Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity Linda C. Tillman, James Joseph Scheurich, 2013-08-21 The rapid growth of diversity within U S schooling and the heightened attention to the lack of equity in student achievement school completion and postsecondary attendance has made equity and diversity two of the principle issues in education educational leadership and educational leadership research The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity is the first research based handbook that comprehensively addresses the broad diversity in U S schools by race ethnicity culture language gender disability sexual identity and class The Handbook both highly values the critically important strengths and assets that diversity brings to the United States and its schools yet at the same time candidly critiques the destructive deficit thinking biases and prejudices that undermine school success for many groups of students Well known chapter authors explore diversity and related inequities in schools and the achievement problems these issues present to school leaders Each chapter reviews theoretical and empirical evidence of these inequities and provides research based recommendations for practice and for future research Celebrating the broad diversity in U S schools the Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity critiques the inequities connected to that diversity and provides evidence based practices to promote student success for all children

Policy, Leadership and Professional Knowledge in Education Michael Strain, Dr William F Dennison, Dr Janet Ouston, Dr Valerie Hall, 1998-11-25 For those who want to wallow in the past this is a comfortable book that sets one's own experiences in context For those who will still be working into the next century here are the issues we must face as leaders For those PhD and EdD students seeking topics to research there are all the controversial issues here that still need investigation and it has a stunning list of references a roll call of all the great and the good in the last 25 years of educational administration International Studies in Educational Administration The book is a challenge to everyone concerned with the present and future state of public education in the UK and the rest of the developed world The issues are of special concern to those who are expected to provide leadership in schools and colleges and for those with public and political responsibilities How should our conception of learning and its contribution to a Learning Society be defined How can education and other aspects of social care and nurturing enhance our lives as people irrespective of our performance capabilities What is the role of teachers who also manage learning This book contributes formatively to current debate What can educationists do about the discontinuous changes which threaten parents and professionals alike Must education submit to the stranglehold of economic rationalism It is hoped that this book will assist all those working to promote education's humane and learning aspirations in society

Education in Challenging Times Philip M Bamber, Jane C Moore, 2016-07-15 Teacher education is experiencing a period of dramatic and arguably irrevocable change within a wider context of turbulence in the English education system With contributions from a range of teacher educators and academics in the field Teacher Education in Challenging Times presents sustainable robust and informed responses to the challenges posed by the current unrest in the education sector This book considers the nature of teacher professionalism the nurturing of truly collaborative partnerships between universities schools and other agencies and developments in practice with tangible impact for children and young people Drawing on important research and illustrations of policy and practice from England and other countries chapters present a series of counter cultural ideas principles and practices that respond to pressing challenges facing educators in a range of contexts Positive and forward looking this book offers a robust defence of the present need for high quality teacher education in challenging times This book is a timely contribution to an international debate about the future of teacher educators and should be of key interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of teacher education philosophy and sociology of education policy and politics of education and pedagogy It will also appeal to a range of practitioners including trainers local authority officers professional groups educational service providers and educational and school improvement consultants

Managing People in Education Tony Bush, David Middlewood, 1997-02-28 Aims to enhance management practice in education by presenting research findings and theory from a wide range of contributors Skills and Enterprise Update This is indeed a book which could be useful to a much larger readership than the normal closed circle of those working in education Managing Schools Today The book presents relevant research and theory in order to enhance management practice in education The editors intention is to articulate good practice on the basis of evidence in educational settings The ideas presented here are derived from international research and practice and apply to all phases of education with the emphasis on applying research findings to improve practice in schools and colleges

Subject Leadership and School Improvement Hugh Busher, Alma Harris, 2000-11-17 Curriculum and subject leadership in schools has recently gained substantial attention from both researchers and policy makers The Teacher Training Agency TTA has reinforced the importance of subject leadership in school improvement proposing a new measure of such leadership competence through the creation of national subject leader standards NPQSL Subject Leadership and School Improvement reflects critically on the work of subject and curriculum leaders especially in schools in England and Wales that is those within the policy framework of The National Curriculum and the Teacher Training Agency The book debates the functions of subject leaders in primary and secondary schools using current research based conceptual frameworks and considers how they can bring about improvement and change with their colleagues in their subject areas It emphasizes what is particular about leading and managing the middle realm of education organizations showing how structural cultural and individual imperatives and perspectives interact with each other in the professional practice of being a subject leader The book is of interest not only to subject leaders and curriculum co ordinators to help them reflect rigorously on their practice but also to those responsible for supervising them such as headteachers and school governors as well as for those accountable to them It will be a useful text for serving teachers undertaking higher degrees programmes or programmes for gaining national standards qualifications the National Professional Qualification for Headteachers NPQH as much as for the NPQSL National Professional Qualification for Subject Leaders when it is implemented
