program approval licensure recruitment and retention this work will help to inform their deliberations Brenda Welburn Executive Director National Association of State Boards of Education Failing at School Camille A. Farrington, 2014-02-14 About half of all incoming ninth graders in urban districts will fail classes and drop out of school without a diploma Failing at School starts with the premise that urban American high schools generate such widespread student failure not because of some fault of the students who attend them but because high schools were designed to stratify achievement and let only the top performers advance to higher levels of education This is particularly true for low income racial ethnic minority students To get different results Farrington proposes fundamental changes based on what we now know about how students learn what motivates them to engage in learning and what kinds of educational systems and structures would best support their learning The Comprehensive High School Today Floyd M. Hammack, 2004 Hammack has gathered a distinguished group to assess current reform efforts in their sociological and historical context taking into account the vision of James B Conant the major proponent of the comprehensive high schools Contributors are Mary Erina Driscoll Joseph P McDonald Jeannie Oakes John L Rury Roger Shouse Amy Stuart Wells Mentors in the Making Betty Achinstein, Steven Z.
 Athanases, 2006 In response to a growing interest in mentoring and new teacher induction the authors offer a unique view of developing quality mentors Drawing on empirical research practitioner action inquiry and field tested practices from induction programs they explore effective mentoring in diverse educational contexts With richly contextualized and thoughtfully analyzed excerpts from actual mentoring conversations and powerful examples of practice the volume offers educators researchers and policymakers a reform minded vision of the future of mentoring Challenging conventional wisdom this essential resource Argues that mentors are not born but developed through conscious deliberate ongoing learning Provides a needed link between research and practice in the field of new teacher mentoring to define a knowledge base for effective mentoring Documents induction and mentoring practices that focus new teachers on individual learners equity oriented curriculum and pedagogy and the educator's role in reforming school culture Highlights problems and complexities of enacting mentor knowledge and learning in diverse contexts The Power of Protocols Joseph P. McDonald, Nancy Mohr, Alan Dichter, Elizabeth C. McDonald, 2015-04-26 The use of protocols has spread from conferences and workshops to everyday school and university settings Featuring seven protocols this teaching and professional development tool is useful for those working with collaborative groups of teachers on everything from school improvement to curriculum development to teacher education at all levels Creating Dynamic Schools Through Mentoring, Coaching, and Collaboration Judy F.
