Torff,2023-01-16 The story of American popular music is steeped in social history race gender and class its evolution driven by ephemeral connection to young audiences From Benny Goodman to Sinatra to Elvis Presley to the Beatles pop icons age out of the art form while new musical styles pass from relevance to nostalgia within a few years At the same time perennial forms like blues jazz and folk are continually rediscovered by new audiences This book traces the development of American music from its African roots to the juke joint club and concert hall revealing a culture perpetually reinventing itself to suit the next generation Settling the Borderland Jan

Whitt,2008-09-05 Settling the Borderland deals with the intimate connection between journalism and literature both fields in which work by women has been underrepresented This book has a twin focus the work of journalists who became some of the greatest novelists poets and short story writers of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in America several of whom are men and contemporary journalists who best exemplify the effective use of literary techniques in news coverage Although five women are emphasized here Katherine Anne Porter Eudora Welty Joan Didion Sara Davidson and Susan Orlean three men whose work was profoundly influenced by journalism also are included Edgar Allan Poe Walt Whitman and John Steinbeck are well known as writers of poetry short stories and novels but they too are among the other voices rarely included in studies of literary journalism In Settling the Borderland Jan Whitt presents a thorough analysis of the increasingly indistinct lines between truth and fiction and between fact and creative narrative in contemporary media The Feminist Bestseller
