Arawata Bill (4th edition) Ian Dougherty,2019-09-12 This is the story of a pioneering folk hero It is a colourful tale of adventure discovery and survival in the remotest areas of New Zealand s Southern Alps William James O Leary was a man of humble origins His lifetime 1865 1947 spanned a period of New Zealand history when the country was searching for homegrown heroes in whose lives the young nation could discover clues to the question of its identity The decades O Leary spent in the unforgiving mountain country of North West Otago and South Westland prospecting for gold and other minerals and making new tracks in unexplored areas was bound to be regarded with envy and admiration by townsfolk The myth making process was assisted when the nickname Arawata Bill stuck but it is the man s astonishing feats of endurance tenacity and charming eccentricity which capture the imagination Add in the mystery of a lost ruby mine a seaboot full of gold sovereigns and the aura of secrecy surrounding the quest for precious metal and you have the stuff of which legends are made Generations of New Zealand schoolchildren are familiar with Denis Glover s poem Arawata Bill yet the subject of that work was only loosely based on William O Leary The man himself in his solitary and self effacing way was both smaller and greater than the legend He emerged as one of those archetypal New Zealanders who helped to define a distinctive nationality In this fully revised and updated biography Ian Dougherty has separated the man from the myth with a warmly human portrait of an ordinary man who lived an extraordinary life Masks of the World Joseph Gregor,2001-01-01 Informative pictorial survey of many authentic cover ups worn around the world over a wide range of historical periods Images of a Kwakiutl dance mask of wood and skin from British Columbia a terra cotta mask from ancient Athens an 18th century porcelain Harlequin mask a Javanese demon s mask of wood a cloth mask embroidered with pearls from Cameroon and many more Invaluable to anthropologists and theatrical groups of great interest to art lovers Storying Plants in Australian Children's and Young Adult Literature Melanie Duckworth,Annika Herb,2023-10-04 Storying Plants in Australian Children s and Young Adult Literature Roots and Winged Seeds explores cultural and historical aspects of the representation of plants in Australian children s and young adult literature encompassing colonial postcolonial and Indigenous perspectives While plants tend to be backgrounded as of less narrative interest than animals and humans this book in conversation with the field of critical plant studies approaches them as living beings worthy of attention Australia is home to over 20 000 species of native plants from pungent Eucalypts to twisting mangroves from tiny orchids to spiky silvery spinifex Indigenous Australians have lived with relied upon and cultivated these plants for many thousands of years When European explorers and colonists first invaded Australia unfamiliar species of plants captured their imagination Vulnerable to bushfires climate change and introduced species plants continue to occupy fraught but vital places in Australian ecologies texts and cultures Discussing writers from Ambelin Kwaymullina and Auntie Joy Murphy to May Gibbs and Ethel Turner and embracing transnational perspectives from Ukraine Poland and Aotearoa New Zealand Storying Plants addresses the stories told about plants but also the stories that plants themselves tell engaging with the wide ranging significance of plants in Australian children s and Young Adult literature
