Unlocking the Red Closet Eileen Yuk-ha Tsang,2025-07-29 An inside look at the lives of gay male and transgender sex workers in China In Unlocking the Red Closet Eileen Yuk ha Tsang takes us to an upscale gay bar in the port city of Tianjin in Northeastern China where the male staff have sex with regular clientele She brings this world to life through interviews with over two hundred people including gay male sex workers and their wives known as Tongqi heterosexual women married to gay men transgender sex workers HIV patients and the doctors who care for them Tsang argues that the violent oppression against the LGBTQ community in China has far reaching consequences the limitation of careers outside of the sex industry for gay men because they do not adhere to traditional ideas of masculinity the constant exposure to high risk sexual practices and poor medical care due to stigma in the medical community and the maintenance of the facade of heterosexual married life Tsang denounces the homophobic culture and state sanctioned oppression of the gay community making a case that in addition to the very real health risks many face in their profession many of the gay male and trans sex workers also face social death should they try to lead lives that would embrace their gender and sexual identities Unlocking the Red Closet is a fascinating look into a rarely seen world that successfully locates the necropolitical within the queer and the queer within the necropolitical

Maoist Model Theatre Rosemary A. Roberts, 2010 Here is a convincing reflection that changes our understanding of gender in Maoist culture esp for what critics from the 1990s onwards have termed its erasure of gender and sexuality In particular the strong heroines of the yangbanxi or model works which dominated the Cultural Revolution period have been seen as genderless revolutionaries whose images were damaging to women Drawing on contemporary theories ranging from literary and cultural studies to sociology this book challenges that established view through detailed semiotic analysis of theatrical systems of the yangbanxi including costume props kinesics and various audio and linguistic systems Acknowledging the complex interplay of traditional modern Chinese and foreign gender ideologies as manifest in the model works it fundamentally changes our insights into gender in Maoist culture

Civilizing Women Janice Boddy, 2018-06-05 Civilizing Women is a riveting exploration of the disparate worlds of British colonial officers and the Muslim Sudanese they sought to remake into modern imperial subjects Focusing on efforts to stop female circumcision in the Anglo Egyptian Sudan between 1920 and 1946 Janice Boddy mines colonial documents and popular culture for ethnographic details to interleave with observations from northern Sudan where women's participation in z r spirit possession rituals provided an oblique counterpoint to colonial views Written in engaging prose Civilizing Women concerns the subtle process of colonizing selfhood the British women who undertook it and those they hoped to reform It suggests that efforts to suppress female circumcision were tied to the continuation of slavery and the rise of commercial cotton growing in Sudan as well as to concerns about infant mortality and maternal health Boddy traces maneuverings among political officers teachers missionaries and medical personnel as they pursued their elusive goal and describes their fraught relations with Egypt Parliament the Foreign Office African nationalists and Western feminists In doing so she sounds a cautionary note for contemporary interventionists who would flout local knowledge and belief
