Monstrous Story:

Monstrous Story Nikola Krajina, 2022-09-26 One day the Blue Monster went to eat Fire but he was prevented from doing so by the Red Monster who ate him and then the Yellow Monster ate Red Monster When a four year old writes a story the most suitable medium to recount that story is a picture book This is because no adult can develop a good enough story for children like themselves Mauro Lacovich psychologist and psychotherapist author of countless therapeutic stories for children recognized the potential of this story and illustrated it in a way that enables children to learn to distinguish colours

The Curse of Eve, the Wound of the Hero Peggy McCracken, 2010-11-24 In The Curse of Eve the Wound of the Hero Peggy McCracken explores the role of blood symbolism in establishing and maintaining the sex gender systems of medieval culture Reading a variety of literary texts in relation to historical medical and religious discourses about blood and in the context of anthropological and religious studies McCracken offers a provocative examination of the ways gendered cultural values were mapped onto blood in the Middle Ages As McCracken demonstrates blood is gendered when that of men is prized in stories about battle and that of women is excluded from the public arena in which social and political hierarchies are contested and defined through chivalric contest In her examination of the conceptualization of familial relationships she uncovers the privileges that are grounded in gendered definitions of blood relationships She shows that in narratives about sacrifice a father's relationship to his son is described as a shared blood whereas texts about women accused of giving birth to monstrous children define the mother's contribution to conception in terms of corrupted often menstrual blood Turning to fictional representations of bloody martyrdom and of eucharistic ritual McCracken juxtaposes the blood of the wounded guardian of the grail with that of Christ and suggests that the blood from the grail king's wound is characterized in opposition to that of women and Jewish men Drawing on a range of French and other literary texts McCracken shows how the dominant ideas about blood in medieval culture point to ways of seeing modern values associated with blood in a new light and how modern representations in turn suggest new perspectives on medieval perceptions

Inhabited by Stories Nancy A. Barta-Smith, Danette DiMarco, 2012-11-30 Intertextuality has signaled change appropriation adaptation and derivation It has focused readers on irresolvable questions of influence and origination progressive or regressive movement across continents periods and media Inhabited by Stories Critical Essays on Tales Retold takes a different approach What would a model of literary study look like that steps out of time's river and embraces not only the presence and proximity of the world to the senses but also of the past and the future to the present here and now When stories inhabit us imagination and memory extend our ability to see and feel Phenomenological experience is lived not just thought Such a perspective suggests that the past and future inhabit the present increase the depth of sensory perception itself and enrich the range of our affective and ethical responses Grounded in the lived experience of reading this perspective offers an alternative to an idea of intertextuality as simply following lines of influence and appropriation It focuses on the expansion of experience
