Recovering The Ground:

Recovering the Personal Dale W. Cannon, Ronald L. Hall, 2016-09-14 Modernity has radically challenged the assumptions that guide our ordinary lives as persons in ways we are not normally aware We live our concrete lives taking for granted that personal decisions desires relationships actions aspirations values and knowledge are central to our existence But in modernity we think of these matters as private idiosyncratic and subjective even irrational This modern conception of ourselves and the associated way of reflection known as modern critical thinking came to dominate our thinking is culminates in the dualistic philosophy of Ren Descartes This dualism has spawned a reductionist view of persons and tainted the personal with connotations of bias partiality and privacy leaving us with the presumption that if we seek to be objective and intellectually respectable we must expunge the personal William H Poteat s work in philosophical anthropology has confronted this concern head on He undertakes a radical critique of the various forms of mind body dualism and materialist monism that have dominated Western intellectual concepts of the person In a unique style that Poteat calls post critical he uncovers the staggering incoherencies of these dualisms and shows how they have resulted in a loss of the personal in the modern age He also formulates a way out of this modern cultural insanity This constructive dimension of his thought is centered on his signature concept of the mindbody the pre reflective ground of personal existence The twelve contributors in this collection explore outgrowths and implications of Poteat s thought Recovering the Personal will be of interest to a broad range of intellectual readers with interests in philosophy psychology theology and the humanities
