Monks & Nuns, Saints & Outcasts Sharon Ann Farmer (médiéviste).), Barbara H. Rosenwein (historienne).), 2000

Monks & Nuns, Saints & Outcasts Lester K. Little, Sharon A. Farmer, Barbara H. Rosenwein, 2000 A new generation of historians today is borrowing from cultural anthropology post modern critical theory and gender studies to understand the social meanings of medieval religious movements practices figures and cults In this volume Sharon Farmer and Barbara H Rosenwein bring together essays all hitherto unpublished that combine some of the best of these new approaches with rigorous research and traditional scholarship Some of these essays re envision the professionals of religion the monks and nuns who carried out crucial social functions as mediators between living and dead repositories for social memory and loci of vicarious piety In their religious life these people embodied an image of the society that produced them Other contributions focus on social categories usually expressed as dichotomies male female insider outsider saint outcast Monks and Nuns Saints and Outcasts is the first book to show the interaction of seemingly antithetical groups of medieval people and the ways in which they were defined by as well as against each other All of the essays taken together form a tribute to Lester K Little pioneer in the study of religion in medieval society

Feuding and Peace-Making in Eleventh-Century France Stephen D. White, 2024-10-28 The essays in this volume discuss feuding and peacemaking in France during a period extending from the mid 10th to the early 12th century They treat various aspects of so called dispute processing a term coined by legal anthropologists to refer to the political processes and discursive practices through which conflict is mediated politically socially legally and culturally Each of the essays can be read both as one element in a larger critique of the theory that a feudal revolution in c 1000 initiated a century long era of feudal anarchy in France and as a study on a particular topic in medieval European legal and political history These include feuding violence the emotional dimensions of conflicts among elites the role of norms and normative argument in disputes the uses of unilateral ordeals and judicial duels in litigation and alternative strategies for terminating disputes

T&T Clark Companion to Liturgy Alcuin Reid, 2015-12-17 In the decades following the Second Vatican Council Catholic liturgy became an area of considerable interest and debate if not controversy in the West Mid late 20th century liturgical scholarship upon which the liturgical reforms of the Second Vatican Council were predicated and implemented no longer stands unquestioned The liturgical and ecclesial springtime the reforms of Paul VI were expected to facilitate has failed to emerge leaving many questions as to their wisdom and value Quo vadis Catholic liturgy This Companion brings together a variety of scholars who consider this question at the beginning of the 21st century in the light of advances in liturgical scholarship decades of post Vatican II experience and the critical re examination in the West of the question of the liturgy promoted by Benedict XVI The contributors each eminent in their field have distinct takes on how to answer this question but each makes a significant contribution to contemporary debate making this Companion an essential reference for the study of Western Catholic liturgy in history and in the light of contemporary scholarship and debate

Prophets in the Qur'ān and the Bible Daniel S. Baeq, Sam Kim, 2022-05-24 The theme of prophets and prophecy is a central area of theological research and discussion in both Christianity and Islam While academic researches on the prophets of Islamic tradition do exist it is rare to find studies which compare them with the biblical accounts based on evangelical theology This book provides theological analysis of the biblical prophets which appear in the Qur'an and the Islamic literature The selection of prophets includes Adam Nuh Noah Ibrahim Abraham Yusuf Joseph Musa Moses Dawud David Ezekiel Dhul Kifl Zakariya Yahya John the Baptist and Mary the Mother of Jesus The contributors are a distinguished group of international scholars who combine impressive academic credentials with extensive ministry among Muslims Moreover the international nature of the contributors lends credibility to the work as an exercise in global theology This book lays a good foundation for the comparison of scriptural and theological traditions of two world major religions and for generating further discussions

Topographies of Power in the Early Middle Ages Mayke de Jong, Frans Theuws, 2001-06-28 The 19 papers presented in this volume by North American and European historians and archaeologists discuss how early medieval political and religious elites constructed places of power and how such places in turn created powerful people They also examine how the high level power exercised by elites was transformed in the post Roman kingdoms of Europe as Roman cities gave way as central stages for rituals of power to a multitude of places and spaces where political and religious power were represented Although the Frankish kingdoms receive a large share of attention contributions also focus on the changing topography of power in the old centres of the Roman world Rome and Constantinople to what centres of power may have meant in the steppes of Inner Asia Scandinavia or the lower Vistula where political power was even more mobile and decentralised than in the post Roman kingdoms as well as to monasteries and their integration into early medieval topographies of power

Barbezat, 2018-12-15 Burning Bodies interrogates the ideas that the authors of historical and theological texts in the medieval West associated with the burning alive of Christian heretics Michael Barbezat traces these instances from the eleventh century until the advent of the internal crusades of the thirteenth century depicting the exclusionary fires of hell and judicial execution the purifying fire of post mortem purgation and the unifying fire of God's love that medieval authors used to describe processes of social inclusion and exclusion Burning Bodies analyses how the accounts of burning heretics alive referenced affirmed and elaborated upon wider discourses of community and eschatology Descriptions of burning supposed heretics alive were profoundly related to ideas of a redemptive Christian community based upon a divine unifying love and medieval understandings of what these burnings could have meant to contemporaries cannot be fully appreciated outside of this discourse of communal love For them human communities were bodies on fire Medieval theologians and academics often described the corporate identity of the Christian world as a body joined together by the love of God This love was like a fire melting individuals together into one whole Those who did not spiritually burn with God's love were destined to burn literally in the fires of Hell or Purgatory and the fires of execution were often described as an earthly extension of these fires Through this analysis Barbezat demonstrates how presentations of heresy and to some extent actual responses to perceived heretics were shaped by long standing images of biblical commentary and exegesis He finds that this imagery is more than a literary curiosity it is in fact a

Jesuit Ethos, The Enyegue, Jean Luc, SJ, 2023 The Jesuit Ethos aims at revisiting important moments in Jesuit history from the margins and in light of the current global challenges It argues that by examining Jesuit history from the margins one better appreciates this history as a spiritual journey a constant quest for the unity of hearts and minds among the members Their cultural and political origins the diversity of their ministries their apostolic dispersion amid the First Globalization and constant assaults from declared enemies kept the Jesuits on the verge of implosion and immolation and made the unity among their members a matter of survival By analyzing how the Jesuits exploited their diversity of cultures and politics to build a global ethos and how this global organization was sustained for the last 500 years relevant lessons can be learned to address the ongoing challenges of our global community While speaking to a broader global oriented audience such a history might be the first of such by an African thus its originality in a context of shifting demographics in the Church and Society of Jesus and questions about the identity of its institution and mission

The Merovingians in Historiographical Tradition Yaniv Fox, 2023-11-16 The Merovingian centuries were a foundational period in the historical consciousness of western Europe The memory of the first dynasty of Frankish kings their origin myths accomplishments and failures were used by generations of chroniclers propagandists and historians to justify a wide range of social and political agendas The process of curating and editing the source material gave rise to a recognizable Merovingian narrative with three distinct phases meteoric ascent stasis and decline Already in the seventh century Chronicle of Fredegar this tripartite model was invoked by a Merovingian queen to prophesy the fate of her descendants This expert commentary sets out to understand how the story of the Merovingians was shaped through a process of continuous historiographical adaptation It examines authors from across a millennium of historical writing and analyzes their influences and objectives charting the often unexpected ways in which their narratives were received and developed
