Biographical Texts from Ramessid Egypt Elizabeth Froom,2025-05-30 The Ramessid period in Egypt ca 1290 1075 B C E corresponds to the Late Bronze Age a time of great change both in Egypt and the Near East This period of empire dominated by the figure of Ramesses II witnessed crucial developments in art language and religious display Biographical Texts from Ramessid Egypt offers insights into these cultural transformations through the voices of forty five priests artists civil officials and military men who served under the kings of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Dynasties Sixty five biographical texts which were inscribed in tombs on statues and stelae in temples and exceptionally on temple walls give details of their careers and character. The metrically arranged translations are introduced by descriptions of the texts, monumental contexts and where possible summaries of the careers of their owners. The volume provides an introduction to the historical background of the Ramessid period, drawing together key themes and interpretive issues raised by the texts and their contexts. These include the representation of relationships to deities and the king, the thematization of the priestly life and implications of changes in the texts, media including new decorative programs of nonroyal tombs. This integration of text with context sheds light on the meaning of biographical writing in ancient Egypt as a whole.

Death and Salvation in Ancient Egypt Jan Assmann, 2011-11-14. Human beings, the acclaimed Egyptologist Jan Assmann writes, are the animals that have to live with the knowledge of their death and culture; it is the world they create so they can live with that knowledge. In his new book, Assmann explores images of death and of death rites in ancient Egypt to provide startling new insights into the particular character of the civilization as a whole. Drawing on the unfamiliar genre of the death liturgy, he arrives at a remarkably comprehensive view of the religion of death in ancient Egypt. Assmann describes in detail nine different images of death: death as the body being torn apart, as social isolation, the notion of the court of the dead, the dead body, the mummy, the soul and ancestral spirit of the dead, death as separation and transition, as homecoming and as secret. Death and Salvation in Ancient Egypt also includes a fascinating discussion of rites that reflect beliefs about death through language and ritual.
