Certain Victory: Images of World War II in the Japanese Media David C. Earhart, 2015-06-01 This unique window on history employs hundreds of images and written records from Japanese periodicals during World War II to trace the nation's transformation from a colorful cosmopolitan empire in 1937 to a bleak total war society facing imminent destruction in 1945 The author draws upon his extensive collection of Japanese wartime publications to reconstruct the government controlled media's narrative of the war's goals and progress thus providing a close up look at how the war was shown to Japanese on the home front Many of these visual and written sources are rare in Japan and were previously unavailable in the West Strikingly the narrative remains consistent and convincing from victory to retreat and even as defeat looms large Earhart's nuanced reading of Japan's wartime media depicts a nation waging war against the world and a government terrorizing its own people At once informed scholarly and readily accessible this lavishly illustrated volume offers an accurate representation of the official Japanese narrative of the war in contemporary terms The images are fresh and compelling revealing a forgotten world by turns familiar and alien beautiful and stark poignant and terrifying

Composing the Citizen Jann Pasler, 2009 Jann Pasler's remarkable Composing the Citizen reaches well beyond what any book concerned with music in society has ever attempted Concentrating on France of the Third Republic from the 1870s through the early 1900s she demonstrates convincingly how music whether new old popular or lite whether performed at institutions of state such as the Opéra the Folies Bergère concert halls or the zoo helped to redefine what it meant to be French under evolving political circumstances Equally adept in the languages of history sociology political science reception history and music analysis Pasler establishes music's cultural significance and implicitly illuminates the role it can still play in countries like the United States Philip Gossett The University of Chicago and University of Rome La Sapienza Composing the Citizen offers nothing less than a new paradigm for the study of musical cultures Rather than forcing French music into the moulds developed for the Austro-German canon Pasler simply studies the social uses of music in fin de siècle France Her painstaking archival research allows her to present an astonishingly detailed account of musical practices tastes and activities new names and genres come to the fore to engage in a variety of dynamic artistic scenes most of us never knew or only thought we did by virtue of having read Proust A masterwork of a scholar at the very peak of her career Susan McClary MacArthur Fellow 1995 and author of Georges Bizet Carmen and Modal Subjectivities Self Fashioning in the Italian Madrigal Utilité publique a common sense republican notion of sweeping consequence In this greatly anticipated volume Jann Pasler uses it as touchstone showing how and why musical life so mattered in Third Republic France layer after layer of it in a journey that takes us past the Opéra and Conservatoire to the pops concerts department stores the zoo the world's fairs the overseas colonies Companionable as a well worn Baedeker seductive as Roger Shattuck's The Banquet Years this exquisitely styled and paced achievement is also a compelling read D Kern Holoman author of Berlioz and The Société des Concerts du Conservatoire 1828-1967

Debussy's Resonance François de Médicis, Steven Huebner, 2018 Some of Debussy's most beloved pieces as well as lesser known ones from his early years set in a rich cultural context by leading experts from the English and French speaking worlds The music of Claude Debussy has always been widely beloved by listeners and performers alike more perhaps than that of any of the other pioneers of musical modernism However rich in itself his creative output also participated and continues to participate in a network of cultural connections the scope and meaning of which can only be gleaned through multiple interpretive frameworks Debussy's Resonance offers twenty new studies by some of the most active and respected English and French language scholars of French music The book treats a large swath of the composer's music from previously unexplored modalities of his early years to late pieces such as the ballet Jeux and the Douze tudes and takes into consideration the numerous contexts that helped shape the works and the different

Empires of Love Carmen Nocentelli, 2013-01-09 Through literary and historical documents from the early sixteenth to late seventeenth centuries epic poetry private correspondence secular dramas and colonial legislation Carmen Nocentelli charts the Western fascination with the eros of India as the vast coastal stretch from the Gulf of Aden to the South China Sea was often called If Asia was thought of as a place of sexual deviance and perversion she demonstrates it was also a space where colonial authorities actively encouraged the formation of interracial households even through the forcible conscription of native brides In her comparative analysis of Dutch English French Italian Portuguese and Spanish texts Nocentelli shows how sexual behaviors and erotic desires quickly came to define the limits within which Europeans represented not only Asia but also themselves Drawing on a wide range of European sources on polygamy practices of male genital modification and the allegedly excessive libido of native women Empires of Love emphasizes the overlapping and mutually transformative construction of race and sexuality during Europe s early overseas expansion arguing that the encounter with Asia contributed to the development of Western racial discourse while also shaping European ideals of marriage erotic reciprocity and monogamous affection

Transnational Migration and Work in Asia Kevin Hewison, Ken Young, 2006 Providing important sociological insight into the dynamics of migration the essays in this collection focus on issues associated with migration for work both in and from the Asian region With contributions from an international team of well known scholars the text sets labor migration firmly within the context of globalization providing a focused contemporary discussion of what is undoubtedly a major twenty first century concern The first of its kind to look at the non professionals who make up the vast majority of migrant workers in the region the book analyses workers motivations and rationalities highlighting the similarities of migration experiences throughout Asia Presenting in depth case studies of the real life experiences and problems faced by migrant workers the book discusses migrants relations with the state and their vulnerability to exploitation as well as the major policy issues now facing governments employers NGOs and international agencies

Japan and Japonisme in Late Nineteenth Century Literature Naomi Charlotte Fukuzawa, 2024-10-07 This book examines the transnational phenomenon of Japonisme in the exoticist and autoexoticist literature of the late nineteenth century Focusing on the way in which reciprocal processes of transcultural acquisition by Japan and from Japan were portrayed in the medium of literature the book illustrates how literary Japonisme and the wider processes whereby Japan with its alien exotic culture and unique refined aestheticism was absorbing Western civilization in its own way in the late nineteenth century at the same time as the phenomenon of Japonisme was occurring in Western fine arts which were inspired by traditional Japanese artistic practices Specifically the book focuses on the literary works of Lafcadio Hearn and Pierre Loti who travelled from France and America respectively to Japan and Mori gai and Natsume S seki who in turn went respectively to Germany and England from Japan Exploring the eclectic hybridity of Japan s modernization during the late nineteenth century this book will appeal to students and scholars of Japanese Studies Postcolonial Studies and Comparative Literature Clifford Geertz by His Colleagues Richard A. Shweder, Byron Good, 2005-03-15 Clifford Geertz is the most influential American anthropologist of the past four decades His writings have defined and given character to the intellectual agenda of a meaning centered nonreductive interpretive social science and have provoked much excitement and debate about the nature of human understanding As part of the American Anthropological Association s centennial celebration the executive board sponsored a presidential session honoring Geertz Clifford Geertz by His Colleagues compiles the twelve speeches given then by a distinguished panel of social scientists along with a concluding piece by Geertz in which he responds to each speaker and reflects on his own career These edited speeches cover a broad range of topics including Geertz s views on morality cultural critique interpretivism time and change Islam and violence A fitting tribute to one of the great thinkers of our age this collection will be enjoyed by anthropologists as well as students of psychology history and philosophy Domestication Gone Wild Heather Anne Swanson, Marianne Elisabeth Lien, Gro B. Ween, 2018-09-27 The domestication of plants and animals is central to the familiar and now outdated story of civilization s emergence Intertwined with colonialism and imperial expansion the domestication narrative has informed and justified dominant and often destructive practices Contending that domestication retains considerable value as an analytical tool the contributors to Domestication Gone Wild reengage the concept by highlighting sites and forms of domestication occurring in unexpected and marginal sites from Norwegian fjords and Philippine villages to British falconry cages and South African colonial townships Challenging idioms of animal husbandry as human mastery and progress the contributors push beyond the boundaries of farms fences and cages to explore how situated relations with animals and plants are linked to the politics of human difference and conversely how politics are intertwined with plant and animal life Ultimately this volume promotes a novel decolonizing concept of domestication that radically revises its Euro and anthropocentric narrative Contributors Inger Anneberg Natasha Fijn Rune Flikke Frida Hastrup Marianne Elisabeth Lien Knut G Nustad Sara Asu Schroer Heather Anne Swanson Anna Lowenhaupt Tsing Mette Vaarst Gro B Ween Jon Henrik Ziegler Remme Humanities Research Centre Glen St. John Barclay, Caroline Turner, 2004-05-01 A history of the HRC at the ANU but also an examination of the role and predicament of the humanities within universities and the wider community and contributes substantially to the ongoing debate on an Australian identity The Encoded Cirebon Mask Laurie Margot Ross, 2016-08-29 In The Encoded Cirebon Mask Materiality Flow and Meaning along Java s Islamic Northwest Coast Laurie Margot Ross situates masks and masked dancing in the Cirebon region of Java Indonesia as an original expression of Islam

This is a different view from that of many scholars who argue that canonical prohibitions on fashioning idols and imagery prove that masks are mere relics of indigenous beliefs that Muslim travelers could not eradicate Making use of archives oral histories and the performing objects themselves Ross traces the mask s trajectory from a popular entertainment in Cirebon once a portal of global exchange to a stimulus for establishing a deeper connection to God in late colonial Java and eventual links to nationalism in post independence Indonesia

Verging on Extra-Vagance James A. Boon, 2021-06-08 In this book James Boon ranges through history and around the globe in a series of provocative reflections on the limitations attractions and ambiguities of cultural interpretation The book reflects the unusual keyword of its title extra vagance a term Thoreau used to refer to thought that skirts traditional boundaries Boon follows Thoreau s lead by broaching subjects as diverse as Balinese ritual Montaigne Chaucer Tarzan Perry Mason opera and the ideas of Jacques Derrida Ruth Benedict Kenneth Burke and Mary Douglas He makes creative and often playful leaps among eclectic texts and rituals that do not hold single fixed meanings but numerous changing and exceedingly specific ones Boon opens by exploring links between ritual and reading focusing on commentaries about the seclusion of menstruating women in Native American culture trance dances in Bali and circumcision or lack of it in contrasting religions He considers the ironies of first person ethnography by telling stories from his own fieldwork reflecting on ethnological museums and making seriocomic connections between Mark Twain and Marcel Mauss In expansive discussions that touch on Manhattan and Sri Lanka the Louvre and the World of Coca Cola museum willfully obscure academic theory and shamelessly commercial show business Boon underlines the inadequacies of simple ideologies and pat generalizations The book is a profound and eloquent exploration of cultural comparison by one of America s most original and innovative anthropologists

Britten and the Far East Mervyn Cooke, 1998 Investigation into the influence of Eastern music on Britten s composition Benjamin Britten s interest in the musical traditions of the Far East had a far reaching influence on his compositional style this book is the first to investigate the highly original cross cultural synthesis he was able to achieve through the use of material borrowed from Balinese Japanese and Indian music Britten s visit to Indonesia and Japan in 1955 6 is reconstructed from archival sources and shown to have had a profound impact on his subsequent work the techniques of Balinese gamelan music were used in the ballet The Prince of the Pagodas 1957 and then became an essential feature of Britten s compositional style at their most potent in Death in Venice 1973 The No drama and Gagaku court music of Japan were the inspiration for the trilogy of church parables Britten composed in the 1960s The precise nature of these influences is discussed Britten s sporadic borrowings from Indian music are also fully analysed There is a survey of critical responses to Britten s cross cultural experiments Dr MERVYN COOKE lectures in music at the University of Nottingham

A Politics of Presence Peter Pels, 2013-12-16 Christian missions in Africa are commonly viewed as a blatant example of ethnocentrism This stereotype partly exists because the day to day interaction between missionaries and Africans has so rarely been studied This book shows how Africans and missionaries co produced a Catholic Church in the Uluguru mountains of Eastern Tanzania in the late colonial period thereby adapting each others routines in the fields of initiation education magic and religion It explores how the presence of the mission resulted in a rift between spiritual and worldly magic and in the underdevelopment of the capacity of Waluguru to manage their own practices of revelation
