Rural Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen, 2012-05-29 Older research on the premodern world limited its focus on the Church the court and more recently on urban space The present volume invites readers to consider the meaning of rural space both in light of ecocritical readings and social historical approaches While previous scholars examined the figure of the peasant in the premodern world the current volume combines a large number of specialized studies that investigate how the natural environment and the appearance of members of the rural population interacted with the world of the court and of the city The experience in rural space was important already for writers and artists in the premodern era as the large variety of scholarly approaches indicates The present volume signals how much the surprisingly close interaction between members of the aristocratic and of the peasant class determined many literary and art historical works In a surprisingly large number of cases we can even discover elements of utopia hidden in rural space We also observe how much the rural world was a significant element already in early medieval mentality Moreover as many authors point out the impact of natural forces on premodern society was tremendous if not catastrophic

British Literature and Print Culture Sandro Jung, 2013 The complexity of print culture in Britain between the seventeenth and nineteenth century is investigated in these wide ranging articles The essays collected here offer examinations of bibliographical matters publishing practices the illustration of texts in a variety of engraved media little studied print culture genres the critical and editorial fortunes of individual works and the significance of the complex interrelationships that authors entertained with booksellers publishers and designers They investigate how all these relationships affected the production of print commodities and how all the agents involved in the making of books contributed to the cultural literacy of readers and the formation of a canon of literary texts Specific topics include a bibliographical study of Aphra Behn's Oroonoko and its editions from its first publication to the present day the illustrations of John Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress and the ways in which the interpretive matrices of book illustration conditioned the afterlife and reception of Bunyan's work the almanac and the subscription edition publishing history collecting reading and textual editing especially of Robert Burns's poems and James Thomson's The Seasons the printing for the author practice the illustrated and material existence of Sir Walter Scott's Waverley novels and the Victorian periodical The Athenaeum Sandro Jung is Research Professor of Early Modern British Literature and Director of the Centre for the Study of Text and Print Culture at Ghent University Contributors Gerard Carruthers Nathalie Coll Bak Marysa Demoor Alan Downie Peter Garside Sandro Jung Brian Maidment Laura L Runge

Keepers of the Code Robert Lecker, 2013-01-01 Robert Lecker explores the ways in which these anthologies contributed to the formation of a Canadian literary canon the extent to which this canon was tied to an ideal of English Canadian nationalism and the material conditions accounting for the anthologies production

The Longman Anthology of British Literature, Volumes 1A, 1B, And 1C David Damrosch, Christopher Baswell, Kevin Dettmar, Clare Carroll, Heather Henderson, Andrew Hadfield, Stuart Sherman, Peter Manning, Anne Schotter, William Sharpe, Susan Wolfson, 2010 The Longman Anthology of British Literature is the most comprehensive and thoughtfully arranged text in the field offering a rich selection of compelling British authors through the ages With its first edition The Longman Anthology of British Literature created a new paradigm for anthologies Responding to major shifts in literary studies over the past thirty years it was the first collection to pay sustained attention to the contexts within which literature is produced even as it broadened the scope of that literature to embrace the full cultural diversity of the British Isles Within its pages canonical authors mingle with newly visible writers English accents are heard next to Anglo Norman Welsh Gaelic and Scottish ones female and male voices are set in dialogue literature from the British Isles is integrated with post colonial writing and major works are illuminated by clusters of shorter texts that bring literary social and historical issues vividly to life Fresh and up to date introductions and notes are written by an editorial team whose members are all actively engaged in teaching and in current scholarship and 150 illustrations show both artistic and cultural developments from the medieval period to the present The Fourth Edition builds on the pioneering features of the previous three editions expanding the strong core of frequently taught works while continuing to lead the way in responding to the shifting interests of the discipline
