary Civilization which Dr. Niebuhr gave at the University of Nebraska in 1957. The six chapters were originally three lectures. To them are added four supplementary essays that expand and complement the ideas in the Lectures.

Published in Louisville, KY by Westminster/John Knox Press, 1993. Originally published, New York, Harper, 1960. This material prepared for Religion Online by Richard and Sue Kendall.

(ENTIRE BOOK) Niebuhr gives a thorough analysis of faith as confidence and loyalty, and the forms of faith as henotheism, polytheism and radical monotheism. He then analyzes the implications of radical monotheism for western religion, the political community, western science, and ethical value systems.

Forward by James M. Gustafson

Dr. Gustafson introduces Niebuhr's book as making theology and theological thinking intelligible by showing their continuities with other forms of thinking and activity, while at the same time reinterpreting other forms of activity in the light of theology.

I: Introduction: Theology and Faith

This introduction deals with the conflict of faiths in our Western Culture ...a conflict between radical monotheism and polytheism, or henotheism (a social faith which makes a finite cultural or religious society the object of trust and loyalty).

II. The Idea of Radical Monotheism

This chapter contrasts polytheism, social faith and radical faith in the One God.

III. Radical Faith - Incarnate and Revealed in History

This chapter focuses upon the persons and movements through whom radical monotheism finds expression in human history and in all of human life.

Radical Monotheism and Western Culture Helmut Richard Niebuhr, 1993-01-01 This reissue of a classic work of H. Richard Niebuhr, one of the most influential and creative theological ethicists of the twentieth century, highlights his mature thinking. By using path-breaking interpretations of faith as a basic dimension of human life and culture as an arena of faith in conflict, Niebuhr encourages further thought. This volume should be required reading for anyone interested in recent perspectives on theology and ethics. The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically. It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts in easily accessible form. Volumes in this series will enable sustained dialogue with predecessors through reflection on classic works in the field. Radical Monotheism and Western Culture Richard H. Interpretations of Conflict Richard B. Miller, 1991-11-15 Miller brings together the opposed traditions of pacifism and just war theory and puts them into a much needed dialogue on the ethics of war. Publisher Theology of Culture in a Japanese Context Atsuyoshi Fujiwara, 2012-07-01 In dialogue with H. Richard Niebuhr, John Howard Yoder, and Stanley Hauerwas, this work examines Japanese culture, suffering, and three theologians: Kazoh Kitamori, Yasuo Furuya, and Hideo Ohki. The Oxford Handbook of Reinhold Niebuhr Robin Lovin, Joshua Mauldin, 2021 This authoritative Handbook features 38 chapters placing Reinhold Niebuhr, 1892-1971, in his historical context to offer readers an appreciation of his insights and how he was received by his contemporaries. Radical Monotheism and Western Civilization Helmut Richard Niebuhr, 1960 The Constructive Promise of Schleiermacher's Theology Shelli M. Poe, 2021-04-08 This volume demonstrates how Friedrich Schleiermacher's thought can be used to address contemporary doctrinal refinement and development. Taking a constructive approach, Shelli M. Poe weaves Schleiermacher's theology together with current scholarship in feminism, womanism, ecotheology, and queer theology. While Schleiermacher is widely acclaimed as the progenitor of modern theology, Poe is one of the first to use his work as a springboard to refine contemporary doctrine. This book demonstrates the promise of Schleiermacher's mature work for contemporary constructive forms of theology. Rediscovering Christian Realism James E. Hassell, 2022-10-07 What if there were more helpful ways to deal with the increasing polarization and division within our society? What if we could finally overcome the warring between fundamentalists and liberals? In Rediscovering Christian Realism, James Hassell highlights some time-tested and proven methods for Christians both to develop and utilize consecrated common sense. Christian realism is not so much of a program as it is both a way of accepting our sinful humanity and highlighting the Spirit-led way of Jesus. Hassell therefore describes ways to temper our idealism without giving into cynicism, outlining what he calls The Balanced Approach. The Balanced Approach comes from a synthesis of the best work of past Christian realists such as Reinhold and Richard Niebuhr, Emil Brunner, Paul Tillich, John C. Bennett, and others. Hassell has researched and described their insights especially for contemporary application in the real world events of the twenty first century This book is designed especially for those Christians who may find themselves stuck in how to live out their faith more boldly both in the church fellowship and in the public square The Theological Imagination Gordon D.

Kaufman,1981-01-01 In this challenging work Gordon Kaufman asserts that the prime task of theology is the imaginative construction of the doctrine of God Kaufman maintains that both the absoluteness of the divinity and our own necessity demand that we construct the doctrine of God critically and in a manner appropriate to our own time and place In thorough examinations of God and theology Christ and christology and of the ultimate foundations of religious thought he shows how this construction can be accomplished faithfully and in full realization of our own humanity Faith Negotiating Loyalties

Stephen W. Martin,2008 Faith Negotiating Loyalties draws readers into the world of Christian faith in South Africa and the question of loyalties in the new post apartheid state It carries out its investigation in two parts Part one examines Christian faith and loyalty during the first nation building exercise following the South African War positioning the creation and contestation of three Christianities corresponding to three nationalisms each of which imagined South Africa in a particular way shaping faith accordingly The idea of an undifferentiated South African Christianity gives way to contesting and contested Christianities nationalism gives way to nationalisms and faith emerges in tension with and in criticism of these loyalties Part two discusses the American theologian H Richard Niebuhr in South Africa Three kinds of faith in his writings are set forth social faith radial faith and reconstructing faith Contextualized within the South African story Niebuhr s ideas suggest self and society as constituted by hybridities and suspended in a web of loyalties Faith Negotiating Loyalties suggests the message for faith in a post apartheid South Africa is the importance of negotiating covenants which allow for crossings hybridities and contestations Contemporary Theology: An Introduction, Revised Edition Kirk R.

MacGregor,2020-07-28 Accessible and comprehensive Contemporary Theology An Introduction by professor and author Kirk R MacGregor provides a chronological survey of the major thinkers and schools of thought in modern theology in a manner that is both approachable and intriguing Unique among introductions to contemporary theology MacGregor includes Evangelical perspectives alongside mainline and liberal developments The influence of philosophy and the recent Christian philosophical renaissance on theology Global contributions Recent developments in exegetical theology The implications of theological shifts on ethics and church life Contemporary Theology An Introduction is noteworthy for making complex thought understandable and for tracing the landscape of modern theology in a well organized and easy to follow manner

Transforming Faith Joshua Leonard Daniel,2015-09-09 In the face of apparently rampant individualism there has been a steady call for a return to community and tradition particularly in religious communities and in recent Christian theology and ethics The form of contemporary life upheld by modern ideals like freedom and universalism the story goes turns out to divide people from each other and from the communal sources of our traditionally moral values But the call to community too often confuses individualism with individuality assuming that any appeal to individuality as a value or ideal is a rejection of communal goods rather than a mode of promoting those goods What s necessary now is a recovery of the individual that understands individuality to serve community even in resistance to it In Transforming Faith Joshua Daniel offers a fresh reading of H Richard Niebuhr s theological ethics that provides an account of individuality and individual creativity as both the fruits and reformers of community What is theologically at stake in Daniel s reconstructive interpretation is the human s existentially resonant relation with God and the christological revitalization of our symbolic and virtuous activity

The Modern Theologians David F. Ford, 2013-09-23 This popular text has been updated to ensure that it continues to provide a current and comprehensive overview of the main Christian theologies of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Each chapter is written by a leading theologian and gives a clear picture of a particular movement topic or individual New and updated treatments of topics covered in earlier editions with over half the chapters new to this edition or revised by new authors New section singling out six classic theologians of the twentieth century Expanded treatment of the natural sciences gender Roman Catholic theology since Vatican II and African Asian and Evangelical theologies Completely new chapters on spirituality pastoral theology philosophical theology postcolonial biblical interpretation Pentecostal theology Islam and Christian theology Buddhism and Christian theology and theology and film As in previous editions the text opens with a full introduction to modern theology Epilogue discussing the present situation and prospects of Christian theology in the twenty first century

The Culture Of Religious Pluralism Richard Wentz, 2018-10-08 Providing a historical context this book examines the challenges that pluralism presents to denominationalism and civil religion and considers the contributions secularism and the New Age movement have made to the culture of religious pluralism

In Quest of a Vital Protestant Center George Demetrios, 2014-10-06 In Quest of a Vital Protestant Center probes the relationship between Scripture and culture in twentieth century US theology and biblical studies It points to the necessity of turning to what Karl Barth has referred to as the strange new world within the Bible for any revitalization of mainline Protestantism in the tradition of the Protestant Reformers in critical dialogue with serious evangelical theology The study includes a historical overview underlying what Demetrios refers to as the fundamentalist modernist great divide which continues to resonate powerfully in contemporary US Protestant thought and culture Demetrios offers an in depth exploration of four representative twentieth century Protestant theologians and biblical scholars spanning from the conservative evangelical theology of J I Packer to the postliberal dialectical theology of Walter Brueggemann The book includes a chapter on the neo orthodox legacy as a mediating resource in bringing evangelical and postliberal theology into dialogue with the core issues of theology biblical hermeneutics and religious culture Demetrios concludes with a critically empathetic review of the postliberal dialectical theology of Douglas J Hall and the evangelical narrative theology of Richard Lints In linking evangelical postliberal and neo orthodox theology to a common search for a vital Protestant center this book will facilitate fruitful dialogue among divergent schools of Protestant thought and culture      The Minimalist Vision of Transcendence Jerome A. Stone, 1992-11-03 Charts a spiritual path that skirts the choice between the old notion of God and atheism between foundationalism and relativism Describes a Neo naturalistic philosophy of religion that combines a vision of this worldly transcendence with an attitude of openness in inquiry and action Part of the revival of radical empiricism in religious thought Paper edition unseen 16 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR      A God of Faithfulness Jamie A. Grant, Alison Lo, Gordon Wenham, 2013-06-20 A Festschrift dedicated to J Gordon McConville on the occasion of his 60th birthday      The Paradox of Church and World Jon Diefenthaler, 2015-11-01 Ultimately or so H Richard Niebuhr wrote as early as 1929 the problem of church and world involves us in a paradox unless the church accommodates itself to the world it becomes sterile inwardly and outwardly unless it transcends the world it becomes indistinguishable from the world and loses its effectiveness no less surely In the same context he went on to state The rhythm of approach and withdrawal need not be like the swinging of the pendulum mere repetition without progress it may be more like the rhythm of the waves that wash upon the beach each succeeding wave advances a little farther into the world with its cleansing gospel before that gospel becomes sullied with the earth Niebuhr s thought on the paradox of church and world is an essential piece of our understanding of twentieth century theology in America In this volume Jon Diefenthaler collects for the first time over forty writings that trace the lineage of Niebuhr s thought presents them in a single place and makes a case for their enduring value in a post church religious environment The volume is a treasury of little known and hard to find pieces making scholarship and understanding easier
