Looking Over Hills:

At Home in the Hills John N. Gray, 2000-08-01 To most outsiders the hills of the Scottish Borders are a bleak and foreboding space usually made to represent the stigmatized Other Ad Finis by the centers of power in Edinburgh London and Brussels At a time when globalization seems to threaten our sense of place people of the Scottish borderlands provide a vivid case study of how the being in place is central to the sense of self and identity Since the end of the thirteenth century people living in the Scottish Border hills have engaged in armed raiding on the frontier with England developed capitalist sheep farming in the newly united kingdom of Great Britain and are struggling to maintain their family farms in one of the marginal agricultural rural regions of the European Community Throughout their history sheep farmers living in these hills have established an abiding sense of place in which family and farm have become refractions of each other Adopting a phenomenological perspective this book concentrates on the contemporary farming practices shepherding selling lambs and rams at auctions as well as family and class relations through which hill sheep fuse people place and way of life to create this sense of being at home in the hills , To Determine the Level of Training on the Overhills Tract, Fort Bragg, Cumberland and Harnett Counties , 2006 The Complete Works of Charles Sumner Charles Sumner, 2020-09-28 The speeches of Charles Sumner have many titles to endure in the memory of mankind They contain the reasons on which the American people acted in taking the successive steps in the revolution which overthrew slavery and made of a race of slaves freemen citizens voters They have a high place in literature They are not only full of historical learning set forth in an attractive way but each of the more important of them was itself an historical event They afford a picture of a noble public character They are an example of the application of the loftiest morality to the conduct of the State They are an arsenal of weapons ready for the friends of Freedom in all the great battles when she may be in peril hereafter They will not be forgotten unless the world shall attain to such height of virtue that no stimulant to virtue shall be needed or to a depth of baseness from which no stimulant can arouse it Mr Sumner held the office of Justice of the Peace and that of Commissioner of the Circuit Court to which he was appointed by his friend and teacher Judge Story He was a member of the convention held in 1853 to revise the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts With these exceptions his only official service was as Senator in Congress from Massachusetts from the 4th of March 1851 when he was just past forty years of age until his death March 9 1874 If his career could have been predicted in his earliest childhood he could have had no better training for his great duties than that he in fact received He was one of the best scholars in the public Latin School in Boston He received the Franklin medal from the hands of Daniel Webster who told him that the state had a pledge of him His school life was followed by four years in Harvard College and a course at the Harvard Law School where he was the favorite pupil of Judge Story He was an eager student of the Greek and Roman classics But his special delight was in history and international law After his admission to the bar he was reporter of the decisions of his beloved master and edited twenty volumes of the equity reports of Vesey Jr which he enriched with copious and learned notes A little later when he was twenty six years old he spent a month in Washington tarrying a short time in New York on his way In that brief period he made life long friendships with some famous men including Chancellor Kent Judge Marshall and Francis Lieber He had a rare gift for making friendships with men especially with great men and with women With him in those days an acquaintance with any person worth knowing soon ripened into an indissoluble friendship A few years later he spent a little more than two years in Europe coming home when he was just past twenty nine years old That time was spent in attending courts lectures of eminent professors and in society No house which he desired to enter seems to have been closed to him Statesmen judges scholars beautiful women leaders of fashionable society welcomed to the closest intimacy this young American of humble birth with no passport other than his own character and attainment It is hardly too much to say that the youth of twenty nine had a larger and more brilliant circle of friendship than any other man on either continent The list of his friends and correspondents would fill many pages He says in a letter to Judge Story what would seem like boasting in other men but with him was modest and far within the truth I have a thousand things to say to you about the law circuit life and the English judges I have seen more of all than probably ever fell to the lot of a foreigner I have had the friendship and confidence of judges and of the leaders of the bar Not a day passes without my being five or six hours in company with men of this stamp My tour is no vulgar holiday affair merely to spend money and to get the fashions It is to see men institutions and laws and if it would not seem vain in me I would venture to say that I have not discredited my country I have called the attention of the judges and the profession to the state of the law in our country and have shown them by my conversation I will say this that I understand their jurisprudence
