Reconnecting God's Story to Ministry Tom A. Steffen, 2006-12-31 To help readers recapture the most natural universal and effective means of evangelism discipleship that exists storytelling

Connected Learning L. Lynn Thigpen, 2020-04-21 How does the world's oral majority adults with limited formal education ALFE really prefer to learn Few pause long enough to ask those who eschew print The result of scholarly research and prolonged immersion in the Cambodian culture Connected Learning exposes the truth about orality the shame associated with limited formal education the unfortunate misnomer that is orality the place of spirituality grace and hope and the obvious but overlooked learning preferences ALFE have different ways of learning and knowing a different epistemology and culture from print learners even though we all begin alike The choice is not between Ong's orality or literacy but between learning from people or from print Dr Thigpen a veteran cross cultural worker shares remedies for the hegemony and inequities unwittingly fostered by the literate minority In a dominant culture where learning from people is prime how can educators with a preference for print adapt Providing an important tool in the Learning Quadrants diagram Connected Learning advises teaching to the quadrant and calls for seven necessary shifts in teaching Anyone versed in orality will admit these findings have global implications and applications Steffen The reader who heeds will positively impact a huge portion of humanity

Creating Stories That Connect D. Bruce Seymour, This innovative book helps pastors and teachers enhance their teaching with original audience appropriate stories the way Jesus did Bruce Seymour explains how such stories work when to use them and how to create them

Telling God's Stories with Power Paul F. Koehler, 2010-06-01 Biblical Storytelling in Oral Cultures This is a complete and practical introduction to storying especially for people who want to learn about using biblical storytelling in cross cultural contexts and who want to train others to become storytellers It includes many fascinating accounts of the responses of tribal people to the first proclamation of the gospel through storytelling The result of years of research and field testing Telling God's Stories with Power is a product of the author's own journey as he confronted the challenges of teaching the Bible in parts of the world where people are unaccustomed to a Western style of learning Full of innovative and groundbreaking insights this study is packed with ideas explanations and constructive suggestions stated in clear and simple language Throughout the book there are extensive examples from the storytellers own experiences Tracing the movement of the biblical stories across multiple generations of tellers and listeners storytelling is found to be superior for knowledge transfer and for bypassing resistance to the gospel in oral contexts thus presenting clear evidence of the effectiveness of biblical narrative among oral learners

The Return of Oral Hermeneutics Tom Steffen, William Bjoeraker, 2020-05-01 Have Western exegetes turned an Eastern book into a Western one Has our fondness for a fixed printed text capable of being analyzed with precision and exactitude blinded us to other hermeneutic possibilities Does God require all people to be able to analyze grammar to interpret Scripture Does God assume all people can interpret Scripture through oral means The authors recognize the effects of centuries of literacy socialization that produced a blind spot in the Western Christian world the neglect by most in the academies agencies and assemblies of the foundational and forceful role orality had on the biblical text and teaching From the inspired spoken word of the prophets including Jesus pre text to the elite literate scribes who painstakingly hand printed the sacred text to post text interpretation and teaching the footprint of orality throughout the entire process is acutely visible to those having the oral aural influenced eyes of the Mediterranean ancients Could oral hermeneutics be the mother of relational theology

Teaching Cross-Culturally Judith E. Lingenfelter, Judith Lingenfelter, Sherwood G. Lingenfelter, 2003-06 How can Christian educators teach effectively in different cultures Here are winning principles drawn from educational theory and personal experience

Effective Intercultural Communication (Encountering Mission) A. Scott Moreau, Evvy Hay Campbell, Susan Greener, 2014-10-14 With the development of instantaneous global communication it is vital to communicate effectively across cultural boundaries This addition to the acclaimed Encountering Mission series is designed to offer contemporary intercultural communication insights to mission students and practitioners Authored by leading missionary scholars with significant intercultural experience the book explores the cultural values that show up in intercultural communication and examines how we can communicate effectively in a new cultural setting Features such as case studies tables figures and sidebars are included making the book useful for classrooms

Encountering Missionary Life and Work (Encountering Mission) Tom Steffen, Lois McKinney Douglas, 2008-06-01 This new volume in the award winning Encountering Mission series is for current and future missionaries It provides practical guidance regarding getting ready for the mission field and the realities of life on the field The authors are well qualified to write such a manual each having served as a missionary for more than twenty years and each having taught missions in seminary The authors begin by examining the contemporary context for missions including the recognition that the world's mission fields are in constant and often rapid change They then discuss aspects of preparing oneself for the mission field beginning with home front preparations and moving to on the field preparations The final section deals with practical issues and challenges of missionary life

Teaching and Learning across Cultures Craig Ott, 2021-06-15 Representing the fruit of a lifetime of reflection and practice this comprehensive resource helps teachers understand the way people in different cultures learn so they can adapt their teaching for maximum effectiveness

Senior missiologist and educator Craig Ott draws on extensive research and cross cultural experience from around the world. This book introduces students to current theories and best practices for teaching and learning across cultures. Case studies, illustrations, diagrams, and sidebars help the theories of the book come to life. Great Commission Companies Steven Rundle, Tom A. Steffen, 2013-04-23. In this landmark book, economist Steve Rundle and missiologist Tom Steffen offer their paradigm for the convergence of business and missions: the Great Commission Company. This revised and expanded edition provides new and updated case studies of Great Commission Companies in diverse contexts around the world. Bridging Theory and Practice in Children's Spirituality Zondervan, 2020-04-21. Bridging Theory and Practice in Children's Spirituality explores the different contexts, methods, and situations that influence and foster a child's spirituality and faith development. Through a blend of theoretical understanding held in tension with practical application, it equips those who are in or being prepared for the varied contexts where children are spiritually formed. It represents a broad range of Christian expression, writing from a Christ-centered perspective that furthers the conversation about the next steps in children's spirituality and faith development. Moving beyond the basics of faith nurture and what makes for effective ministry, this resource deepens our understanding of the practices in children's lives by bringing together the best of theory and practice and includes contributions from Dr. Scottie May (Wheaton College), Dr. Kevin Lawson (Biola University), Dr. Erik Carter (Vanderbilt University), John Roberto (Vibrant Faith), Dr. Dana Kenamer (Pemberton Abilene Christian University), Dr. Shirley Morgenthaler (Concordia University Chicago), Dr. Holly Catterton (Allen Lipscomb University), Dr. Robert Keeley (Calvin College and Calvin Seminary), Dr. Mimi Larson (Wheaton College), Lacy Finn Borgo (Renovar Institute), and others. Pastors, professors, seminary students, and children's ministry leaders and practitioners all believe that nurturing a child's spiritual development is important. Yet often they are unsure about which current trends should be embraced. This book will help equip these people with the grounding needed to evaluate trends and with specific suggestions for moving forward. With short, accessibly written chapters, it helps pastors and leaders stay up to date with current trends and is an excellent resource for teaching in college and seminary classrooms. Contextualization and Syncretism Gailyn Van Rhee, 2006. Culture's influence upon Christianity is easier to discern in retrospect than in prospect. If history is our guide, one thing is sure: This age will be as syncretistic as any other. How is the gospel being contextualized in the contemporary world? To what degree are these new contextualizations syncretistic? This book attempts to answer these questions by defining and analyzing contextualization and syncretism. Gailyn Van Rhee. Perspectives on the World Christian Movement (4th Edition) Ralph D. Winter, Steven C. Hawthorne, 2009-06-01. Perspectives on the World Christian Movement presents a multi-faceted collection of readings exploring the biblical, historical, cultural, and strategic dimensions of world evangelization. Writings from more than 150 mission scholars and practitioners, over 60 of them new to this edition, portray the history and anticipate the potential of the global Christian movement. Every one of the 170 articles and sidebars offers practical wisdom enabling Christians to labor

together in bold biblical hope to finish the task of seeing that Christ is named and followed among all the peoples of the earth

The Fourth Edition contains over 60 articles and sidebars that are new to this edition Many articles have been updated and revised

Shaped by the Story Michael Novelli, 2010-02-02 A good story draws students in engaging their hearts and minds leaving them wanting more God s story is like this a captivating epic that stretches from the beginning of time across our lives and into the future calling us to find ourselves in it We can help students to be captured by this amazing story rather than seeing the Bible as confusing boring or irrelevant After ten years in youth ministry Michael Novelli felt like he had tried everything to help his students connect with the Bible Then a missionary introduced him to a unique ancient way to engage people with the Bible through story Michael learned the art of Storying a sequential telling of Bible stories followed by a time of creative retelling and in depth dialogue God used this process to completely transform his youth group as they found themselves experiencing God in a whole new way Take a journey into the amazing process of Storying and discover how it can change your life and ministry This new approach to learning builds a lasting theological foundation while challenging students to discover their unique identity and calling in God s story Shaped by the Story helps you understand why Storying connects with students today and provides all you need to introduce Storying to your group including sample narratives and an interactive training DVD New and Old Horizons in the Orality Movement Tom Steffen,Cameron D.

Armstrong,2022-02-18 Orality formed us Orality forms us Orality will forever form us Orality is a central theme of our lives In this fast paced world few Christian workers take the time to look back to learn and build on the lessons of the past Wise Christian workers however do not forge ahead into new horizons without first investigating past horizons They understand in this complex world there are too many strong shoulders of the past to be overlooked The dozen practiced researchers contributing to New and Old Horizons in the Orality Movement offer such inquirers wisdom from the past that can boldly and boundlessly improve the future of the modern day orality movement African Proverbs Reveal Christianity in Culture

W. Jay Moon,2009-06-01 In many oral cultures local proverbs are highly regarded for their wisdom and prized for their aesthetic expression In this study Jay Moon provides an in depth look at the use of local proverbs among the Builsa culture of Ghana West Africa In particular the author s research shows how local proverbs can facilitate contextualized expressions of Christianity that are both biblically authentic and culturally relevant The process of initiating and sustaining this form of expression is explicated with the help of an engaging narrative providing valuable insights for those striving for genuine and meaningful expression of Christ in culture This study will be especially beneficial to the missionary community particularly for the purposes of appreciating oral literature in primary oral cultures finding proper roles in the contextualization process identifying cultural values via the window of local proverbs training missionaries in cultural understanding and tailoring discipleship training to incorporate significant aspects of orality Children's Perceptions of the Role of Biblical

Narratives in Their Spiritual Formation Annie George,2017-02-28 In the Bible storytelling is an important means to pass on the revelation of God God repeatedly commanded the people of Israel to tell his mighty acts to the next generation Invariably churches follow this mandate and use biblical narratives as a means to transmit God s self revelation to enable transformation The author Dr Annie George listens to the voices of children in order to understand their perceptions of how storytelling of biblical narratives help them in their spiritual formation Dr George s research highlights the importance of evaluating the impact of biblical narratives from a child's perspective as well as emphasising the need to give the same priority to the spiritual transformation of children as with other areas of study and ministry
