Lee, 1993-08-19 In this penetrating and provocative assessment of the current state of religion and its effects on society at large Philip J Lee criticizes conservatives and liberals alike as he traces gnostic motifs to the very roots of American Protestantism With references to an extraordinary spectrum of writings from sources as diverse as John Calvin Martin Buber Tom Wolfe Margaret Atwood and Emily Dickinson he probes the effects of gnostic thinking on a wide range of issues Calling for the restoration of a dialectical faith and practice the book points to positive ways of restoring health to endangered Protestant churches American Literature in Transition, 1970-1980 Kirk Curnutt, 2018-03-22 American Literature in Transition 1970 1980 examines the literary developments of the twentieth century s gaudiest decade For a quarter century filmmakers musicians and historians have returned to the era to explore the legacy of Watergate stagflation and Saturday Night Fever uncovering the unique confluence of political and economic phenomena that make the period such a baffling time Literary historians have never shown much interest in the era however a remarkable omission considering writers as diverse as Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon Marilyn French Adrienne Rich Gay Talese Norman Mailer Alice Walker and Octavia E Butler were active Over the course of twenty one essays contributors explore a range of controversial themes these writers tackled from 1960s nostalgia to feminism and the redefinition of masculinity to sexual liberation and rock n roll Other essays address New Journalism the rise of blockbuster culture memoir and self help and crime fiction all demonstrating that the Me Decade was nothing short of mesmerizing
