Looking Back Reaching Forward Reflections On The Truth And Reconciliation Commission Of South Africa:

Looking Back, Reaching Forward Charles Villa-Vincencio, Wilhelm Verwoerd, 2000-02-15 The Truth and Reconciliation Commission chaired by Archbishop Desmond Tutu is widely recognized as a defining experience in South Africa's transition to democratic and non racial rule This anthology uniquely combining contributions by some of the Commissioners and their staff those who bore witness and scholars reviews the context in which the TRC did its work Truth and Reconciliation in South Africa Lyn S. Graybill, 2002 Graybill mind and human interaction U of Virginia provides students not only the facts about the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission but also the broader context in which it operated She asks whether it led to reconciliation and healing what criteria were used to decide whether to pardon or punish whether politics necessitated the compromise and other questions Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Looking Back, Reaching Forward Charles Villa-Vincencio, 2000-02-15 Born with an historic compromise that few predicted the TRC has evoked emotions ranging from anger and confusion to sympathy and remorse It has rarely generated indifference This collection of essays constitutes a tour de force capturing the essence of the TRC debate while posing a set of questions with which this country is likely to wrestle for some time to come Indeed it is intended to provoke debate rather than provide simply answers to complex questions This makes it a useful book for teaching purposes as well as for others interested in transitional politics A number of different voices are heard all seeking to provoke practical ways forward for a nation that in the early 1990 s was teetering on the brink of collapse The pertinent question posed by the book is Where does South Africa go in the post TRC period Equally important is the question Does the TRC model provide a viable alternative to prosecution for other countries in transition from oppressive rule to a society committed to human rights and the rule of law

A Moral Theory of Political Reconciliation Colleen Murphy, 2010-10-07 Following extended periods of conflict or repression political reconciliation is indispensable to the establishment or restoration of democratic relationships and critical to the pursuit of peacemaking globally In this book Colleen Murphy offers an innovative analysis of the moral problems plaguing political relationships under the strain of civil conflict and repression Focusing on the unique moral damage that attends the deterioration of political relationships Murphy identifies the precise kinds of repair and transformation that processes of political reconciliation ought to promote Building on this analysis she proposes a normative model of political relationships A Moral Theory of Political Reconciliation delivers an original account of the failure and restoration of political relationships which will be of interest to philosophers social scientists legal scholars policy analysts and all those who are interested in transitional justice global politics and democracy

Transitional Justice in Troubled Societies Aleksandar Fatic, Klaus Bachmann, Igor Lyubashenko, 2018-11-26 This book discusses the crucial strategic topic for the practical implementation of transitional justice in post conflict societies by arguing that the dilemma is defined by the extent to which the actual achievement of the political goals of transition is a necessary condition for the long term observance and implementation of justice While in many cases the blind criminal justice does not enhance and even militates against the achievement of political transitions an understanding of transitional justice as a fundamentally political process is novel controversial and a concept which may shape the future of transitional justice This collection contributes to developing this concept both theoretically and through concrete and current case studies from the worlds most pronounced crisis spots for transitional justice Pathways to Reconciliation Cleo Fleming,2016-12-05 Reconciliation what makes it possible what impedes it how to foster and promote it and how to build the social conditions in which it can flourish These are pressing questions for an increasingly significant concept in community and international relations This book is a creative engagement with the central terms of reconciliation forgiveness nationhood conflict resolution justice and memory and with approaches to questions of listening and understanding the other It is premised on the view that an essential pathway to the achievement of reconciliation lies in developing and disseminating critical concepts that capture the nuances of practice Drawing on fields in the social sciences and humanities including post structuralism hermeneutics subaltern studies and social theory and elaborated in relation to contemporary sites of conflict and peace making this collection brings together a unique range of perspectives on the complex issue of reconciliation while offering responses to the key questions being asked of it today

Commissioning and Contesting Post-Apartheid's Human Rights Ulrike Kistner,2003 The essays compiled in this book take issue with some of the directions of human rights politics in the immediate post apartheid period They look at the relationship between different sets of rights within the political contestations in South Africa To the terms of social struggles for rights and justice this book brings perspectives from narrative psychoanalysis political philosophy and medical history and from the history of national liberation struggles nationalism and citizenship Shaping Truth, Reshaping Justice

Nneoma V. Nwogu,2007-01-01 Shaping Truth Reshaping Justice is the first scholarly analysis of the Nigerian truth commission and provides academic material for a comparative study of African truth commissions It relates to other academic analyses of truth commissions by uniquely providing an exposition and examination of the Nigerian truth experience Conflict Prevention and Peace-building in Post-War Societies T. David Mason,James D. Meernik,2006-05-02

This volume provides an overview of the costs benefits consequences and prospects for rebuilding nations emerging from violent conflict The rationale for this comes from the growing realization that in the post Cold War era and in the aftermath of 9 11 our understanding of conflict and conflict resolution has to include consideration of the conditions conducive to sustaining the peace in nations torn by civil war or interstate conflict The chapters analyze the prospects for building a sustainable peace from a number of different perspectives examining the role of economic development democratization respect for human rights the potential for renewal of conflict the United Nations and other critical topics In an age when nation building is once again on the international agenda and scholars as well as policy makers realize both the tremendous costs and benefits in fostering developed democratic peaceful and secure nations the time has truly come for a book that integrates all the facets of this important subject Conflict Prevention and Peace building in Post War Societies will appeal to students and scholars of peace studies international relations security studies and conflict resolution as well as policy makers and analysts

Transforming International Criminal Justice Mark Findlay, Ralph Henham, 2005-06-01 This book sets out an agenda to transform international criminal trials and the delivery of international criminal justice to victim communities through collaboration of currently competing paradigms It reflects a transformation of thinking about the comparative analysis of the trial process and seeks to advance the boundaries of international criminal justice through wider access and inclusivity in an environment of rights protection Collaborative justice is advanced as providing the future context of international criminal trials The book's radical dimension is its argument for the harmonization of restorative and retributive justice within the international criminal trial The focus is initially on the trial process a key symbol of developing international styles of justice It examines theoretical models and political applications of criminal justice through detailed empirical analysis in order to explore the underlying relationship of theory and empirical study applying the outcome in theory testing and policy evaluation in several different jurisdictions The book injects a significant comparative dimension into the study of international criminal justice This is achieved through searching the traditional foundations of internationalism in justice by employing an original methodology to enable a multi dimensional exploration of contexts local regional and global so recognising the importance of difference within an agenda suggesting synthesis The book argues for a concept of international trial within a rights paradigm understood against different procedural traditions and practices and provides a detailed description of trials and trial decision making in various jurisdictions Transforming International Criminal Justice also sets out to develop effective research strategies as part of its interrogation of specific trial narratives and meanings in contemporary legal cultures Key themes are those of internationalisation fair trial and the exercise of discretion in justice resolutions sentencing in particular and the lay professional relationship and its dynamics Finally the book provides a searching critique of the relevance of existing criminology and legal sociology in relation to international criminal justice and speculates on trial transformation and the merger of retributive and restorative international criminal justice comparative analysis of the criminal trial process internationally argues for harmonization of retributive and restorative justice within the international criminal trial sets out an agenda to transform international criminal trials and the delivery of international criminal justice to victim communities

Carrots and Sticks Jeremy Sarkin, Jeremy Sarkin-Hughes, 2004 This book is about the South African amnesty process Many of the most well known cases are investigated The content of many of the amnesty decisions are investigated to see how the Amnesty Committee applied the amnesty law and whether the decisions were fair and consistent

The Penitent State Paul Muldoon, 2023-09-15 This book asks a deceptively simple question what are states actually doing when they do penance for past injustices Why are these penitential gestures especially the gesture of apology becoming so ubiquitous and what implications do they carry for the way power is exercised

Drawing on the work of Schmitt Foucault and Agamben the book argues that there is more at stake in sovereign acts of repentance and redress than either the recognition of the victims or the legitimacy of the state Driven it suggests by an interest in healing such acts testify to a new biopolitical raison d'état in which the management of trauma emerges as a critical expression of attempts to regulate the life of the population The Penitent State seeks to show that the key issue created by the age of apology is not whether sovereign acts of repentance and redress are sincere or insincere but whether the political measures licensed in the name of healing deserve to be regarded as either restorative or just

The Politics of Dialogue Ranabir Samaddar, 2017-07-05 Offering a detailed analysis of post colonial South Asia The Politics of Dialogue discusses the creation and impact of borders and the pervasive tension between the new nations It critiques existing knowledges and techniques which guide our understanding of post colonial politics of war and peace and stresses the importance of dialogue in such situations as well as pointing out the reasons behind the failure to take up dialogue seriously

Museum Transformations Annie E. Coombes, Ruth B. Phillips, 2020-11-19 MUSEUM TRANSFORMATIONS DECOLONIZATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION Edited By ANNIE E COOMBES AND RUTH B PHILLIPS Museum Transformations Decolonization and Democratization addresses contemporary approaches to decolonization greater democratization and revisionist narratives in museum exhibition and program development around the world The text explores how museums of art history and ethnography responded to deconstructive critiques from activists and poststructuralist and postcolonial theorists and provided models for change to other types of museums and heritage sites The volume's first set of essays discuss the role of the museum in the narration of difficult histories and how altering the social attitudes and political structures that enable oppression requires the recognition of past histories of political and racial oppression and colonization in museums Subsequent essays consider the museum's new roles in social action and discuss experimental projects that work to change power dynamics within institutions and leverage digital technology and new media

Reconciliation Discourse Annelies Verdoolaege, 2008-02-06 This volume is a research monograph analysing the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC from an ethnographic linguistic point of view The central proposition of this book is that the TRC can be regarded as a mechanism that leads to the hegemony of specific discourses thus exercising power The analysis illustrates how through a certain type of reconciliation discourse constructed at the TRC hearings a reconciliation oriented reality took shape in post TRC South Africa Basically the study points to the long term implications a truth commission can exert on a traumatised post conflict society The book is unique on several levels TRC discourse is explored in depth on the basis of personal stories from TRC testifiers a combination of Poststructuralist and Critical Discourse Analysis approaches form the theoretical foundations and an extensive bibliography provides an impressive database of TRC publications

The Oxford Companion to International Criminal Justice Antonio Cassese, 2009 How to face international crimes Fundamentals of international criminal law The interplay of international criminal law and other bodies of law International criminal trials      Handbook of Restorative Justice Gerry Johnstone, Daniel Van Ness, 2013-01-11 This book provides a comprehensive and authoritative account and analysis of restorative justice one of the most rapidly growing phenomena in the field of criminology and justice studies This book aims to meet the need for a comprehensive reliable and accessible overview of the subject It draws together leading authorities on the subject from around the world in order to elucidate and discuss the key concepts and principles of restorative justice explain how the campaign for restorative justice arose and developed into the influential social movement it is today describe the variety of restorative justice practices explain how they have developed in various places and contexts and critically examine their rationales and effects identify and examine key tensions and issues within the restorative justice movement brings a variety of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives to bear upon the understanding and assessment of restorative justice The Handbook of Restorative Justice is essential reading for students and practitioners in the field      Documentary Testimonies Bhaskar Sarkar, Janet Walker, 2009-12-04 Documentary Testimonies examines documentary films that compel us to bear witness move us to anger or tears and possibly mobilize us to action Comprising ten new essays and a substantive introduction this interdisciplinary volume examines audiovisual testimonial practices forms and institutions Topics include technologies of capture storage and circulation problems of historical veracity frail memory generation of video archives official renegade and ephemeral limits and potentialities of documentary as public record architectonics of memory ethics of witnessing and commemoration human rights and activist publics The essays provide in depth analysis of archives of social suffering tied to particular locales Cambodia Chiapas Darfur India Indonesia Korea New Orleans Norway Rwanda South Africa and Washington DC The contributors focus on the generation and use of testimony by public administrators and institutions human rights activists documentary filmmakers and others with interest in environmental justice human rights social advocacy and the commemoration prevention of genocide Thus this volume aims to investigate from a critical and translocal perspective testimony as social practice      Explorations in Reconciliation Dr Joseph Liechty, Professor David Tombs, 2013-05-28 Theologians and scholars of religion draw on rich resources to address the complex issues raised by political reconciliation in the Middle East the former Yugoslavia South Africa Northern Ireland and elsewhere The questions addressed include Can truth set a person or a society free How is political forgiveness possible Are political personal and spiritual reconciliation essentially related Explorations in Reconciliation brings Catholic Protestant Mennonite Jewish and Islamic perspectives together within a single volume to present some of the most relevant theological work today      Truth Commissions and State Building Bonny Ibhawoh, Jasper Abembia Ayelazuno, Sylvia Bawa, 2023-11-14 More than just an opportunity to uncover fact after conflict truth commissions can also offer restorative power to nations across the globe Truth Commissions and State Building presents the first comparative study of the role of its kind illuminating these possibilities Examining truth commissions as mechanisms for civic inclusion identity formation institutional reform and nation re building in post conflict and post authoritarian societies the book shifts attention towards institutional innovation in African countries where approximately a third of all commissions have been established Contributors explore the mandates methods outcomes and legacies of truth commissions analyzing their place in transitional and restorative justice Rather than conceptualizing state building as incidental to their work they present it as an intrinsic central component This flagship volume authored by a stellar cast of policymakers practitioners and scholars brings multidisciplinary and cross sectoral perspectives to bear on the complex role of truth commissions in addressing transitional justice historical injustices and present day human rights violations As more countries in both the Global South and the North adopt this model to address historical and contemporary abuses the dialogue between different sectors of society modelled here will help inform this process wherever it might occur
