Beneath the Sands of Time Jody Cooke, 2021-06-08 The poetry of Jody Cooke while greatly varied and at times seemingly unfocused in theme is a wonderful read and filled with rich emotional commentary From man's base desires and carnal hunger to the more brutal aspects of rage obsession and the need for violence Mr Cooke takes a deep look into man's heart and pulls out the things we all try so desperately to hide In other works he explores more romantic themes such as love family and the untamed wilds of our deepest imagination Contained within this book are many such pieces A body of work that is the result of a lifetime of creation Here is a brief examination of a few of my favorites

Toddler Storytimes II Diane Briggs, 2008 School Library Journal With 25 theme based chapters this is a handy resource Each theme includes book recommendations often 10 or more with a nice mixture of classic and newer titles and a suggestion to choose two or three per session Words and instructions for fingerplays rhymes and songs are provided while a discography provides melody sources for all songs Each theme includes a flannel board activity complete with reproducible patterns and brief directions on how to present the story or song on the board Safe and simple crafts ideas are presented as optional activities Activities are listed by type rather than in an ordered list so tellers can pick choose and order according to individual style and preference An introduction provides tips and rationale for all of the types of activities A couple of sentences note the potential impact on brain development and early literacy skills but the focus is on the activities themselves strategies for sharing early literacy information with parents and caregivers are not addressed Judy Nichols's Storytimes for Two Year Olds ALA 2007 and Linda L Ernst's Baby Rhyming Time Neal Schuman 2008 provide more comprehensive looks at all aspects of storytime planning and presentation This update of Briggs's Toddler Storytime Programs Scarecrow 1993 will be most useful as a resource for programming ideas and fleshing out themes

Narrative Inquiries of School Reform Cheryl J. Craig, 2003-05-01. This book culminates five years of extensive field-based inquiry with teachers and principals in four reforming school contexts. It arises from living alongside teachers and principals entering into their realities, engaging them in conversations, seeing school life through their eyes, and employing the words and images they use to wrap around their experiences. It involved thinking narratively about schools as sites of high drama within which teachers and principals negotiate meaning as knowledgeable and knowing human beings. It gave primacy to everyday events taking shape on school landscapes. It meant creating spaces and devoting enormous amounts of time to observing and listening hard to what teachers and principals say and do when reform initiatives become personally lived in context from their points of view.
