Gertrude Kasebier Imogen Cunningham Dorothea Lange Laura Gilpin author Judith Fryer Davidov examines the influence of the lives and work of a particular network of women photographers linked by time interaction and friendship In presenting one of the most important strands of American photography this richly illustrated book will interest students of American visual culture women's studies and general readers alike 220 photos An Unfinished Foundation Ken Conca, 2015-07-13

The UN treats the global environment as a problem for international law and economic development but not as part of its mandate to promote peace and champion human rights In this pathbreaking book a leading scholar of global environmental governance suggests reforms to mobilize peacebuilding conflict sensitivity and rights based approaches as tools for environmental protection Contested Grounds Daniel Deudney, Richard Anthony Matthew, 1999-01-01 Presents diverse views on the relationship between environmental politics and international security

Global Environmental Institutions Camilla Chandler Frost Professor of Environmental Studies Elizabeth R DeSombre, Elizabeth R. DeSombre, 2010-04-05 There has been a concurrent growth in interest in the institutions that deal with global environmental issues A vast number of international organizations address these matters this volume provides an overview of the major global institutions attempting to protect the natural environment It first considers the United Nations Environment Programme and the other entities within the United Nations that play important roles in global environmental governance It then examines institutions clustered by issue area introducing institutions that focus on protecting endangered species and biodiversity those that govern the ocean environment those focusing on the atmosphere and a recent set of institutions that regulate the transboundary movement of hazardous substances It concludes with current debates on financing international environmental action gaining widespread participation by states and the question of whether the institutional structure of global environmental governance can and should be fundamentally reformed The volume as a whole focuses on the underlying causes of global environmental problems the creation of global environmental institutions the effectiveness of action undertaken by these institutions Written by an acknowledged expert in the field Global Environmental Institutions is essential reading for students of environmental politics and international organizations The Global Environmental Movement John McCormick, 1992 John Milton Annabel M. Patterson, 2014-07-15 This collection of selected writings represents the best of recent critical work on Milton The essays cover all stages of his career from the early poems through to the later poems of the Restoration period especially Paradise Lost Professor Patterson includes British and American critics such as Michael Wilding Victoria Kahn James Grantham Turner and Mary Ann Radzinowicz and guides the reader through the varied ways Milton's achievement has been explored and debated by modern criticism Indography J. Harris,2012-05-07 In the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Europeans invented Indians and populated the world with them The global history of the term Indian remains largely unwritten and this volume taking its cue from Shakespeare asks us to consider the proximities and distances between various early modern discourses of the Indian Through new analysis of English travel writing medical treatises literature and drama contributors seek not just to recover unexpected counter histories but to put pressure on the ways in which we understand race foreign bodies and identity in a globalizing age that has still not shed deeply ingrained imperialist habits of marking difference EPA-440/5 ,1983 Shaping Tomorrow's World Elke Seefried,2024-05-01 Shaping Tomorrow's World tells the crucial story of how futures studies developed in West Germany Europe the US and within global futures networks from the 1940s to the 1980s It charts the emergence of different approaches and thought styles within the field ranging from Cold War defense intellectuals such as Herman Kahn to critical peace activists like Robert Jungk Engaging with the challenges of the looming nuclear war the changing phases of the Cold War 1968 and the growing importance of both the Global South and environmentalism this book argues that futures scholars actively contributed to these processes of change This multiple award winning study combines national and transnational perspectives to present a unique history of envisioning forecasting and shaping the future The Great Acceleration J. R. McNeill,Peter Engelke,2016-04-04 The pace of energy use greenhouse gas emissions and population growth has thrust the planet into a new age the Anthropocene Humans have altered the planet's biogeochemical systems without consciously managing them The Great Acceleration explains the causes consequences and uncertainties of this massive uncontrolled experiment Global Environmental Institutions Elizabeth R. DeSombre,2017-02-10 Global Environmental Institutions continues to provide the most accessible and succinct overview of the major global institutions attempting to protect the natural environment Fully updated throughout to reflect the latest environmental issues the second edition includes substantial new material on developments in international agreements and how institutional mechanisms have evolved in the past 10 years including the creation of the new Sustainable Development Goals the Minamata Convention on Mercury and the Paris Agreement on Climate Change This second edition maintains the clear structure of the first edition examining the underlying causes of global environmental problems the creation of global environmental institutions the effectiveness of action undertaken by these institutions Providing an overview of the United Nations Environment Programme and the other entities within the UN that play important roles in global environmental governance it also examines institutions clustered by issue area introducing institutions that focus on protecting endangered species and biodiversity govern the ocean environment focusing on the atmosphere and regulate the transboundary movement of hazardous substances Concluding with an updated chapter on emerging issues and future directions drawing on the latest scholarship in the field and written by an acknowledged expert in the field Global Environmental Institutions is essential reading for students of environmental politics and international organizations Principles of International Environmental Law Philippe Sands, Jacqueline Peel, Adriana Fabra, Ruth MacKenzie, 2018-03 The new edition of this essential text offers a comprehensive critical and future thinking commentary on international environmental law Green Backlash Andrew Rowell, 2017-09-25 The tide is turning against environmentalism as the political right industry and governments fight back Green Backlash is a controversial expose of the anti environmental movement Tracing the rise of the backlash from the Wise Use movement in the USA the author reveals its rapid spread worldwide the anti roads movement in the UK forestry debates in Canada and Australia marine resource issues in Europe South East Asia and controversies such as the Brent Spar The backlash is set to get worse as the resource wars intensify This book offers a greater understanding of the challenges and threats facing global environmentalism concluding that the environmental movement now has a chance to re evaluate and change for the better to beat the backlash a chance that must not be missed Activists beyond Borders Margaret E. Keck, Kathryn A. Sikkink, 2014-02-15 In Activists beyond Borders Margaret E Keck and Kathryn Sikkink examine a type of pressure group that has been largely ignored by political analysts networks of activists that coalesce and operate across national frontiers Their targets may be international organizations or the policies of particular states Historical examples of such transborder alliances include anti slavery and woman suffrage campaigns In the past two decades transnational activism has had a significant impact in human rights especially in Latin America and advocacy networks have strongly influenced environmental politics as well The authors also examine the emergence of an international campaign around violence against women Environmental Politics and Policy, 1960s-1990s Otis L. Graham, 2010-11-01 This volume of original essays tells the story of how the agenda of the environmental movement in America has changed from the time Rachel Carson sounded her famous clarion call in the early 1960s up to our current era when the globalization of environmental issues has affected both the severity of the problems we all face and the political difficulty of dealing with them Besides the editor whose Introduction and Epilogue frame the book the contributors include well known journalist Roy Beck activist civil servant Leon Kolankiewicz environmental scholar Michael E Kraft historian Martin V Melosi and political scientist David Vogel This volume was originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Policy History Nuclear Threats, Nuclear Fear and the Cold War of the 1980s Eckart Conze, Martin Klimke, Jeremy Varon, 2017 The book brings together cutting edge scholarship from the United States and Europe to address political and cultural responses to the arms race of the 1980s Ecstatic Émigré Claudia Keelan, 2018-01-30 Most think of an migr as one who leaves her native land to find home in another Claudia Keelan in essays both personal and critical enlists poetic company for her journey engaging both canonical and common figures from Gertrude Stein to a prophetic Las Vegas cab driver named Caesar Mapping her own peripatetic evolution in poetry and her nomadic life she also engages with Christian and Buddhist doctrines on the virtues of dispossession Ecstatic migr pays homage to poets from Thoreau and Whitman to Alice Notley all of whom share a commitment to living and writing in the moment Keelan asks the same questions about the growth of flowers or the meaning of bioluminescence as she does about the poetics of John Cage or George Oppen Her originality is grounded by the ways in which she connects poetic principles with the spiritual concepts of via negativa demonstrated both in St John of the Cross and Mahayana Buddhism In addition her essays demonstrate an activist spirit and share a commitment to the passive resistance demonstrated in Martin Luther King Jr s concept of the beloved community and philosopher Simone Weil s dedication to exile
