are most famous Monet intended the water lilies to provide an asylum of peaceful meditation Yet as Ross King reveals in his magisterial chronicle of both artist and masterpiece these beautiful canvases featured in black and white images throughout as well as a 16 pg color insert belie the intense frustration Monet experienced in trying to capture the fugitive effects of light water and color They also reflect the terrible personal torments Monet suffered in the last dozen years of his life Mad Enchantment tells the full story behind the creation of the Water Lilies as the horrors of World War I came ever closer to Paris and Giverny and a new generation of younger artists led by Henri Matisse and Pablo Picasso were challenging the achievements of Impressionism By early 1914 French newspapers were reporting that Monet by then seventy three had retired his brushes He had lost his beloved wife Alice and his eldest son Jean His famously acute vision what Paul Cezanne called the most prodigious eye in the history of painting was threatened by cataracts And yet despite ill health self doubt and advancing age Monet began painting again on a more ambitious scale than ever before Linking great artistic achievement to the personal and historical dramas unfolding around it Ross King presents the most intimate and revealing portrait of an iconic figure in world culture

Consuming Painting Allison Deutsch, 2021-02-26 In Consuming Painting Allison Deutsch challenges the pervasive view that Impressionism was above all about visual experience Focusing on the language of food and consumption as they were used by such prominent critics as Baudelaire and Zola she writes new histories for familiar works by Manet Monet Caillebotte and Pissarro and creates fresh possibilities for experiencing and interpreting them Examining the culinary metaphors that the most influential critics used to express their attraction or disgust toward painting Deutsch rethinks French modern life painting in relation to the visceral reactions that these works evoked in their earliest publics Writers posed viewing as analogous to ingestion and used comparisons to food to describe the appearance of paint and the painter's process The food metaphors they chose were aligned with specific female types such as red meat for sexualized female flesh confections for fashionably made up women and hearty vegetables for agricultural laborers These culinary figures of speech Deutsch argues provide important insights into both the fabrication of the feminine and the construction of masculinity in nineteenth century France Consuming Painting exposes the social politics at stake in the deeply gendered metaphors of sense and sensation Original and convincing Consuming Painting upends traditional narratives of the sensory reception of modern painting This trailblazing book is essential reading for specialists in nineteenth century art and criticism gender studies and modernism
