Recovering the Orient Andrew Gerstle,Anthony Milner,2024-11-01 Much recent writing about Asian societies and Asian Histories adopts a homogenising vision of humanity It views the definition of cultural difference as an Orientalist project serving colonial or neo colonial purposes This unusual collection of essays written by leading specialists in a range of disciplines re appraises and expands the Orientalism debate Several authors examine the ways in which the Asian other acts as a creative stimulus for the European artist composer and playwright The work of Monet Debussy and Brecht for instance is explored to suggest a subtle and complex circulation of idea between the Orient and the West Other essays investigate the scholar s own encounter with the exotic in particular they ask to what extent Western concepts and categories can be used in the analysis of Asian societies and cultures Among the concepts considered are space in Chinese art landscape high art low art and opera in Indonesia and tragedy the book concert music and subjectivity in Japan Furthermore the implications of orality and literacy are examined in the case of Malay society Like discredited orientalists the authors of this volume are in most cases based in the West in universities in Europe United States and Australia but their investigations are not grounded in confident assumptions about Western power and civilisation Recovering the Orient probes the Asian other at a time of conceptual uncertainty when foundational tenets of Western civilisation have come under question     Manet and the Family Romance Nancy Locke,2001 douard Manet s paintings have long been recognized for being visually compelling and uniquely recalcitrant While critics have noted the presence of family members and intimates in paintings such as Le Djeuner sur l herbe Nancy Locke takes an unprecedented look at the significance of the artist s family relationships for his art Locke argues that a kind of mythology of the family or Freudian family romance frequently structures Manet s compositional decisions and choice of models By looking at the representation of the family as a volatile mechanism for the development of sexuality and of repression conflict and desire Locke brings powerful new interpretations to some of Manet s most complex works Locke considers for example the impact of a father son drama rooted in a closely guarded family secret the adultery of Manet p re and the status of L on Leenhoff Her nuanced exploration of the implications of this story that Manet in fact married his father s mistress makes us look afresh at even well known paintings such as Olympia This book sheds new light on Manet s infamous interest in gypsies street musicians and itinerants as Locke analyzes the activities of Manet s father as a civil judge She also reexamines the close friendship between Manet and the Impressionist painter Berthe Morisot who married Manet s brother Morisot becomes the subject of a series of meditations on the elusiveness of the self the transience of identity and conflicting concerns with appearances and respectability Manet and the Family Romance offers an entirely new set of arguments about the cultural forces that shaped these alluring paintings

Nicholas White's analysis of novels by Zola, Maupassant, Henrique Bourget and Armand Charpentier is fashioned by perspectives on a wide cultural field including legal, popular and academic discourses on the family and its discontents. His account encourages a close rereading of canonical as well as overlooked texts from fin de siècle France. What emerges between the death of Flaubert in 1880 and the publication of Bourget's Un divorce in 1904 is a series of Naturalist and post-Naturalist representations of transgressive behaviour in which tales of adultery, illegitimacy, consanguinity, incest and divorce serve to exemplify and to offer a range of nuances on the Third Republic's crisis in what might now be termed family values     Nineteenth-Century Painters and Painting Geraldine Norman, 2023-12-22     Impressionist and Post-impressionist Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Charles S.
