Reconstructing History Elizabeth Fox-Genovese, Elisabeth Lasch-Quinn, 1999 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Reconstructing History Elizabeth Fox-Genovese, Elisabeth Lasch-Quinn, 2019-10-25 In May 1997 a group of distinguished historians announced the formation of the Historical Society an organization that sought to be free of the jargon laden debates and political agendas that have come to characterize the profession Eugene Genovese President of the Society explained the commitment to form a new and genuinely diverse organization The Society extends from left to right and embraces people of every ideological and political tendency The Society promotes frank debate in an atmosphere of civility mutual respect and common courtesy All we require is that participants lay down plausible premises reason logically appeal to evidence and prepare to exchange criticism with those who hold different points of view Our goal to promote an integrated history accessible to the public From those beginnings the Society has grown to include hundreds of members from every level of the profession from Pulitzer prize winning scholars to graduate students across the ideological and political spectrum In this first book from the Historical Society several founding members explore central topics within the field the enduring value of the practice of history the sensitive use of historical records sources and archives the value of common standards and much more An engaging and challenging work that will appeal to scholars students educators and the many public readers who have become lost in the culture wars Reconstructing History is sure to generate the kind of civil reasoned debate that is a foundational goal of the Historical Society Contributors include Walter A McDougall Marc Trachtenberg Alan Charles Kors Deborah A Symonds Leo P Ribuffo Bruce Kuklick Elizabeth Fox Genovese Gertrude Himmelfarb Edward Berkowitz John Patrick Diggins John Womack Victor Davis Hanson Miriam R Levin Martin J Sklar Eugene D Genovese Daniel C Littlefield Elisabeth Lasch Quinn Russell Jacoby Rochelle Gurstein Paul Rahe Donald Kagan Diane Ravitch Sean Wilentz Louis Ferleger and Richard H Steckel

Reconstructing History Elizabeth Fox-Genovese, Elisabeth Lasch-Quinn, 1999 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Historians' Paradox Peter Charles Hoffer, 2010-08-02 How do we know what happened in the past We cannot go back and no amount of historical data can enable us to understand with absolute certainty what life was like then It is easy to demolish the very idea of historical knowing but it is impossible to demolish the importance of historical knowing In an age of cable television pundits and anonymous bloggers dueling over history the value of owning history increases at the same time as our confidence in history as a way of knowing crumbles Historical knowledge thus presents a paradox the more it is required the less reliable it has become To reconcile this paradox that history is impossible but necessary Peter Charles Hoffer proposes a practical workable philosophy of history for our times one that is robust and realistic and that speaks to anyone who reads writes and teaches history The philosophy of history that Hoffer supports in The Historians Paradox is driven by a continual and careful search for the authentic but without confining the real to a finite or closed set of facts Hoffer urges us to think and live with a keen awareness that history is everywhere to accept the impossibility of measuring its reliability but to never approach it unquestioningly Covering a sweeping range of philosophies from ancient history to game theory methodological approaches to writing history and the advantages and disadvantages of different strategies of argument Hoffer constructs a philosophy of history that is reasonable free of fallacy and supported by appropriate evidence that is itself tenable The Historians Paradox brings together accounts of actual historical events anecdotes about historians insights from philosophers of history and the personal experience of a long time scholar and teacher Throughout Hoffer liberally spices the mixture with humor to create a philosophy of history for our times publisher

Sources and Methods in Histories of Colonialism Kirsty Reid, Fiona Paisley, 2017-03-27 This book facilitates a deeper understanding of the challenges of working with a range of specific source genres within imperial and colonial archives Drawing material from a range of modern empires from the late 18th century to the present day chapters consider the ways in which newer ways of thinking about the past have challenged more traditional views of the archive provoking questions about what archives are and where their conceptual geographical and chronological boundaries lie Examining a wide selection of source material including government papers censuses petitions and case files this book will be essential reading for students of imperial and colonial history

Defining Women's Scientific Enterprise Miriam R. Levin, 2005 An important new look at how gender religion pedagogy and geography help shape women's scientific work

Making History Peter Lambert, Phillipp Schofield, 2004-08-02 Making History offers a fresh perspective on the study of the past It is an exhaustive exploration of the practice of history historical traditions and the theories that surround them Discussing the development and growth of history as a discipline and of the profession of the historian the book encompasses a huge diversity of influences organized around the following themes the professionalization of the discipline the most significant movements in historical scholarship in the last century including the Annales School the increasing interdisciplinary trends in scholarship theory in historical practice including Marxism post modernism and gender history historical practice outside the academy The volume offers a coherent set of chapters to support undergraduates postgraduates and others interested in the historical processes that have shaped the discipline of history

The Field Douglas Booth, 2007-05-07 2006 North American Society for Sports History Book of the Year The literature on sport history is now well established taking in a wide range of themes and covering every activity from aerobics to zorbing However in comparison to most mainstream histories sport history has rarely been called upon to question its foundations and account for the basis of its historical knowledge In this book Booth offers a rigorous assessment of sport history as an academic discipline exploring the ways in which professional historians can gather materials construct and examine evidence and present their arguments about the sporting past Part 1 examines theories of knowledge while Part 2 goes on to scrutinize the uses of historical knowledge in popular and academic studies of sport history With clear structure examples summary tables and a detailed glossary The Field provides students teachers and researchers with an unparalleled resource to tackle issues fundamental to the future of their subject and sets the agenda for the debate to come Recent Themes in Military History Donald A. Yerxa,2008 Described as the New York Review of Books for history Historically Speaking has emerged as one of the most distinctive historical publications in recent years actively seeking out contributions from a pantheon of leading voices in historical discourse from both inside and outside academia Recent Themes in Military History represents some of the best writing on military history to appear in the past five years This collection of forums interviews and individual essays drawn from Historically Speaking provides contrasting views on such topics in military history as the existence and function of military revolutions in the past and present the experience of soldiering and combat the particularly violent and gruesome nature of twentieth century warfare and projections of the nature of future wars The ebb and flow of discourse between contributors also illustrates how the study of history is an ongoing conversation wherein discovery and debate lead to deeper understanding and development of fresh opportunities for further inquiry Deconstructing Sport History Murray G. Phillips,2012-02-01 This groundbreaking collection challenges the accepted principles and practices of sport history and encourages sport historians to be more adventurous in their representations of the sporting past in the present Encompassing a wide range of critical approaches leading international sport historians reflect on theory practice and the future of sport history They survey the field of sport history since its inception examine the principles that have governed the production of knowledge in sport history and address the central concerns raised by the postmodern challenge to history Sharing a common desire to critique contemporary practices in sport history the contributors raise the level of critical analysis of the production of historical knowledge provide examples of approaches by those who have struggled with or adapted to the postmodern challenge and open up new avenues for future sport historians to follow The Well-Educated Mind Susan Wise Bauer,2015-11-05 The enduring and engaging guide to educating yourself in the classical tradition Have you lost the art of reading for pleasure Are there books you know you should read but haven't because they seem too daunting In The Well Educated Mind Susan Wise Bauer provides a welcome and encouraging antidote to the distractions of our age electronic and otherwise Newly expanded and updated to include standout works from the twenty first century as well as essential readings in science from the earliest works of Hippocrates to the discovery of the asteroid that killed the dinosaurs The Well Educated Mind offers brief entertaining histories of six literary genres fiction autobiography history drama poetry and science accompanied by detailed instructions on how to read each type The annotated lists at the end of each chapter ranging from Cervantes to Cormac McCarthy Herodotus to Laurel Thatcher Ulrich Aristotle to Stephen Hawking preview recommended reading and encourage readers to make vital connections between ancient traditions and contemporary writing The Well Educated Mind reassures those readers who worry that they read too slowly or with below average comprehension If you can understand a daily newspaper there's no reason you can't read and enjoy Shakespeare's sonnets or Jane Eyre But no one should attempt to read the Great Books without a guide and a plan Bauer will show you how to allocate time to reading on a regular basis how to master difficult arguments how to make personal and literary judgments about what you read how to appreciate the resonant links among texts within a genre what does Anna Karenina owe to Madame Bovary and also between genres In her best selling work on home education The Well Trained Mind the author provided a road map of classical education for parents wishing to home school their children that book is now the premier resource for home schoolers In The Well Educated Mind Bauer takes the same elements and techniques and adapts them to the use of adult readers who want both enjoyment and self improvement from the time they spend reading Followed carefully her advice will restore and expand the pleasure of the written word

Representing the Past in the Art of the Long Nineteenth Century Matthew C. Potter, 2021-09-30 This edited collection explores the intersection of historical studies and the artistic representation of the past in the long nineteenth century The case studies provide not just an account of the pursuit of history in art within Western Europe but also examples from beyond that sphere These cover canonical and conventional examples of history painting as well as more inclusive popular and vernacular visual cultural phenomena General themes explored include the problematics internal to the theory and practice of academic history painting and historical genre painting including compositional devices and the authenticity of artefacts depicted relationships of power and purpose in historical art the use of historical art for alternative Liberal and authoritarian ideals the international cross fertilisation of ideas about historical art and exploration of the diverse influences of socioeconomic and geopolitical factors This book will be of particular interest to scholars of the histories of nineteenth century art and culture

The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole

Culture and Context in World Politics Stephanie Lawson, 2006-09-05 This wide ranging historically informed study examines the career of the culture concept and related notions of context in comparative and international politics tracing connections through the disciplines of anthropology and history as well as through issues in nationalism and democracy

The Theory Toolbox Jeffrey Thomas Nealon, Susan Searls Giroux, 2012 This text involves students in understanding and using the tools of critical social and literary theory from the first day of class It is an ideal first introduction before students encounter more difficult readings from critical and postmodern perspectives Nealon and Searls Giroux describe key concepts and illuminate each with an engaging inquiry that asks students to consider deeper and deeper questions Written in students own idiom and drawing its examples from the social world literature popular culture and advertising The Theory Toolbox offers students the language and opportunity to theorize rather than positioning them to respond to theory as a reified history of various schools of thought Clear and engaging it avoids facile description inviting students to struggle with ideas and the world by virtue of the book s relentless challenge to common assumptions and its appeal to common sense Updated throughout the second edition of The Theory Toolbox includes a discussion of new media as well as two new chapters on life and nature

Murder and Madness Matthew G. Schoenbachler, 2009-11-13 The Kentucky Tragedy was early America s best known true crime story In 1825 Jereboam O Beauchamp assassinated Kentucky attorney general Solomon P Sharp The murder trial conviction and execution of the killer as well as the suicide of his wife Anna Cooke Beauchamp fascinated Americans The episode became the basis of dozens of novels and plays composed by some of the country s most esteemed literary talents among them Edgar Allan Poe and William Gilmore Simms In Murder and Madness Matthew G Schoenbachler peels away two centuries of myth to provide a more accurate account of the murder Schoenbachler also reveals how Jereboam and Anna Beauchamp shaped the meaning and memory of the event by manipulating romantic ideals at the heart of early American society Concocting a story in which Solomon Sharp had seduced and abandoned Anna the couple transformed a sordid murder committed because the Beauchamps believed Sharp to be spreading a rumor that Anna had had an affair with a family slave into a maudlin tale of feminine virtue assailed honor asserted and a young rebel s revenge Murder and Madness reveals the true story behind the murder and demonstrates enduring influence of Romanticism in early America

Recent Themes on Historians and the Public Donald A. Yerxa, 2009 Designed to engage both students and general readers Recent Themes on Historians and the Public illuminates the controversy over the role of historians in the public sphere

Locating Medical History Frank Huisman, John Harley Warner, 2006-10-31 With diverse constitutions a multiplicity of approaches styles and aims is both expected and desired This volume locates medical history within itself and within larger historiographic trends providing a springboard for discussions about what the history of medicine should be and what aims it should serve Jacket

American

Left Rhodri Jeffreys-Jones, 2013-10-25 No detailed description available for The American Left Idealization XIII: Modeling in History, 2016-08-09 The book reveals different dimensions of modeling in the historical sciences. Papers collected in the first part, Ontology of the Historical Process, consider different models of historical reality and discuss their status. The second part, Modeling in the Methodology of History, presents various forms of idealization in historiographic research. The papers in the third part, Modeling in the Research Practice, present various models of past reality, e.g. of Poland, Central Europe, and the general history of the feudal system put forward by historians. Other papers consider the status of scientific laws and historical generalizations. The volume will be of interest to those who study analytical philosophy of history, methodology of history and social sciences, social philosophy, as well as theory and history of historiography.
