Imagination Andrew Carr,2025-06-10 This book examines the concept of strategic imagination developed by Brendan Sargeant during his distinguished career at the Australian Department of Defence and later as a scholar at the Strategic and Defence Studies Centre SDSC The Australian National University His tragic passing has left this powerful idea awaiting a proper examination This volume seeks to provide that scholarly account and carry both the concept and Brendan s legacy forward The book is organised in three parts First former officials like Dennis Richardson join leading scholars including Mark McKenna Anthea Roberts and Ian Hall to explore the unusual conjunction of strategy and imagination demonstrating its crucial role in effective scholarship and policy Second analysts from Australia and worldwide examine how strategic

imagination improves strategic practice by revealing hidden possibilities catalysing essential conversations and challenging core assumptions The final section offers personal reflections from Brendan s colleagues at the SDSC providing a fitting tribute to his life and contribution The volume also includes selections of Brendan s own writing on strategic imagination ensuring his voice continues to inspire scholars and officials to explore this rich and powerful concept Ignored Histories Angélique Stastny,2022-02-28 How is colonial history taught in schools And how do education systems impact power relations between Indigenous people and settlers This book provides a unique contribution to international discussions about knowledge production and the teaching of colonial history in schools with a comparative analysis of two neighboring settler colonial societies of the South Pacific Ang lique Stastny argues that school systems in Australia and Kanaky New Caledonia continue to enact British Australian and French colonialism respectively by leveraging historical narratives that fail to comprehend and willfully ignore the mechanisms and contemporaneity of settler colonialism Settler regimes of ignorance are sustaining the political status quo of settler colonial power Stastny s work examines this weaponization of ignorance in systems so often focused on the production of knowledge to deepen our understanding of how and why settler colonial agendas operate in public primary and secondary schools Ignored Histories takes the reader through the evolution of policy directives for history curricula historiography and the narratives produced and disseminated in textbooks and the author s own ethnography on teachers actual practices and experiences As the story unfolds it traces the recounts of colonial wars and massacres in textbooks presents modern accounts of the continuing marginalization and outright exclusion of Indigenous historians practitioners and knowledge from both curriculum development and pedagogy problematizes students disengagement from learning about their own histories and brings to light lingering effects of white supremacy and ways to counter them Some history teachers on an individual level engage in insurgent educational strategies in an attempt to shift power relations between Indigenous people and settlers From the interviews Stastny conducted we learn that some of these teachers were fired others successfully developed methods to destabilize and rethink institutional practices and effect change in the classroom Ultimately Stastny argues for a system wide transformation that decolonizes history curricula and the teaching of history by prioritizing Indigenous resurgence understandings and knowledge acknowledging and addressing the difficult truths of the past and ethically shaping the stories of today BUCKLEY, BATMAN & MYNDIE: Echoes of the Victorian culture-clash frontier ,2021-01-01 Sounding 1 BEFORE 1840 The notes journals and characters of Aboriginal Protectors William Thomas and his Chief George Robinson form the backbone of this compilation With this ethnographic material we learn something of the Kulin worldview into this mostly white fella history Sounding 1 Before 1840 describes the initial British and European experiences events observations intentions self serving judgements ignorance naivete treachery and so on when they found Oz and proclaimed the continent theirs by the now obvious fiction of terra nullius Latin legalese for land belonging to no people The reader may enjoy separating the grains of truth from the chaff propaganda of Empire just their own apocalyptic sect but also the histories of the many groups and their leaders who from the early nineteenth century onwards had followed the beliefs of the self styled prophetess and prospective mother of the Messiah Shiloh Joanna Southcott who died in 1814 Placing its subjects in a global context this is the first book to explore the religious thinking of all the Southcottians It reveals a transnational movement with striking and innovative ideas not just about prophecy and the coming apocalypse but also about politics gender class and authority The volume will sell to scholars and students of religion and cultural studies as well as social history
