Reconstruction The Battle For Democracy:

Reconstruction James S. Allen, 1937 Selected bibliography pages 249-252      RECONSTRUCTION : THE BATTLE FOR DEMOCRACY; 1865-1876 James Stewart Allen, 1970      The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual Harold Cruse, 2005-06-30

Published in 1967 as the early triumphs of the Civil Rights movement yielded to increasing frustration and violence The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual electrified a generation of activists and intellectuals The product of a lifetime of struggle and reflection Cruse's book is a singular amalgam of cultural history passionate disputation and deeply considered analysis of the relationship between American blacks and American society Reviewing black intellectual life from the Harlem Renaissance through the 1960s Cruse discusses the legacy and offers memorably acid-edged portraits of figures such as Paul Robeson Lorraine Hansberry and James Baldwin arguing that their work was marked by a failure to understand the specifically American character of racism in the United States This supplies the background to Cruse's controversial critique of both integrationism and black nationalism and to his claim that black Americans will only assume a just place within American life when they develop their own distinctive centers of cultural and economic influence For Cruse's most important accomplishment may well be his rejection of the clichés of the melting pot in favor of a vision of Americanness as an arena of necessary and vital contention an open and ongoing struggle

Reconstruction ; the Battle from Democracy James S. Allen, 1966      Democracy's Discontent Michael J. Sandel, 2022-10-28 Twenty five years after his prescient Democracy's Discontent Michael Sandel updates his classic work for our more fractious age He shows how since the 1990s Democrats and Republicans embraced a market faith that led to the toxic politics of our time To rescue democracy he argues we must reimagine the economy and revitalize the civic project

Harvesting Freedom Akiko Ochiai, 2004-03-30 From early in the Civil War the Sea Islands of South Carolina set the stage for an exciting experiment in freedpeople's independence Lowcountry South Carolina is particularly significant not only for its aristocratic planters and its high profile in the secession but for the degree of autonomy that the slaves acquired during seasons of absentee proprietorship No place ever came closer to realizing the dream of Forty Acres and a Mule than this region and consequently no place saw more vigorous struggles over land possession Proving to the world their abilities to purchase lands to organize cooperatives and to participate in political parties the African Americans of the lowcountry forged and fought for their own agrarian dreams A highlight of Sea Island history was the Port Royal Experiment when northern volunteer missionaries provided education to freedpeople and General Rufus Saxton actively initiated Sherman's Field Orders commandeering the coast for African American homesteaders When freedom gave them the chance this group embraced education and democratic self rule with abilities that even their supporters underestimated This is the true story of their triumphs and failures in the struggle to claim the lands on which their forefathers toiled and died

The Invention of the White Race, Volume 1 Theodore W. Allen, 2014-04-29 When the first Africans arrived in Virginia in 1619 there were no white people there Nor according to colonial records would there be for another sixty years In this seminal two volume work The Invention of the White Race Theodore W Allen tells the story of how America's ruling classes created the category of the white race as a means of social control Since that early invention white privileges have enforced the myth of racial superiority and that fact has been central to maintaining ruling class domination over ordinary working people of all colors throughout American history Volume I draws lessons from Irish history comparing British rule in Ireland with the white oppression of Native Americans and African Americans Allen details how Irish immigrants fleeing persecution learned to spread racial oppression in their adoptive country as part of white America Since publication in the mid nineties The Invention of the White Race has become indispensable in debates on the origins of racial oppression in America In this updated edition scholar Jeffrey B Perry provides a new introduction a short biography of the author and a study guide

Routledge Library Editions: Historiography Various, 2021-06-23 The greatest problem in historical scholarship theoretically and practically is the relation between historians and their subject matter The past is gone and historians can only study its remnants On what basis do scholars select certain facts from the mass of data left from the past How do they explain the interrelationship of the facts they select What criteria do they use to evaluate their subject The 35 volumes in this set originally published between 1926 and 1990 discuss and answer these essential questions faced by historians The development of historical understanding during the 18th and 19th centuries was one of the most striking features of Western culture Both historiography and historical thinking advanced as never before The historical movement of the 19th century was perhaps second only to the scientific revolution of the seventeenth century in transforming Western thought One consequence was extensive organisation and professionalization of research which the volumes in this set reflect

Making Movies Black Thomas Cripps, 1993-05-20 This is the second volume of Thomas Cripps's definitive history of African Americans in Hollywood covering the period from World War II through the civil rights movement of the 1960s Examining this period through the prism of popular culture Making Movies Black shows how movies anticipated America's changing ideas about race Cripps contends that founded in the liberal rhetoric of the war years with the catchwords brotherhood and tolerance came movies which defined a new African American presence both in film and in American society at large Focusing on popular film culture from classic Hollywood films and black musicals like Gone with the Wind and Cabin in the Sky to war movies and government propaganda films like Bataan and Wings for this Man narrated by Ronald Reagan to the first bold strides toward a humane portrayal of interracial comradeship in The Breaking Point Cripps documents the ever fluctuating African American presence in Hollywood Delving into previously inaccessible records of major Hollywood studios among them Warner Brothers RKO and Twentieth Century Fox as well as federal records of the Office of War Information the N A A C P and interviews with survivors of the era Cripps reveals the struggle of black actors like Sidney Poitier leading the way in liberal racial casting as cops and judges fishermen and wounded veterans yet marginalized behind the scenes within the racial ferment of cultural politics More than a narrative history Making Movies Black reaches beyond the screen itself with sixty photographs most never before published which visually illustrate the mood of the time Revealing the reflective power of American popular film Making Movies Black is the perfect book for those interested in the changing attitudes toward race in post World War II society The Invention of the White Race Theodore W. Allen, 1994 When the first Africans arrived in Virginia in 1619 there were no white people there nor according to colonial records would there be for another sixty years Historical debate about the origin of racial slavery has focused on the status of the Negro in seventeenth century Virginia and Maryland However as Theodore W Allen argues in this magisterial work what needs to be studied is the transformation of English Scottish Irish and other European colonists from their various statuses as servants tenants planters or merchants into a single new all inclusive status that of whites This is the key to the paradox of American history of a democracy resting on race assumptions Volume One of this two volume work attempts to escape the white blind spot which has distorted consecutive studies of the issue It does so by looking in the mirror of Irish history for a definition of racial oppression and for an explanation of that phenomenon in terms of social control free from the absurdities of classification by skin color Compelling analogies are presented between the history of Anglo Irish and British rule in Ireland and American White Supremacist oppression of Indians and African Americans But the relativity of race is shown in the sea change it entailed whereby emigrating Irish haters of racial oppression were transformed into White Americans who defended it The reasons for the differing outcomes of Catholic Emancipation and Negro Emancipation are considered and occasion is made to demonstrate Allen s distinction between racial and national oppression Proceedings of the ... Annual Playground Congress ... and Year Book ,1942 The Historian and the Climate of Opinion Robert Allen Skotheim, 2018-10-24 This volume of writings by outstanding twentieth century American historians presents one aspect of the problem which results from the conflict between the subjectivity of the historian and the objectivity of the past It examines in particular the relationship between the historian and the climate of opinion in which he does he work Congressmen, "Radicalism" and economic issues, 1861 to 1873 Glenn Marston Linden, 1963 The Pennsylvania Manual ,1920 The Battle for Hearts and Minds Alexander T.
