Looking Into Teaching:

Looking Into Primary Headship Geoff Southworth, 2002-11-01 This is both a study of leadership and a research methods text. It offers an analytical description of a primary headteacher at work over the course of one school year. Using a mix of participant observation and interviews, the book provides a portrait of this head's approach to his work, his background, beliefs, the school as a context, what he did, how he dealt with change and development, power, and the personal dimension of headship. The portrait is matched to the contemporary literature, and an hypothesis is formulated about primary headship and is then used to critique existing ideas about school leadership. The book also suggests ways of developing heads and school teachers.

Looking at Physical Education from a Developmental Perspective, 1995 Insights Into Teachers' Thinking And Practice Christopher Day, Maureen Pope, Pam Denicolo, 2013-02-01 A collection of original research conducted by scholars from Europe and North America. The papers consider the evolution of research on teachers, thinking, the nature of professional knowledge, and philosophical and moral dimensions of teachers thinking.

An Introduction to Teaching in UK Higher Education Nuala Byrne, Christopher Butcher, 2020-12-21 Covering everything you need to know about teaching within the UK higher education system, this book is the ideal introduction for anyone looking to start their teaching career. A must-read guide for international staff new to teaching in UK higher education, this key text focuses on what is particular and often baffling to those who are new to higher education teaching in the UK. With practical tips and advice rooted in relevant theory, it is an invaluable resource to guide you through the initial teaching experience. Breaking down all of the aspects involved in teaching, learning, and assessing in UK higher education, this book covers the key features of UK higher education, particularly how it might differ from other systems. How courses and the curriculum are designed. How to support learning within your teaching practice. Advice on marking and giving worthwhile feedback. How to develop your own professional practice. A full glossary of key terms. An Introduction to Teaching in UK Higher Education is a one-stop resource for those looking to begin a career in UK higher education. Particularly useful for new international staff, it will also be of interest to those looking to improve their teaching practice.

International Summit on the Teaching Profession Learning from the Past, Looking to the Future Excellence and Equity for all Schleicher Andreas, 2021-10-21 The COVID-19 crisis has amplified the many inadequacies and inequities in education systems. As the future continues to surprise us, the importance of resilience, adaptability, and fairness in education will only grow.

Looking Into the Lives of Children Edith W. King, 1999 Eleanor Roosevelt once described Edith King as a world-minded woman. In LOOKING INTO THE LIVES OF CHILDREN A WORLDWIDE VIEW, Edith King maintains this tradition, which has guided her observation, research, writing, and university teaching. Taking as her central theme the wide-ranging diversity and cultural pluralism which she sees as one of the key features of postmodern nations, she looks at the ways in which education should be delivered to young children, ages four to ten years, in the complex and diverse contemporary society in which they grow up. Her ultimate goal is that her writing will help teachers around the world to develop teaching strategies that acknowledge our human diversity within an overall context of equality and peacefulness TEACHER WORKING CONDITIONS: A Review and Look to the Future MR.SHRIPAD HARI JOSHI, Innovative language teaching and learning at university: a look at new trends Nelson Becerra,Rosalba Biasini,Hanna Magedera-Hofhansl,Ana Reimão,2019-05-06 The present volume collects papers from InnoConf18 which took place at the University of Liverpool in June 2018 The theme of the conference was New trends in language teaching and learning at university The contributions collected here aim to reflect on best practice in the sector while at the same time capturing state of the art language teaching and learning methodologies The short papers in this peer reviewed selection display examples of active learning and student empowerment across all levels of learning and demonstrate the benefits of maximising engagement through a creative and inspiring learning environment We believe this volume will be of use to language teachers and practitioners in higher education and beyond Introduction to Teaching Gene E. Hall,Linda F. Quinn,Donna M. Gollnick,2019-01-02 An ideal introductory text for aspiring teachers Introduction to Teaching Making a Difference in Student Learning is grounded in the realities and complexities found in today s schools Acclaimed authors Gene E Hall Linda F Quinn and Donna M Gollnick thoroughly prepare students to make a difference as teachers presenting firsthand stories and evidence based practices while offering a student centered approach to learning The authors focus on how to address one of the biggest challenges facing many of today s schools ensuring that all students are learning and help teachers prioritize student learning as their primary focus From true to life challenges that future teachers will face such as high stakes testing reduced funding low retention and Common Core State Standards to the inspiration and joy they will experience throughout their teaching careers the Third Edition paints an importantly authentic picture of the real life of a teacher This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package Teaching for Understanding at University Noel Entwistle,2017-09-16 Research into how teaching affects the quality of student learning at university is a rapidly changing field University teachers are increasingly required to develop their own strategies for effective teaching often with limited guidance from their institutions Teaching for Understanding at University not only outlines a wide range of recent developments in the area but shows how approaches can be brought together to help university teachers think more imaginatively about ways of encouraging students learning Written in a way designed to be interesting and accessible to university teachers across disciplines the volume concentrates on how students reach a personal understanding of the subject they are studying Covering academic understanding approaches to teaching assessment methods and evaluation of teaching the book provides a comprehensive introduction to the latest ideas on teaching and learning Avoiding unnecessary jargon and business speak this is the ideal book for the newly qualified lecturer as well as the more experienced academic who is keen to consider their teaching methods from a fresh perspective Noel Entwistle is Professor Emeritus of Education at the University of Edinburgh He was previously the editor of the British

Journal of Educational Psychology and Higher Education and has an international reputation for his work in the field of student learning in higher education Teachers' Minds And Actions Gunnar Handal, Sveinung Vaage, 2005-07-19 Based on the 10th International Study Association on Teacher Thinking and Practice Conference in Gothenburg this text contains a collection of original research conducted by scholars from Europe North America Israel and Hong Kong and provides an overview of the current status of international research on teacher thinking The contributors write from different perspectives some analytical some philosophical and some contextual on the way teachers think and act The intention of the book is not to characterise critically the established traditions or any of its researchers but to study teacher thinking research in context analysing research objectives and enquiring into what lies behind the traditions The result is a picture of an unpredictable but exciting and interesting future in developments in teacher thinking research Tackling Under-performance in Teachers Jill Earnshaw, Lorrie Marchington, Eve Ritchie, Derek Torrington, 2003-12-16 All headteachers will be faced with a member of staff who is under performing at some stage in their career but knowing how to deal with the problem to everyone's benefit is not always easy Through the use of case studies the expert authors examine ways under performance can be handled in a range of circumstances Clear guidance is given on procedures that should be followed to ensure actions are within a legal framework and within current directives on performance management Key sections include how to handle capability issues ill health and capability procedures and the legal framework performance management Tackling Under performance in Teachers will be a valuable resource for headteachers school governors and LEA officers involved in school management Education Outside the Classroom Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Education and Skills Committee, 2005 The Committees report examines the wide range of outdoor learning experiences from lessons held within school grounds to residential expeditions abroad and considers the place of outdoor learning in the curriculum from foundation stage to higher education Issues discussed include the value of outdoor learning and the decline of opportunities for educational opportunities outside the classroom the barriers that deter schools from teaching outside the classroom including perceptions of risks in school trips the resources and curriculum time available for such trips availability and costs involved policy options for the Department for Education and Skills to help encourage schools improve and expand provision for outdoor learning and funding implications The Committees recommendations include that the DfES should issue a Manifesto for Outdoor Learning which gives all students the right to outdoor learning and which should attract a similar funding level to the music manifesto around 30 million in order to deliver real change The Political Dimension in Teacher Education Mark B. Ginsburg, Beverly Lindsay, 1995 Contributors deal with the political dimension of teacher education policy and the political socialization of teachers Subjects include the politics of teacher education in Australia the relationship between teachers and the state in China a rural teacher education project in Sierra Leone and secondary teacher preparation in post independence Burkina Faso A concluding chapter critiques major national and cross national motifs from the case
