Reconcilable Differences in Eighteenth-century English Literature William Bowman Piper, 1999 In this book Piper thus examines major works by Swift Gay Pope Radcliffe and Austen with the awareness of perceptualism that they must have possessed and describes the connections between their works and this philosophy BOOK JACKET Walking the Streets of Eighteenth-Century London Clare Brant, Susan E. Jones, 2005-09-15 The first study dedicated to the relationship between Alexander Pope and George Berkeley this book undertakes a comparative reading of their work on the visual environment economics and providence challenging current ideas of the relationship between poetry and philosophy in early eighteenth century Britain It shows how Berkeley's idea that the phenomenal world is the language of God learnt through custom and experience can help to explain some of Pope's conservative sceptical arguments and also his virtuoso poetic techniques Modernist Invention Edward Allen, 2020-07-23 Modernist Invention attends to the parallel histories of media technology and modernist American poetry The Best Books for Academic Libraries, 2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers Essay and General Literature Index Minnie Earl Sears, Marian Shaw, Dorothy Herbert West, 2000 Includes List of books indexed published also separately The Invention of Northern Aesthetics in 18th-Century English Literature Yvonne Bezrucka, 2018-06-11 Free romantic and individualistic Britain's self image in the eighteenth century constructs itself in opposition to the dominant power of a southern European aesthetics Offering a fresh understanding of how the British intelligentsia created a Northern aesthetics to challenge the European yoke this book explores the roots of British Romanticism and a newly created past Literature the arts architecture and gardening all contributed to the creation of this national enlightened Northern cultural environment with its emphasis on a home grown legal tradition on a heroic Celtic past and on the imagined democracy of King Arthur and his Roundtable of Knights as a prophetic precursor of Constitutional Monarchy Set against the European Grand Tour the British turned to the Domestic Picturesque Anti Grand Tour and alongside a classical literary heritage championed British authors and British empiricism against continental religion that sanctioned an authoritarian politics that the Gothic Novel mocks However if empiricism and Current Contents. Arts & Humanities Institute for Scientific Information, 2001 Eighteenth Century English Literature Charlotte Sussman, 2013-04-18 This engaging book introduces new readers of eighteenth century texts to some of the major works authors and debates of a key period of literary history Rather than simply providing a chronological survey of the era this book analyzes the impact of significant cultural developments on literary themes and forms including urbanization colonial and mercantile expansion the emergence of the public sphere and changes in sex and gender roles In eighteenth century Britain many of the things we take for granted about modern life were shockingly new women appeared for the first time on stage the novel began to dominate the literary marketplace people entertained the possibility that all human beings were created equal and tentatively proposed that reason could triumph over superstition ministers became more powerful than kings and the consumer emerged as a political force Eighteenth Century English Literature 1660 1789 explores these issues in relation to well known works by such authors as Defoe Swift Pope Richardson Gray and Sterne while also bringing attention to less familiar figures such as Charlotte Smith Mary Leapor and Olaudah Equiano It offers both an ideal introduction for students and a fresh approach for those with research interests in the period Choice, 2000 The Religious Sublime David B. Morris, 2014-07-15 This perceptive carefully documented study challenges the traditional assumption that the supernatural virtually disappeared from eighteenth century poetry as a result of the growing rationalistic temper of the late seventeenth century Mr Morris shows that the religious poetry of eighteenth century England while not equaling the brilliant work of seventeenth century and Romantic writers does reveal a vital and serious effort to create a new kind of sacred poetry which would rival the sublimity of Milton and of the Bible itself Tracing the major varieties of religious poetry written throughout the century by major figures and by their now vanished contemporaries the author explains how later poets and critics made significant departures from the established norms These changes in religious poetry thus become a valuable means of understanding the shift from a neoclassical to a Romantic theory of literature Science, Literature and Rhetoric in Early Modern England Juliet Cummins, David Burchell, 2007 These essays throw new light on the complex relations between science literature and rhetoric as avenues to discovery in early modern England Analyzing the contributions of such diverse writers as Shakespeare Bacon Hobbes Milton Cavendish Boyle Pope and Behn to contemporary epistemological debates these essays move us toward a better understanding of interactions between the sciences and the humanities during a seminal phase in the development of modern Western thought Space and the Eighteenth-Century English Novel Simon Varey, 1990-07-27 In this challenging and illustrated study first published in 1990 Simon Varey relates the idea of space in the major novels of Defoe Fielding and Richardson to its use in the theory and practice of eighteenth century architecture Concepts of divine design expressed in the work of philosophers and theologians introduced an ideological element to the notion of space which gave it a heightened significance in contemporary thought Professor Varey s central argument is that space becomes a political instrument used to establish conformity assert power and give form to the aspirations of social classes He draws on a wide range of architectural books both English and European and on the example of Bath focusing in particular on its chief architect in the eighteenth century John Wood The discussion of novels such as Robinson Crusoe Tom Jones and Clarissa examines narrative as a form of spatial design the use of architectural imagery to describe people and the political control of social space
