Introspections Snehasis Sur, 2005 Articles chiefly on Indian media by various authors The Long Game on the Silk Road S. Frederick Starr, Svante E. Cornell, 2018-04-03 This book argues that American and European policies toward Central Asia and the Caucasus suffer from both conceptual and structural impediments It traces the framework of Western policies to the 1975 Helsinki Final Act which resulted in the stovepiping of relations into political economic and democracy categories and in often uncoordinated or contradictory policies While the authors embrace the goal of promoting human rights and democracy they argue that the antagonistic methods adopted to advance this goal have proven counter productive They propose that Western governments work with the regional states rather than on or against them and that instead of focusing directly on political systems policies should focus on developing the quality of governance and help build institutions that will be building blocks of rule of law and democracy in the long term The authors also argue that Western leaders have largely failed to grasp the significance of this region relegated it to a subordinate status and thus damaging western interests The development of sovereign economically strong and effectively self governing states in the Caucasus and Central Asia is an important goal in its own right the book stresses the importance of a region where the development and preservation of secular statehood could become a model for the entire Muslim world Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Internal Security United States. Congress. House. Committee on Internal Security, 1974 The Routledge Companion to Digital Journalism Studies Scott A. Eldridge II, David Cheruiyot, Sandra Banjac, Joëlle Swart, 2024-12-16 This second edition of The Routledge Companion to Digital Journalism Studies offers a truly global and groundbreaking collection of essays addressing the key issues and debates shaping the field of digital journalism studies today Journalism has arguably faced unprecedented disruption and reconceptualization since the first edition of this Companion was published Questions over what role journalism and journalists play in society are pervasive and changes to platforms products practices and audiences are among the forces driving a new research agenda in the field This newly reorganized second edition addresses developments in technologies data infrastructures algorithms and the businesses behind these technologies as well as the impact of such developments on the practice of digital journalism Debates concerning the decline of public trust in journalism and the blurred distinctions between journalism and other forms of media and communication are also considered The chapters outline the need for digital competence and literacy within journalism and introduce new methodological approaches including experimental and arts based methods computational methods and collaborative work Comprising 54 original essays from distinguished academics across the globe this book showcases the rich diversity of work that continues to define the field of digital journalism studies and is an essential point of reference for students and researchers alike

which individual access and participation to technology is about to replace the rich texture of religion culture tradition and political convictions the social impact of media discourse only magnifies This volume is an attempt to explore the influence of ever available communication content on the minds and behavior of a population that has made the permanent and often obsessive use of communication technology a defining element of social orientation Unlike the many accounts that focus on the remarkably redefined patterns in the context of Western society ranging from twittering Presidents to the emerging populist movements all over Europe this volume portrays the situation from the frequently neglected perspective of the global periphery As opposed to simply transfer and measure perspectives taken from a Western point of view the clear intention of this volume is to provide ample space for the sincere and explorative consideration of local characteristics and settings of the different social cultural and political contexts and therefore contribute to providing the ground for future research

The Mediated City Stephen Coleman,Nancy Thumim,Chris Birchall,Julie Firmstone,Giles Moss,Katy Parry,Judith Stamper,Jay G. Blumler,2016-08-15 How does news circulate in a major post industrial city And how in turn are identities and differences formed and mediated through this circulation This seminal work is the first to offer an empirical examination and trace a city s pattern of news circulation Encompassing a comprehensive range of practices involved in producing circulating and consuming news and recognizing the various ways in which individuals and groups may find out follow and discuss local issues and events The Mediated City critiques thinking that takes the centrality of certain news media as an unquestioned starting point By doing so it opens up a discussion do we know what news is What types of media constitute it And why does it matter
