Look forward, not back Hazel M. Smith, Ellen H. Biddle, 1965 The Poor Relation Stuart Macintyre, 2010 What are the social sciences What do they do How are they practised in Australia The Poor Relation examines the place of the social sciences from economics and psychology to history law and philosophy in the teaching and research conducted by Australian universities Across sixty years The Poor Relation charts the changing circumstances of the social sciences and measures their contribution to public policy In doing so it also relates the arrangements made to support them and explains why they are so persistently treated as the poor relation of science and technology An Australian Indigenous Diaspora Paul

Burke, 2018-07-27 Some indigenous people while remaining attached to their traditional homelands leave them to make a new life for themselves in white towns and cities thus constituting an indigenous diaspora This innovative book is the first ethnographic account of one such indigenous diaspora the Warlpiri whose traditional hunter gatherer life has been transformed through their dispossession and involvement with ranchers missionaries and successive government projects of recognition By following several Warlpiri matriarchs into their new locations far from their home settlements this book explores how they sustained their independent lives and examines their changing relationship with the traditional culture they represent The Australian People James Jupp, 2001-10 Australia is one of the most ethnically diverse societies in the world today From its ancient indigenous origins to British colonisation followed by waves of European then international migration in the twentieth century the island continent is home to people from all over the globe Each new wave of settlers has had a profound impact on Australian society and culture The Australian People documents the dramatic history of Australian settlement and describes the rich ethnic and cultural inheritance of the nation through the contributions of its people It is one of the largest reference works of its kind with approximately 250 expert contributors and almost one million words Illustrated in colour and black and white the book is both a comprehensive encyclopedia and a survey of the controversial debates about citizenship and multiculturalism now that Australia has attained the centenary of its federation people of predominantly mixed descent living in Australian cities country towns and Aboriginal communities have lost their culture Often lacking the more obvious markers of Aboriginal identity such as ceremonies and the general use of an indigenous language they are regarded as not being real Aborigines Recent anthropological research refutes these misconceptions This book brings together the results of research by anthropologists who have worked in urban and rural communities in settled Australia and the chapters document many aspects of Aboriginal social life and its development A

Tradition of Giving Michael Liffman, 2004 Explores the remarkable influence of the Myer family on the lives of Australians

This book tells Sidney Myer's classic rags to riches story which sets the foundation for four generations of Myer philanthropists His generosity was epitomised by the legendary Christmas lunch he staged at the Melbourne Exhibition Building From Subject to Citizen Alastair Davidson, 1997-05-12 This important theoretically sophisticated work explores the concepts of liberal democracy citizenship and rights Grounded in critical original research the book examines Australia's political and legal institutions and traces the history and future of citizenship and the state in Australia The central theme is that making proof of belonging to the national culture a precondition of citizenship is inappropriate for a multicultural society such as Australia This becomes an object lesson for the multicultural regional polities forming throughout the world Urban Social Atlas of Brisbane, 1976 Geoffrey Thomas McDonald, M. Families, Labour and Love Maureen Baker, 2020-07-29 We think of our family life as very personal but in fact it is shaped by influences well beyond our control Families Labour and Love identifies the ways in which family and personal life in three settler societies Australia New Zealand and Canada has been shaped by colonisation immigration globalisation demographic changes law and policy Baker shows that these three countries each a former colony developed similar family trends and similar family policies Strongly gendered patterns of paid and unpaid work played a major role in family life The family practices of indigenous people were largely overlooked as were those of recent immigrant groups However local conditions also produced significant differences in family experiences among the three countries Richly illustrated with examples comparative data and textual sources Families Labour and Love provides a broad ranging analysis of the family which will appeal to students researchers and policy makers Maureen Baker outlines with great clarity the diversity of families and the way in which they are shaped by historical and cultural forces The focus on Australia New Zealand and Canada is not only refreshing but throws into sharp relief the impact on contemporary families of the colonial experience industrialisation large scale immigration and globalisation David de Vaus La Trobe University Australian Aboriginal Studies, 1997 Social
