Paul Blaisdell was the man behind the monsters in such movies as The She Creature Invasion of the Saucer Men Not of This Earth It Terror from Beyond Space and many others Working in primarily low budget films Blaisdell was forced to rely on greasepaint guts and most importantly an unbounded imagination for his creations From his inauspicious beginning through The Ghost of Dragstrip Hollow 1959 the construction of Blaisdell's monsters and the making of the movies in which they appeared are fully detailed here Blaisdell's work in the early monster magazines of the 1960s is also covered Revenge of the Movie Monster Models Mark C. Glassy, 2024-05-07 Science fiction and fantasy movies of the 20th century feature many iconic figures and monsters and the ability to create and own many of them in the form of models provides fans with an opportunity to mingle amongst the greats and not so greats This book is a collection of figures and dioramas of monsters from both science fiction and fantasy films Models are presented in chronological order decade by decade starting with films in the silent era and running through the end of the century The building and painting of the figures and dioramas of various scenes from these films some more accurately than others provides an opportunity to preserve key moments in these movies

Creature Features William Schoell, 2016-09-30 This work offers a critical colorful and informative examination of different types of monster movies spanning the silent period to today Chapter One focuses on dragons dinosaurs and other scaly giants from films like 1953's The Beast from 20 000 Fathoms an impressive stop motion production that ushered in a new era of atomic spawned monster films Chapter Two examines big bug flicks beginning with 1954's giant ant infested Them Chapter Three focuses on ordinary animals grown to improbable proportions through scientific or sinister experimentation such as the huge octopus in 1955's It Came from Beneath the Sea Chapters Four Five and Six look at films in which nature goes berserk and otherwise innocuous animals flock swarm hop or run about on a menacingly massive scale including 1963's The Birds and 1972's Frogs Finally Chapter Seven focuses on films featuring beasts that defy easy definition such as 1958's The Blob and Fiend Without a Face

Arguing about Art Alex Neill, Aaron Ridley, 2002 Within this edition five new sections have been added on interpretation objectivity gardening horror and morality and many of the introductions have been updated The book should appeal to students of art history literature and cultural studies as well as philosophy

The Philosophy of Horror Noel Carroll, 2003-09-02 Noel Carroll film scholar and philosopher offers the first serious look at the aesthetics of horror In this book he discusses the nature and narrative structures of the genre dealing with horror as a transmedia phenomenon A fan and serious student of the horror genre Carroll brings to bear his comprehensive knowledge of obscure and forgotten works as well as of the horror masterpieces Working from a philosophical perspective he tries to account for how people can find pleasure in having their wits scared out of them What after all are those paradoxes of the heart that make us want to be horrified

Atomic Narratives and American Youth Michael Scheibach, 2015-09-17 Following the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki numerous atomic narratives books newspapers magazines textbooks movies and television programs addressed the implications of the bomb Post World War II youth encountered atomic narratives in their daily lives at school at home and in their communities and were profoundly affected by what they read and saw This multidisciplinary study examines the exposure of American youth to atomic narratives during the ten years following World War II In addition it examines the broader social narrative of the atom which included educational social cultural and political activities that surrounded and involved American youth The activities ranged from school and community programs to movies and television shows to government sponsored traveling exhibits on atomic energy The book also presents numerous examples of writings by postwar adolescents who clearly expressed their conflicted feelings about growing up in such a tumultuous time and shows how many of the issues commonly associated with the sixties generation such as peace fellowship free expression and environmental concern can be traced to this earlier generation

Apocalypse Then Mike Bogue, 2017-08-11 The United States the only country to have dropped the bomb and Japan the only one to have suffered its devastation understandably portray the nuclear threat differently on film American science fiction movies of the 1950s and 1960s generally proclaim that it is possible to put the nuclear genie

back in the bottle Japanese films of the same period assert that once freed the nuclear genie can never again be imprisoned This book examines genre films from the two countries released between 1951 and 1967 including Godzilla 1954 The Mysterians 1957 The Incredible Shrinking Man 1957 On the Beach 1959 The Last War 1961 and Dr Strangelove 1964 to show the view from both sides of the Pacific Atomic Bomb Cinema Jerome F. Shapiro, 2013-05-13 Unfathomably merciless and powerful the atomic bomb has left its indelible mark on film In Atomic Bomb Cinema Jerome F Shapiro unearths the unspoken legacy of the bombing of Nagasaki and Hiroshima and its complex aftermath in American and Japanese cinema According to Shapiro a Bomb film is never simply an exercise in ideology or paranoia He examines hundreds of films like Godzilla Dr Strangelove and The Terminator as a body of work held together by ancient narrative and symbolic traditions that extol survival under devastating conditions Drawing extensively on both English language and Japanese language sources Shapiro argues that such films not only grapple with our nuclear anxieties but also offer signs of hope that humanity is capable of repairing a damaged and divided world www atomicbombcinema com
