Mohammad, 2000-04-15 The two related issues of word order and subject verb agreement have occupied center stage in the study of Arabic syntax since the time of Sibawayhi in the eighth century This book is a contribution to both of these areas It is grounded within the generative grammar framework in one of its most recent versions namely Minimalism as expounded in Chomsky 1995 In this volume a detailed description is given of word order options in Modern Standard Arabic MSA and Palestinian Arabic PA It is shown that perhaps surprisingly the two varieties allow almost the same range of word orders The important question of whether Arabic has a VP is addressed the author argues extensively that Arabic has a VP category The evidence derives from examining superiority effects ECP effects binding variable interpretations etc Also discussed is the content of Spec TP in VSO sentences It is argued that the position is occupied by an expletive pronoun The author defends the Expletive Hypothesis which states that in VSO sentences the expletive may take part in checking some features of the verb A typology of the expletive pronoun in Modern Standard Arabic Palestinian Arabic Lebanese Arabic and Moroccan Arabic is provided A particularly interesting problem involving pronominal co reference is the following if the subject is the antecedent of a pronominal clitic word order is free if a pronominal is cliticized onto the subject then the antecedent must precede An account that derives these restrictions without recourse to linear order is proposed

The Leonardos and the Forgotten Arab Polymath, Zoroastro Susan Grundy, 2024-10-16 This book recovers the lives of four men masked behind one legend Reinterpreting recently rediscovered documents shows a Tuscan artist Leonardo da Vinci was banished from Florence around 1477 when at the same moment another Leonardo arrived from the East an Ottoman agent from Genoese Caffa in the Black Sea This Leonardo was a military engineer who began writing technical notes backward in a flourishing Italian script In Florence around 1500 he met the alchemist and polymath Zoroastro who collaborated in producing the scientific Notebooks However by the mid sixteenth century all memory of Zoroastro had been erased and the two Leonardos had been conflated into one identity Crucially an archived document rediscovered around 2021 proved that the Tuscan painter Leonardo da Vinci died in 1499 This information leads to the recovery of the artist who really painted the Mona Lisa Giovanni Antonio Boltraffio

Contemporary Arab Thought Elizabeth Suzanne Kassab, 2025-04-29 In the last third of the twentieth century the Arab intellectual and political scene polarized between totalizing doctrines nationalist Marxist and religious and radical critique. Arab thinkers were reacting to the disenchanting experience of postindependence and a widespread sense of malaise as well as to authoritarianism intolerance injustice failed development and successive defeats by Israel. The foundational account of these responses Contemporary Arab Thought illuminates the relationship between cultural and political critique in the work of major Arab thinkers. Elizabeth Suzanne Kassab also connects Arab debates to the postcolonial issues of Latin America and Africa revealing the shared struggles of different regions. Since its first publication in 2009 this book has stood as the foremost account of contemporary Arab debates on culture philosophy modernity tradition identity and liberation. It is widely used in Middle Eastern studies courses and it has become a classic in the field of Arab intellectual history. Contemporary Arab Thought now features an extensive new introduction that reconsiders post 1967 Arab intellectual history in light of the 2011 uprisings and the upheavals that have occurred over the intervening years. Stateless Literature of the Gulf Tareq Alrabei, 2021-09-23 The Bidun without nationality are a stateless community based across the Arab Gulf. There are an estimated 100 000 or so Bidun in Kuwait a heterogeneous group made up of tribes people who failed to register for citizenship between 1959 and 1963 former residents of Iraq Saudi and other Arab countries who joined the Kuwait security services in 60s and 70s and the children of Kuwaiti women and Bidun men. They are considered illegal residents by the Kuwaiti government and as such denied access to many services of the oil rich state often living in slums on the outskirts of Kuwait's cities. There are few existing works on the Bidun community and what little research there is is grounded in an Area Studies Social Sciences approach. This book is the first to explore the Bidun from a literary cultural perspective offering both the first study of the literature of the Bidun in Kuwait and in the process a corrective to some of the pitfalls of a descriptive approach to research on the Bidun and the region. The author explores the historical and political context of the Bidun their position in Kuwaiti and Arabic literary history comparisons between the Bidun and other stateless writers and analysis of the key themes in Bidun literature and their
