Post Impressionism modern art and modern French cultural history Monet at Étretat Chiyo Ishikawa, 2021-06-05 One understudied aspect of the life and works of Oscar Claude Monet 1840 1926 is the artist's engagement with the town of Étretat on the Normandy coast of France during the mid 1880s Monet traveled there twice for extended painting sojourns and eventually created over eighty works more than he painted of any other site away from his home Through these visits Monet witnessed Étretat's shift from a quiet fishing village in a dramatic natural setting to a tourist destination In this focused study Chiyo Ishikawa places Monet's Étretat works within the context of his artistic ambition and frustration at a key moment in his life and career She also explores the changing relationship between society and landscape in late nineteenth century France The book features sixteen paintings by Monet and his contemporaries Gustave Courbet Camille Corot and Eugène Boudin supplemented by photographs and ephemeral material to bring to life Monet's experience in the region The biographical context in addition to the immersive visual experience offers a vivid account of this significant aspect of Monet's artistic progression

The Impressionists Handbook Robert Katz, Dars Celestine, 1999 The two authors who are both knowledgeable writers with extensive background in the study of art and art history write engagingly about the history of impressionism and the life and works of Pissarro Manet Degas Monet Renoir and Sisley At 7x8.5 the book is compact but the format is large enough to accommodate decent reproductions of many of the paintings under consideration This is a thoughtfully prepared well written treatment of the subject with none of the ponderousness that handbook might imply It was originally published in 1991 by Bookmart Ltd UK Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Art and Monist Philosophy in Nineteenth Century France From Auteuil to Giverny Nina Athanassoglou-Kallmyer, 2023-09-25 This is a study of the relation between the fine arts and philosophy in France from the aftermath of the 1789 revolution to the end of the nineteenth century when a philosophy of being called monism the concept of a unity of matter and spirit emerged and became increasingly popular among intellectuals artists and scientists Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer traces the evolution and impact of this monist thought and its various permutations as a transformative force on certain aspects of French art and culture from Romanticism to Impressionism and as a theoretical backdrop that paved the way to as yet unexplored aspects of a modernist aesthetic Chapters concentrate on three major artists Théodore Géricault 1791 1824 Eugène Delacroix 1798 1863 and Claude Monet 1840 1926 and their particular approach to and interpretation of this unitarian concept The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history philosophy and cultural history

Mediations between Nature and Culture Aaron K. Kerr,2022-07-20 This book explores the placement of human beings a betweenness that elicits the fact that human communication is the mediation between one s intellectual moral and political experience Aaron K Kerr explores the relationship between nature and culture exposing the obscurities caused by technology and economic dogmatism A renewal of the mediatory role of human communication is juxtaposed to the immediacy of digital consumption The author reveals that to redress ecological distress there must be an equal awareness sense of place and regional responsibility for built environments which value nature By situating philosophy and communication within the scientific consensus of the anthropocene the author clearly indicates the necessary mediations between fact and value science and religion local and global nature and culture Scholars of philosophy rhetoric environmental ethics and global bioethics will find this book of particular interest

The Art of Impressionism Anthea Callen,2000-01-01 Drawing on scientific studies of pigments and materials artists treatises colourmen s archives and contemporary and modern accounts Anthea Callen demonstrates how raw materials and paintings are profoundly interdependent She analyses the material constituents of oil painting and the complex processes of making entailed in all aspects of artistic production discussing in particular oil painting methods for landscapists and the impact of plein air light on figure painting studio practice and display Insisting that the meanings of paintings are constituted by and within the cultural matrices that produced them Callen argues that the real modernity of the Impressionist enterprise lies in the painters material practices

BOOK JACKET

Impressionism and the Modern Landscape James H. Rubin,2008-04-03 The examples convey not only these major themes but also the painters belief in the progress of civilization through science and industry The book thus expands the scope of Impressionist celebrations of modernity to include what might be called Impressionism s other landscape and proposes that in the Impressionists effort to forge a modern landscape art those signs of modernity defined their vision most clearly
